ROBERT WARWICK'S DRAWING CARD AT RIALTO THEATRE

At the Rialto theater tonight and Sunday will be seen one of the best pictures ever shown to the patrons of that house, "The Mad Lover," a comedy drama, starring the ever popular star, Robert Warwick, and Elaine Hammerstein, who is destined to become a great favorite. Last night's audiences were charmed with "The Mad Lover." Completing the program is "The Jellyfish," a Jolly Bill Parsons comedy, and the ever amusing "Topics of the Day."

The scenic beauty and palatial stage settings in the scenes of "The Mad Lover" are unusual for even most of the largest feature productions, and while one is admiring the winsomeness of handsome Miss Hammerstein and admiring the manly vigor and acting of Mr. Warwick, his eye is ever charmed with the splendor of the surroundings. Mr. Warwick is especially attractive in the tragic scenes, notably as Othello, several scenes of that Shakespearean play being given as a part of the plot of "The Mad Lover." The plot is a novel one and includes mystery, comedy and tragedy and involves rich society folks, at play at a week-end party in a palatial country home.

FIRST BOLSHEVIK PAPER APPEARS ON PARIS STREETS

PARIS, April 19.—The first Bolshevik newspaper in France appeared today under the name of "Le Titre Censure," the title censored as the title originally proposed, "Le Bolshevik," had been prohibited. The newspaper is a weekly and edited by Georges Anquetil, who, in an editorial, proclaims himself a Bolshevik doctrine. The editor says he will undertake a defense of Bolshevism. He denounces the present condition of society.

ENGLAND WILL RETAIN FORTS ON KIEL CANAL

PARIS, April 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—The naval terms to be incorporated in the peace treaty concerning the Kiel canal and Helgoland have been revised in several important particulars. It was the original plan to destroy the fortifications of the canal, making it a strictly commercial waterway without defenses. The changes that now have been made leave the present fortifications in existence, and provisions also have been inserted permitting the continuance of the present coast defense, all of which were to have been destroyed, according to the original plan.

The changes concerning Helgoland leave intact the present large basin constructed on an extensive scale for the use of submarines during the war. It was concluded that the use of submarines now had been so restricted that the basin no longer constituted the menace, and its continuance was decided upon as providing a useful haven for the North Sea fishing fleet in case of distress. The fortifications of Helgoland are to be dismantled so that the basin is virtually the only thing retained.

The final disposition of the German fleet is one of the subjects still undecided and even the highest naval authorities are not aware how the question stands, since it passed into the hands of the council of four. The disposition to be made of the battleships and battle cruisers is one of the chief things to be determined under the head of naval terms and the decision will affect the large number of capital ships held under the terms of the armistice.

80 KILLINGS SINCE JANUARY 1ST FINALLY AROUSE CHICAGO COPS

CHICAGO, April 19.—Forty-eight hours of extreme violence caused Chief of Police Garrity to summon all commanding officers to his office and warn them that unless there were unremitting efforts to check the crime wave some of them would face the trial board. HARD CIDER STIRS EAGLE PT. YOUTH TO GO OVER TOP

There is a hard cider scandal brewing at Eagle Point which is being looked after by Sheriff Terrill and Prosecuting Attorney Roberts, but at present the details are lacking. Word reached the prosecutor the other day that there was considerable drunkenness in that vicinity, especially among the youth, and as a result of too much elder imbibing a boy went over the top with a shotgun and nearly ended the life of another boy. The prosecutor sent the sheriff out to investigate the elder.

The sheriff had a difficulty in locating the fluid, two barrels and a half, but the owner was absent and so no arrest has yet been made. He brought in the half barrel Friday afternoon and cached it in the police station. Samples of the elder were taken to one of the teachers of the Medford high school for a chemical analysis to determine whether it contained explosives other than fermented apple juice.

VORWAERTS URGES PEACE ACCEPTANCE

BERLIN, April 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—In a strikingly sober article written by Eduard Bernstein, the Vorwaerts warns the German nation of the dangers attendant upon a refusal to sign the terms of peace and declares the world will not absolve former Emperor William and his advisers from responsibility for all the misery of the war.

The article points out the enormous damage done to French territory and says: "Every one acquainted with the facts knows that the allied demand for the delivery of coal for a specified period is based upon economic necessities although a legitimate objection can be made to the demand for pledging the output of the entire Saar district. In any case we cannot save the Saar district for Germany by threats."

Anyone interested in reuniting a returned soldier and his mother, can accomplish this purpose by calling the attention of Mrs. R. J. Weightman to this item. Her son, Harry C. Weightman, who has been unable to locate her since his recent discharge from the army, is now living at 410 Fifth street, apartment 22, Portland, Ore. He writes that his mother's last known address was "General Delivery, Medford." In a letter to the Mail Tribune received today Mr. Weightman writes as follows: "I have been unable to communicate with my mother for some time. All my letters have been returned, and I have no other means of locating her so I thought possibly you may be able to assist me in some way by giving publicity to the fact that I am very anxious to hear from her and want her to come and live with me."
