EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett.

Last Wednesday afternoon John Butler, one of our promising young men, was a business caller and reports that his brother James, who is in the naval service, has come home on a sick leave of absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Brown, who were here doing business with the Von der Hellen Hotel, Co. Thursday morning.

Mrs. Sample, wife of the superintendent of the Alivista orchard, came in with one of the hired men Thursday morning and while Mrs. Sample was attending to her business at Geo. Brown & Sons' store the driver attempted to turn the team of mules around, they commenced to back and the driver being unacquainted with that kind of work didn't know how to manage them and the result was he had a little smash-up and W. L. Childreth, our blacksmith and wagon maker, or rather repairer, had a job repairing the break.

Emmett Beeson of Talent, came in Wednesday evening and spent the night. He was here to take a small bunch of cattle home that he had here.

J. F. True of Medford, came over Thursday to work helping to frame the timbers at the old P. & E. depot for the flume across Lake creek.

S. S. Engles of Prospect, Red Bluff, was here for dinner Thursday, and so was A. S. Hilton, the meter reader for the California-Oregon Power company, who was here on his regular round Thursday and dined with us.

N. E. Slusser, our barber, has his machinery in operation and is now cutting and polishing wigs.

Speaking of agates brings to my mind the fact that in my letter of the 15th I stated that Mr. Hosler of Ashland, had been here and that he had gathered quite a quantity of fine specimens of Agates, but the printer had the name Slesler instead of Hosler. Another mistake in the same letter was the name of Clarence Burnett was put in when it should have been Clarence Robinson.

The Jackson County Creamery and the Independent Creamery trucks are making their regular trips out here now and our roads have dried up and been worked so that they are quite decent now.

J. M. Wilfrey, one of our leading orchardists was in town Thursday and spoke very encouragingly of his prospect for a bountiful crop of fruit this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Henson of Brownboro, were business callers Thursday.

to see him so helpless so far as his propelling power is concerned. I also met Mr. and Mrs. John Greb and daughter Miss Frances and son John who returned from France a short time ago, and was glad to see him alive and well, for the reader will remember that he was reported on the casualty list.

School Superintendent G. W. Ager came in Friday afternoon and visited our school and spent the night with us and this Saturday morning opened the local teachers institute at 10:30 with the following teachers responding to the roll call: Miss Hazel Wiley of Antelope school, Miss Ethel Freeman of Butte Creek, Miss Olive Kirk of Rogaland, Miss Julia Sidley of Lake Creek, Miss Frances Greb of Brownboro, Miss Margaret Hammond of Reese Creek, Miss Florence Lansing, Miss Pina Benedict and of course Principal E. N. Deardorff of Eagle Point, and Prof. R. E. Morris, school supervisor. The exercises were opened by singing and then there was a discussion on the best plan to make up work. Prof. Deardorff gave us a lengthy talk giving his ideas as to the best plan to follow so as to make up for the lost time during the past winter and he was followed by Miss Julia Sidley giving some very good suggestions.

The next subject was the Standard School, with Supl. Ager as leader. He explained what was meant by a standard school and then gave us some very interesting thoughts on the subject. He was followed by Mrs. L. K. Haak, one of the directors in which she gave a brief history of our school during the almost nine years she has been connected with it as a member of the school board, showing some of the difficulties she has labored under during those years, the struggle she had to procure small appropriations for the improvement of school grounds so as to interest the larger boys and girls so as to have them take part in the plays instead of standing in little groups and indulging in questionable conversation. She also gave us some fine suggestions with regard to the best way to interest the children in their studies and encourage them in their work.

We then adjourned for dinner at the Sunnyside, and after lunch we returned to the schoolhouse and spent a short time in a social way, Miss Benedict being leader, and the next thing on the program was the question box. Prof. Morris, leader. There were many questions asked and answered but owing to my trouble in hearing there was a great deal said that I did not understand.

We then had a duet by Miss Lansing and Mrs. Royal Brown. The next was standard tests and compilation of records about Eagle Point. This was confined to the teachers and so I retired as I wanted to get this letter off by Monday morning's mail.

The whole proceedings was well conducted and we are hoping that our school superintendent will arrange to have another local institute this coming season.

M'NARY FAVORS NATION'S LEAGUE

PORTLAND, Mar. 25.—C. H. Preston, secretary-treasurer of the Portland local of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, yesterday received a letter from Senator McNary of Oregon, acknowledging the union's resolution regarding the League of Nations. The senator said: "I think everyone, capable of connected thought, is opposed to wars and the waste, cruelties and horrors attendant thereto, and is looking for the formation of some human institution which will prevent the repetition of the horrible conflict through which we have just emerged.

"In my opinion, the language contained in the proposed constitution should, in some instances, be clarified and some amendments made that will remove some of its imperfections, thereby protecting the rights of American sovereignty. I have no doubt that some league will be formed and a constitution adopted which will be acceptable to the people of the nations and which will prevent future wars and further demoralize and spiritualize the races of mankind."

SEATTLE, March 25.—D. M. Storrs today occupied a cell in the Okanogan county jail charged with abducting Miss Ruth Garrison, 18, who confessed she poisoned Mrs. Storrs, her rival for Storrs' love.

A dispatch to the Seattle Times said about 100 Okanogan residents were at the depot when Storrs arrived last night from Seattle in custody of Sheriff Harry E. Stark. None spoke to him, although most of them knew Storrs when he worked in an Okanogan garage and all thought Miss Garrison was Mrs. Storrs.

Miss Garrison, being a charge of murder, was still confined in the county detention home. She will appear in court late this week to plead.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She mixed Sulphur with it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness. Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
