Ye Smudge Pot

By Arthur Perry

Ben Sheldon appeared on the Boulevard de Main Monday pm, wearing leather pants and a straw hat,—the cynsure of all eyes.

Goah! It does beat all how things cost, but it is one of the blessings of Civilization (so-called). The cave-man's only implement was a club with a rock tied thereon, and when he desired a new pair of pants he slew a tiger. The human race is advancing, and so is everything else.

The proud German nation of a day before she went crazy, is now mad about dice shootin', and if the bones ain't rollin' right it's enough to make them mad.

ADD FAMOUS GATES

Invest-Garden-Bill.

The warbler who announced last week that he would sing "For All Eternity" has decided not to do it. Instead he will execute "Robin, Thou Singest Gaily."

THE EARTH ROCKED

Ananias Land, John Teeters and Orion Land attended the Loyal Legion meeting at Cottage Grove Saturday evening.

Nobody having asked for the 1916 edition of "The Smudge Pot", it begins to look as if nobody had three cents.

The Bolsheviks have ordered all the bath houses in Russia opened until June 1. This is not sufficient time for all the Russians to take their annual bath.

SEE THE VETERANS RUSH!

(Corvallis Gazette) Beans prepared and served in all styles will feature the evening and the only thing is who will serve them.

By dead reckoning, this ought to bring us close to the bottom—

At any rate it's close enough—

For good navigators are always scary about hitting the bottom too hard.

S. F. CHEMICAL HOUSE PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—A plea of guilty to a charge that it had shipped a quantity of mislabeled insecticide from this city to Portland was entered in the United States district court by the Standard Chemical company of this city yesterday. Sentence will be imposed Saturday.

Woman Cried With Pain

Thousands of women work today while suffering from kidney or bladder ailments that can be relieved. Mrs. L. Wayne, 2726 3rd St., Ocean Park, Cal., writes: "I had to sit down during my housework. My back ached so, also my hip pained me so I used to cry out, the pain was so great. Now I am thankful to say that Foley Kidney Pills rid me of all my pain." Backache, sore muscles, stiff or swollen joints, rheumatic pains and indications of kidney trouble. Foley Kidney Pills are safe and reliable. They bring quick results. For sale by Medford Pharmacy.

A NEW PARTY FORMED.

AT LAST there looms relief for that great army of the bibulously dispossessed. No longer need the down trodden toiler silently bear his cross of oppression, in lonely communion with the basement vinegarett, or the home brew keg.

A leader has been found! Not only a leader but a veteran. A veteran of many forced marches and many hard fought campaigns. A man with no mushroom record, no fortuitous military prominence, but a man who enjoyed a numerous following from the Ohio river to the Potomac a quarter of a century ago. No private in the ranks, no sophomore lieutenant but one who has been raised to the rank of general by a grateful proletariat.

General Jacob Sechler Coxey, Sr., is his name and "Keep off the Grass" is his inspiring battle cry. "Shall the people rule" asks Coxey. "Public bonds without interest, a national initiative and referendum, the submission of the dry amendment to the people within sixty days," work for the unemployed and beer for the thirsty,—there is the inspiring appeal that goes out from the general's present headquarters the Waldorf Astoria (Hotel).

Yes the general has met affluence since the bleak and blustery days of 1894. Here is another extract from his proclamation:

"If the women suffrage advocates, with fifty women having camp fires about the White House, can come within one vote of getting the suffrage amendment through, what will be the effect of two or three hundred thousand business, professional and working men, with thousands of soldiers and sailors, who feel their rights and liberties have been violated by the adoption of the prohibition amendment, without their having a voice in its adoption."

"The prohibition amendment has aroused the indignation of millions of people who are opposed to it, but who have made no effort to prevent its adoption. The people now realize that one of their liberties is gone. What next?"

What next, aye, verily what next? The next of course is this: "Keep off the Grass, for President General Jacob Sechler Coxey Sr., for Vice President Hon. Elihu Root, two grand old men, the hero of the thirsty and unemployed, and the savior of the hard pressed bourgeoisie! Both labor and capital satisfied, salvation for both the man without a job and the man without a drink."

