EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Mrs. E. E. Piper and daughter Ida May at the Sunnyside Wednesday evening and the next day went over the hill to look after a piece of property they have just outside of the corporate limits of our town, taking the Harnish jitney to Medford that afternoon. They were on their way to San Francisco to visit Mrs. Piper's mother.

Mrs. Hill of Derby county, came out from Medford Thursday morning on the mall auto and proceeded on her way home on the Joe Moonan stage.
Oliver Adams, formerly of Milbe Falls but now of Medford, came out Thursday morning and went on up to Brownboro to visit his little daughter who is living with Mrs. Ralph Tucker, returning to Eagle Point Saturday. In conversation with him with regard to the future of the Pacific & Eastern railroad he remarked that now that the railroad was assured the prospect for it going into the junk pile was over and that business was starting up again that he was going back to Butte Falls and open his business again.

P. W. Haley, one of our hustling progressive farmers, was in town Thursday to procure dope to use on his sheep. He says that his prospect was never better for a the crop of everything that grows.
Mrs. Lydia Jones and her little boy of Talent, grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Knighton who have been here visiting their grandparents returned home Thursday afternoon on the 3:30 p. m. mail auto. Mr. Knighton still has one of his grandchildren Wm. Nesler, staying with them.

The Red Cross society met as usual on Thursday and spent most of the day at their regular duties, assisting our soldier boys.
Ovill Childreth, one of our town boys, who has been working in one of the orchards near Gold Hill, paid a visit to the Sunnyside Thursday evening.
J. T. Strong of Medford, came in Thursday evening to spend a few days at the Sunnyside. He is in the employ of the Fish-Lake Ditch company and has been working on the flume; the company is putting across Lake creek but was sent here to do some framing for the flume on timber that was left here.

There was a large truck came out from Ashland Friday morning to take the household goods of Mrs. Rose Potter to Ashland, she having disposed of her house here to Mr. McAllister of that city.

There seems to be some stir in the real estate business. There is a deal whereby E. S. Woffler sells his place just above town to Wm. Perry who bought the old A. L. Hazelton place and a small piece of land joining Mrs. Roe, and now he has the Woffler tract, making in all 25 acres of as good land as there is in this section, and all under an irrigation ditch. Mr. Perry has about half of the tract in alfalfa and expects to put the rest in alfalfa next season.

I understand that there are 120 more deals on hand in the real estate business but as I have not the consent of the interested parties to publish the names will withhold them for the present.

Thomas Lewis who has been working in Jacksonville, came out and is visiting his parents, Frank Lewis and wife.
Sheriff Charles Terrill called Friday for dinner. He was accompanied by L. R. Elwood and W. E. McPherson. He said he was on official business but did not reveal the nature of that business. They went up the creek and in a short time returned going on toward Medford.

Earl Hubbard and H. P. Evans of Portland were here for dinner. Mr. Evans is one of the traveling hardware salesmen of Portland. Charles Klingbe and wife of Lake Creek and Welborn Beeson were also here for dinner. Mr. Beeson was, with some other business, looking for good strawberry plants.
John Hill of Butte Falls, came out on the little motor car that is making regular trips from Medford to Butte Falls and spent the night with us and later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Paul of Paul's Electric store, Medford, called for supper. They have been up to Thomas Farlow's farm on the north fork of Little Butte creek to take them one of his electric washing machines. He had been up before and put in an electric light plant.

Ed Condon and his wife's sister, Mrs. Ira Tungate of Butte Falls, came in and she took passage on the P. & E. motor car for home.
Carlyle Natwick came in Friday morning with his car hitched behind Ed Coy's car. He was out of gas.
N. E. Shusoff, our barber and agrarian, has bought an attachment that was put on a small building belonging to S. H. Harnish and is moving it in back of his barber shop to be used in his agrate business.
Miss Emma McCallin came out from the Corbin orchard this Saturday morning and took passage on the Lewis jitney for Medford.
W. C. Daley of Lake Creek, motored into town this morning on his way to Medford.
Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Speck, A. B. Dillon, the meter reader for the C. & O. Power company, and son Albert, T. C. Berry of Brownboro, W. P. Burman, representing the Federal truck, and A. C. Piekens of Medford, agent for Hippmobile trucks, were here for dinner. They had started to go up to the Lee Edmondson saw mill but about two hours later they returned as the roads are so bad since the last rain that they are impassable with trucks or autos.

THE HERO—WILLIAM DUNCAN in Vitagraph's big serial, "The Man of Might," supported by an all-star cast including Edith Johnson and Joe R. an
One of the thrilling scenes in "The Man of Might," Vitagraph's latest adventure serial, is tagged in a Joss house in San Francisco, and reveals the marvelous ingenuity of the Chinese in machines of vengeance. This particular machine is a monster idol, whose outstretched arms, one of which holds a dagger, are so manipulated by hidden levers that they reach out and crush any who are lured within their shadow.
Into these arms is lured, in the fourth episode, which will be seen in the Page theatre on Monday and Wednesday, the hero of the play in his amazing search for the hidden treasure. How he is saved by his sweetheart, who in turn falls a victim of the idol worshippers, is pictured with nerve-racking realism.
