Bands will be awfully good in the spring and summer of 1919! No demonstration of the popularity of bands is this sweet little afternoon frock—quite mid-Victorian in its lines—made of navy blue tulle, scalloped and banded with black satin, and worn over a petticoat of blue moire. A mushroom garden hat of leghorn with a broad band of black satin is quite in character with the gown.

L. Many and R. Barlow of Helena, Mont., arrived in the city Friday and are guests at the Nash.

You can always find something for a quick lunch at DeVoe's.

C. L. Campbell or the inspection department of the Southern Pacific railroad arrived in the city Saturday from Yakima to look into the fruit situation relative to the damage done by recent frosts. The railroad officials were much concerned by a rumor in circulation at Portland, which was wholly without foundation, to the effect that the valley had a killing frost early in the week.

Mrs. Robert Rheams left this morning for Sams Valley to spend the week end with Mrs. M. E. Gardner, the Sams valley postmistress and merchant who sold her store about a month ago.

George W. Barker, the banker of Butte Falls, was a Saturday business visitor in the city.

The dance of the high school alumni at the Natatorium last night was a very enjoyable affair.

The waiting room of the S. P. depot, which was recently repainted and decorated, is all mused up again and will be that way for two days while the railroad's painting crew paints the cement floors to make the interior of the big room more sanitary. Probably the next idea of Mark Montgomery in the line of cleanliness will be to have the gravel along the depot platform dusted.

FRENCH JOURNALS ATTACK ENGLISH AND U. S. LEADERS

PARIS, April 12.—Three hundred members of the French chamber of deputies have signed a manifesto associating themselves with the resolutions signed Thursday by the members of the senate in which hope was expressed that full restitution would be exacted from the enemy and that the full cost of the war would be "imposed on those responsible for the greatest crime of history." The resolution said that the senators insisted that the peace treaty and the League of Nations provide legal and territorial guarantees of sufficient strength to prevent future wars.

This is taken by many observers, including French newspapers, as another sign of the growing discontent with the peace conference and its work. The French press also is apparently discontented with the results of the last two meetings of the League of Nations commission.

"Pertinax," writing in the Echo de Paris, warns the council of four that the parliaments in London, Paris and Washington, not to speak of others, will not accept a peace treaty blindfolded." The writer adds:

"The preliminaries are being elaborated in secrecy. The council of ten decided to make the League of Nations the keystone of their work, but at the latest meeting of the league commission as before, all amendments likely to give it bones, muscles and nerves, notably those offered by the French, found no mercy from those great doctrinaires, President Wilson and Lord Robert Cecil."

MAKE YOUR SHOES WEAR LONGER

Ten months ago, W. H. Kelley, a lumber salesman of Omaha, had a pair of shoes re-soled with Neolin Soles. Mr. Kelley does much walking and has worn these shoes constantly. He says "they are still good for another ten months of wear."

Good shoe stores carry Neolin-soled shoes in many styles for men, women and children. They cost you no more than shoes that give less wear. Neolin Soles are also available everywhere for re-soiling. Remember—these soles are created by science to be what soles should be. They are comfortable and waterproof—as well as long-wearing. DOUG FAIRBANKS LAST APPEARANCE TONIGHT

The splendid production of "Arizona," made by Douglas Fairbanks for Arterart, which is attracting large audiences to the Liberty theater is in every respect a most notable picture production. It is a somewhat different Fairbanks story, but as a dashingly cavalier lieutenant, Mr. Fairbanks does some startling riding feats and other athletic stunts which render his portrayal most enjoyable. Efficient support is given by Marjorie Daw, Kathleen Kirkham, Theodore Roberts, Frank Campana, Kate Price, Raymond Hatton and others.
