People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Suits Frocks

Suits of wool, suits of jersey—all suits have an enchantment about them difficult to resist. Coats caught at the neck with a button or a bit of cord—demand freedom for the remainder of their length.

Some elude capture until they have reached the waist line, where they are securely fastened by a narrow belt. And some protect themselves by wondrous vests that keep the edges far apart.

Skirts are straight and narrow, with belts holding them pleasantly at the waist.

Of softest silks, like sprays of falling water, loosened panels, that suggest the flight of birds; wide crushed girdles, with the grace of Grecians; flowing sleeves with dignity abounding.

Bits of ribbon, laughing out from hiding; beads that add their brilliant note. Strange embroideries glittering out from under folded cloth; tassels, long and heavy laden, catch the ends of silken cords.

Soft Georgettes and Satins graceful—Taffetas with ruffled skirts—Frocks for evening and for day wear of all materials.

NEW SUITS $25.00 TO $55.00
NEW FROCKS $18.50 TO $47.50
