CENTRAL POINT

Saturday night, April 19, 1919, at the home of the minister of the First Baptist church of Medford, Miss Sadie Elizabeth Boebe and Samuel McDonald Koehler were united in marriage. Miss Boebe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Boebe of this city. For the past year she has been in Washington, D. C., doing war work. She is a graduate of the Central Point high school, was for two years a student at O. A. C. at Corvallis and ranks as one of the finest musicians in Oregon. This young lady has the esteem and friendship of everyone here. The groom is an enterprising young business man well known throughout the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Koehler will make their home in Medford at the Barnum apartments. The good wishes of the entire community for the young couple's future welfare and happiness is extended to them. Verna Lynch, one of Central Point's young soldier boys, arrived home from overseas and New York the latter part of the week and is busy greeting his many friends here now. Miss Hagar, a Syrian princess will be here Thursday night at the Presbyterian church and will give a lecture depicting Syrian life in all its phases. This talk by a real princess from the famed land of Syria promises to be a very interesting as well as profitable (educationally) affair. Every one is invited to be present. Give the noble lady from across the seas the backing she deserves and let her greet a full house. Jay Bee Holmes, former warehouse clerk at the S. P. office here, left Saturday morning for a several days trip to Ogden, Utah, and El Paso, Texas. Dr. Bert R. Elliott, dental surgeon of Medford, will be in Central Point on Tuesday and Thursday of each week after April 22nd. Dr. Elliott's office will be in the rostral building, in the rooms formerly occupied by Dr. Mulkey. Prior to the war Dr. Elliott practiced in Grants Pass. He

NEURALGIC PAINS

Give Way to Soothing Hamlin's Wizard Oil Hamlin's Wizard Oil is a safe and effective treatment for headache and neuralgia. Rubbed in where the pain is, it acts as a tonic to the tortured nerves and almost invariably brings quick relief. Its healing, antiseptic qualities can always be relied upon to prevent infection, or other serious results, from sprains, bruises, cuts, burns, bites and stings. Just as good, too, for sore feet, stiff neck, frost bites, cold sores and canker sores. Get it from druggists for 30 cents. If not satisfied return the bottle and get your money back. Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30 cents. Guaranteed.
