EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett
Mr. J. Spiker of Little Amuletto, who has been a guest at the Sunnyside hotel for some time, left on Tuesday morning.

Sam Courtney, who is holding down a homestead near Reese creek came in Wednesday and spent the night and the next day gave S. H. Harnish's Ford a new coat of varnish, greatly improving the appearance of the machine.

Fred Deardriff, a brother of the principal of our school, and family of Ashland, came in Wednesday afternoon to visit his brother, returning Thursday afternoon.

Miss Ella Belford, manager of the Stewart ranch came in Thursday and went to Medford returning that evening on the Harnish mail auto and was taken up to the ranch by the accommodating driver, Bob Harnish.

Guy Pruitt, one of the promising young men, was doing business here Thursday.

R. D. Watson of Trail came out Thursday on the E. P. Persist street and went on to Medford that afternoon on his way to Attalia, Wash.

The postmaster at Persist, W. V. Willis, has a very soft snore. He notices a quantity of vegetables and has been shipping out his potatoes by parcel post. He being postmaster, simply puts the postage stamps on and catches them, so that he is really not catching, as he gets all the stamps that he can sell up to about $60 and has the poor mail carrier haul them through the mud about 45 miles, and after he has shipped his potatoes, he then ships his plantain the same way. He noticed Thursday that the mail carrier, Miss Ella Anderson had any sacks, 70 pounds in a sack when she drove into the postoffice Thursday evening.

Mrs. Wiedeman, the business manager and sales lady in the L. E. Nichols store, in order to help her husband who has the T. E. Nichols farm rented, had to leave the store temporarily for a few days, to help her husband spray the orchard. They couldn't find a man to help him, but she is equal to the situation. With Mrs. Wiedeman is a thorough business woman and an accomplished saleslady and accountant she can and does turn her hand to anything that is to be done.

Mrs. John Rader and daughter, Mrs. Harvey Stanley were doing business here Thursday.

Henry French, one of our dairy-men, was here Thursday and so was James Owens, our county commissioner. He was here looking over roads and suggesting to his brother-in-law, Nick Young, our new supervisor, what improvements he could make on them. Mr. Young has been doing some good work on them already but there is a lot of work to do yet before they will be fit to travel in the winter.

Pearl Stowell was among the business callers Friday.

Friday F. S. Davis, a civil engineer and mining expert of San Francisco, W. W. Salsig, one of the lumber men of Medford, H. P. Haswell, William Lee, also of Medford, and R. A. Petty, who is farming the Thomas Riley farm on Antelope, Y. D. Hendrickson, wife and daughter and cousin, Roy Hendrickson, were here for dinner Friday and later Mr. Joseph Gempert and son-in-law Roy Casey of Butt Falls, came in and spent the night. They came out with teams and Saturday morning went on to Medford.

Mrs. George Nichols of Medford motored out to the Sunnyside expecting to meet her husband, who was coming out with a band of cattle he had sold to Mr. Hanson. After visiting with our daughter Hattie and Mrs. Howlett, while waiting, he finally arrived about 8 o'clock.

Messrs. Fathazar and Hessler, who have been engaged pruning Mr. F.'s orchard and have been finishing up for the past two weeks finished up and returned to Medford last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Florence Lansing, our intermediate teacher tender, her resignation to the school board and it was accepted. She has been offered a position in the Medford postoffice and having taken the necessary examination and passed, having received 98 per cent credits. It was with the utmost reluctance that the board accepted the resignation as Miss Lansing is recognized as one of the best teachers in the county if not in the state, having her file certificate, and not only that but she has the faculty of securing the affection of the children so that they heartily love her and she seems to love them with almost a parent's love, and the high esteem in which she is held by the school board is perhaps one of the reasons the members consented to her retirement from the school. The position pays a better salary than she was receiving and the position is a permanent one. This Saturday afternoon she had her closing session of her school and a farewell meeting with the directors and a few friends. The sixth and eighth grades presented her with a large box of stationery and the seventh grade a large box of candy. Ice cream and cake was served and then Miss Lansing gave the children one of the most soul stirring addresses with good wholesome advice and expressed her reluctance to parting with them. We then had some fine music, vocal and instrumental, Miss Helen Holt playing the accompaniment on the violin. When she leaves here she leaves a host of friends, in fact almost the entire community. The board has secured the services of Miss Bunination of McMinnville to fill the vacancy caused by Miss Lansing's retirement.

Miss Lillie Poley, a teacher of Ashland is here today visiting our primary teacher, Miss Tina Benedict.

Mrs. Ralph Gardner was a diner at the Sunnyside today.

Mr. Chamberlain, H. G. Meyer of Lake Creek, Christ Bergman and wife, were doing business in Eagle Point today.

One of the Fish Lake ditch car trucks went up to Lake Creek today with a load of sheet iron to be used in making the flume across Lake Creek.