Small wonder Hon. H. Cabot Lodge has called his colleagues in consultation and Hon. Homer S. Cummings has started a junket to the coast.

President Wilson agrees with Mr. Bureson's decision to drop the wire control. When the complete correspondence between them is made public this may not appear surprising.

One barber is included among the German peace delegates. If he numbered Von Tirpitz among his clients he should be held without bonds for failure to do his duty.

Well the Kaiser can celebrate with Von Hindenburg now. The Germans 80 strong have entered Paris.

The bewhiskered Bolsheviks are fighting on skis, which should give the jester on our left an opportunity.

Odessa, the Russian Paris

WASHINGTON, April 29.—"Before the war no city of the Near East, save Bucharest, so nearly resembled Paris and Vienna in its hectic night life as did Odessa," says a bulletin from the National Geographic society concerning the city reported to be occupied by Ukrainian soviet troops. "Odessa had hundreds of sidewalk cafes, its municipal opera, its palaces of chance, and its gilded halls of the half-world. It had more than half a million population, yet is one of the newest cities in Europe. Moscow's history extends over a thousand years, that of Odessa only a little beyond a century.

"There is a unique analogy between Odessa and the capital city of the United States. Both were started at about the same time—during the last decade of the eighteenth century—and both were begun because of the far-seeing wisdom of the chief executives of the two nations.

"Perhaps the oddest coincidence is the fact that they both were planned by foreign civil engineers of the same nation. While Major L'Enfant was devising the 'city of magnificent distances' to be erected on the banks of the Potomac, Voland, also a Frenchman, laid out Odessa on the shore of the Black sea. While President Washington was dreaming into being the beautiful city which bears his name, Czarina Catherine the Great was sponsoring the upbuilding of a municipal stepping stone toward the chief object of the Russian Bear's stealthy tread—Constantinople. "Like Washington, Odessa was laid out in the midst of a virtual wilderness and swamp. An isolated Turkish fort, Khaj-Bey, stood on the site of the present city at the time, 1789, when it passed to Russia. In early years of the Christian era Greek colonists had taken advantage of the Bay of Odessa.

"Until five years ago the railway distance between Odessa and Moscow was more than a thousand miles, but a new line, via Bakhmach, reduced that distance to 814 miles. The steamship distance between Odessa and Constantinople is 350 miles.

"From its history it is evident why Odessa was far from a typical Russian city. Mark Twain found the only Russian things about it to be the shape of the droshkis and the dress of the drivers. He might have mentioned the gilded domes of a few churches. There the Russian likeness ends.

"A few miles to the north and also to the southwest are three 'limans,' or lagoons, famous for mudbaths, believed to benefit persons with rheumatism, gout and skin diseases. The most popular of these is 20 miles long, a mile wide, 10 feet deep and lies 16 feet below the level of the Black sea."

LODGE ASKS G. O. P. SENATORS TO HUSH UP ANENT LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Telegrams were sent to all republican senators today by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, floor leader, and Senator Curtis of Kansas, whip, asking that public expressions of opinion upon the League of Nations covenant be withheld until a republican conference could decide on what attitude should be adopted. The message follows: "We suggest that republican senators reserve final expressions of opinion respecting the amended league covenant until the latest draft has been carefully studied and until there has been an opportunity for conference." It was understood that no date has been fixed for the conference.

HELSINGFORS, April 28.—A national assembly has been formed at Olonetz, 110 miles northwest of Petrograd, where the Finns have driven out the Bolsheviks. The town was captured, according to reports, by volunteer troops.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. PARIS PAPERS NOT ENTHUSIASTIC OVER LEAGUE OF NATIONS

PARIS, April 29.—The covenant of the League of Nations arouses little enthusiasm in the press of this city. Indeed, many of the principal newspapers abstain from comment altogether. L'Ouvre, which has always been a champion of the league and of President Wilson, says: "Speaking generally, we are bound to say the pact of the league causes a certain amount of disappointment."

