ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Locally the Methodists are lining up preliminary to active participation in the great missionary centenary drive on a national basis. The event to begin May 18 and end May 28. C. S. Ward, financial expert who has engineered many drive campaigns, notably those in behalf of Liberty Bonds, Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. effort, will direct operations from the standpoint of canvassing as nationally organized. The goal set is $105,000,000, of which sum the church South has been apportioned a quota of $35,000,000. Of this colossal fund, $80,000,000 will be devoted to missionary work at home and abroad in equal proportions, and $25,000,000 to reconstruction work imperatively needed in the ravaged war zones of Europe. The Ashland church is now entirely out of debt, and it follows that the individual membership is consequently in a receptive mood to boost the centenary movement to a generous extent. "The missionary offering will now be taken."

The grand jury of Siskiyou county has indicted Fred White, of Walker, in that county for stabbing John Clute, of Gottville, sometime ago, the charge being assault with intent to commit murder. Trial is set for June 23. Clute formerly lived here.

At the Eastern Star regular meeting on Tuesday evening, the local organization was favored with a visit from the chapter at Jacksonville. Routine business matters and special degree work were followed by social hours and the serving of abundant refreshments. There were no formalities incident to this visit from the county seat, merely a neighborly call to witness how the Star affairs are being conducted in this jurisdiction, a visit which lodge etiquette will imply a return call in due season.

Big dance here at the Nat. Wednesday evening, April 16. Music by Medford Jazz orchestra.
Brief funeral services of the late Thaddeus W. Elmore, who died in this city last Sunday, were held at the Dodge parlors on Monday afternoon. Later on the remains will be taken east for interment. The deceased was a native of Sherburne, N. Y., and was born in 1837. The family home was at Elmira in that state. His son, H. T. Elmore, is a business man of this city, and the father had been visiting relatives here for the past winter.

David Whittle, in the employ of the employ of the Fruitgrowers' Supply company at Hill, has been a visitor at the Ashland home this week.

Mrs. M. F. Swigart, formerly living here, returned to Ashland early this week, accompanied by her daughter, Dr. L. S. Kent, both coming from Wyoming, their former home. The son, Frank, is also here, and his brother, Barnum, will arrive later on. The family will occupy their ranch east of town.

Operations are now active at the experiment station near Talent, incident to spring work with consequent increase of help. Andrew McCormick after a year in the ordnance service abroad, is now employed at the station in the skilled classification. He is a brother of Miss Anne McCormick, county demonstrator in household economics.

A graceful compliment was paid to Mrs. Ann H. Russell on the occasion of her 81st birthday anniversary, April 14. The members of the Presbyterian Sunday school Bible class to which she belongs, Rev. William Johnson being the teacher, were primarily concerned in this surprise "plot," abetted by relatives and friends of which she has a host in this locality. Early in the day, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Mary Dunn, and Mrs. Martha Gillette, with a grandson, Master Francis Winter as chauffeur, the sister paid homage at the shrine of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hill, who are buried in the Hill cemetery in the vicinity of the old family homestead near Kingsbury's Springs. They returned to find the Russell home invaded, and the birthday observances, with all the happy recollections associated with Mrs. Russell's 60 years' residence in this locality, followed, a sumptuous repast being an accompaniment of the anniversary celebration. An elaborate birthday cake, ornamented with all the traditional embellishments, was the centerpiece of attraction at the banquet table. Gifts were also prodigally bestowed upon the honored guest from numerous relatives and intimate friends. In the evening the birthday scene shifted to the home of O. Winter, where Master Francis, grandson of Mrs. Russell, celebrated his 17th birthday anniversary on the same date.

Clyde Torrence, returned sailor in the "released-active" branch of the naval service, is here visiting his mother, Mrs. W. A. Schell. He has been in the transport service on one of the big German vessels inclosed in American ports and which Uncle Sam levied upon incident to war's emergencies. Clyde has made over half a dozen trips across the Atlantic in the transport service and brings home a lot of souvenirs obtained from the theater of war in Europe. Three times his ship was threatened by submarines, without serious results however.

A revised list of officers of Co. I, 3rd Infantry, the local national guard contingent, includes H. W. Frame, captain; Mildred Grubb, 1st lieutenant; W. M. Briggs, 2d lieutenant; V. V. Mills, sergeant; H. G. Wolcott, music sergeant; P. L. Spencer, S. Morrison, H. T. Elmore, Paul 1st duty sergeant. Corporals are E. Guilev, H. G. Eastman and B. H. Hamilton. The roster includes over 100 rank and file.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam McNair are moving this week into the Grant property on Laurel street, from the Payne place on High.

At the Presbyterian church last Sunday, in lieu of the time devoted to responsive reading, Rev. J. H. Doran, minute man for the occasion, delivered a brief talk emphasizing the virtues of optimism as a most efficient aid in furthering effort in behalf of personal salvation. His terse and timely remarks were practically illustrated by an appropriate object lesson.
Fred Frederburg, former landlord of Hotel Oregon in older times, now Hornbrook, was visiting in Ashland early in the week, on his way to Medford.

The Savoy hotel in the Butler block near the Plaza, now undergoing extensive repairs, has been leased and will soon reopen as a furnished apartment annex to that property.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Provost leave this week for an extended visit with relatives in Canada, mainly residing in the vicinity of Ottawa, capital of

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.
Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.
The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.
Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.