Writing in the Echo de Paris, "Pertinax", spokesman of the nationalists, declares outright: "The League of Nations is dead before birth." All the newspapers point out that great concessions were made by France. Some of the journals go so far as to declare that these concessions amount to surrender. As a whole, however, the press expresses the hope that later amendments will result in satisfying what are regarded as legitimate claims of France and the other countries which, as the Havas agency summary of the comment words it, "showed their moderation by abstaining from insisting yesterday upon an immediate vote" on the changes in the covenant which they were advocating.

Soldiers, Sailors and Marines You are hereby notified that the Woodmen of the World will admit discharged soldiers, sailors and marines (including those in the air service) to membership without initiation fee, and the Head Camp will pay medical and certificate fees. ROAD CONTRACTOR MOTORS AS FAR AS UNION CREEK

That snow drifts prevent auto travel toward Crater Lake farther than Union creek was the report brought back to the city Monday afternoon by Billy Hooker, who undertook to take a passenger as far as possible toward the park boundary line yesterday. The passenger was a Portland contractor who plans to bid on the construction work of the new highway to be built between Prospect and the Crater Lake park boundary line.

They left Medford at 6 a. m. in Jim Leslie's Ford car and were back in the city at 2:30 p. m., which speaks well for the condition of the roads, especially when it is considered that they stopped at places beyond Prospect for the contractor to look over the ground, and halted en route home at James Grieve's hostelry for lunch.

Mr. Hooker reports that the road beyond Prospect is in fair shape for this time of year, with comparatively little mud and very few blockading snow drifts. Two drifts only bothered, and they were rounded by circling thru the brush. They were about two feet deep.

But at Union creek all progress was stopped by a large drift of snow about three feet deep which could not be encircled. Nothing but snow drifts could be seen ahead. The contractor was especially desirous of going further to look over the ground where rock work must be done in constructing the highway. Coming back the contractor desired to turn off and go down the road to the natural bridge, but after a short distance in this direction a big drift impeded their progress.

Between Medford and Prospect the road is in fairly good condition, Mr. Hooker says, and in the section along McCloud crews with road scrapers are at work.

Oregon. The body will arrive Tuesday, April 29th. Interment in Jacksonville cemetery. Funeral notices will appear later.

200 FOOD HANDLERS IN PORTLAND ARE UNFIT

PORTLAND, April 29.—Since an ordinance requiring all handlers of food in grills, restaurants, stores and shops of Portland to subject themselves to examination of the city health officer went into effect January 1, a total of 12,000 men and women have been examined, the health department announced today. For the most part the army of food handlers were found physically fit, but about 200 were required to leave their places of employment for medical treatment.

AFTER CLOUDS COMES SUNSHINE. AFTER DEPENDENCY COMES JOY. AFTER SICKNESS COMES HEALTH. AFTER WEAKNESS COMES STRENGTH.

In the spring when you're "all in"—fagged out—blood thin, if you will turn to Nature's remedy, a tonic made from wild roots and barks, which has stood fifty years as the best spring tonic—you will find strength regained. No need to tell you it's Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, put up in tablet or liquid form, and sold by every druggist in the land. After a hard winter—shut up indoors, your blood needs a temperance tonic, a tissue-builder and blood-maker such as this "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce's. Send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package of tablets.

Seattle, Wash.—"I was in a general run-down condition. Had bad blood, disordered stomach, kidney trouble and nervousness. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and five or six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and was completely cured. Have never been sick a day since."—Mrs. Mary Huskins, 907 27th Ave.

Your liking for the Liberty will be almost immediate. You begin to realize at once, that you are driving an unusual car. The difference in the way it rides and drives is instantly recognizable—and delightful. And it is a difference so marked that it can spell only one thing—superiority. This recognition of superiority becomes steadily more intense with the intimate experience of ownership. There is probably no other car which is regarded by its owners with such a notable degree of whole-hearted friendliness.
