

RED CROSS SALVAGE STORE AT ASHLAND DRAWS BIG CROWDS

ASHLAND, April 30.—(Special.) Bargains in gilt-edge government securities, as afforded by the Victory loan, are being duplicated in a merchandising way at the Red Cross salvage store in Camp's block. Don't let it be understood that this emporium has gone out of business. In fact, trade is livelier than ever in various departments, and more goods are needed. Many have expressed intentions of donating articles, but such gifts do not imply an f. o. b. delivery at the salvage depot, consequently won't somebody volunteer to make a number of short hauls in behalf of expediting this trifle from home to store? Choose your own vehicle. A team's help will be acceptable, as well as that of a "one horse shay," while in an extremity even the kind offices of a Ford would not be refused. This transportation problem means much for the success of the salvage store, and the ladies will be grateful for aid extended in this direction.

Mrs. Eugene Montgomery, of Tacoma, a temporary resident here seeking health restoration, died at the family home on Union street, April 29, aged 35 years. Dodge & Sons, funeral directors, will forward the remains to San Jose, Cal., for interment, in which city a number of the deceased's relatives reside. The husband, H. S. Montgomery, will accompany the body.

Wm. Rogers, Walker avenue resident and for sometime past rheumatic patient, has improved to such an extent that he is daily visiting the city during the prevailing fine weather, the trip being made in a newly purchased Maxwell, of which Mr. Rogers is the capable chauffeur.

The Citizens Bank is installing several notable improvements, the extent and specific object of which is creating some cause for "alarm." When installed at considerable expense, neither chime clocks or the litha whistle on city hall will be in it as competing elements in producing a frenzied barrage of weird and unmelodious sound waves. Look out for the crack of doom—that is, if you try to crack the safety deposit vaults.

In expert billiard exhibitions at Joe Alnutt's parlors, Tuesday evening this week, Prof. Lewis of New York, touring the Pacific coast as champion player of the nation at large, furnished local semi-professionals with object lessons in how to play the game, giving odds of two to one in a series of brilliant matches to all comers. As finger twirler and in the use of his nose for a cue, the professor performed some remarkable stunts on the pool tables.

Income tax problems are easily solved, provided one follows a definite system as laid down by authority: First of all you purchase a Victory bond, as this is a prerequisite implying good faith. Then, for instance, if your income is over $2000, and you are married, also possessing an auto and diamond ring, just add the income and personal property, subtract the street number, multiply by your weight, and divide by your telephone call, the residue being the net amount of the tax. This process not only simplifies matters, eliminating the use of an adding machine, but also determines the circumstance incidentally that your wife's age is represented by the least common multiple instead of the greatest common divisor.

Job Tozer, now of Petaluma, Cal., contemplates visiting his old home town here early in the future. His son Bert has invested in an ideal chicken ranch after renting various properties, father and son being extra busy this season incident to the change of location. They gather on an average 1000 eggs per day, and in March 74 cases of 36 dozen each were marketed in San Francisco at a price of 46 cents per dozen. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Alford, of Klamath Falls, who wintered with relatives at Fresno also renewed the acquaintance of the Tozers, other relatives, while on their way home from the south.

J. N. Pace, now of Talent, but who has been living at Phoenix, Arizona, for sometime past, was in Ashland recently and outlined some interesting particulars concerning the Indian school conducted at Phoenix under government auspices, and with which institution Mr. Pace was connected. A change of climate to southern Oregon was deemed necessary for Mrs. Pace's health, consequently the family returned to Talent, in the vicinity of which Mr. Pace is well known, having been a former superintendent of the county farm.

"The Rogue," the customary annual gotten out by the high school students, is being printed at the Tidings office, and this year's edition will be even more replete than ever as affording a complete index of the Ashland high school's activities.

Rev. P. K. Hammond returned early in the week from a trip to Portland, undertaken in behalf of presenting the claims of this city as an ideal locality for the establishment of the proposed state Masonic home. The matter of a location will be recommended by a special committee to the grand lodge, and in the meantime such committee has a lot of data respecting an Ashland site from which to deduct conclusions.

PAULINE FREDERICK

There is a great secret in "The Woman on the Index," the play in which Pauline Frederick makes her initial appearance in Goldwyn Pictures at the Rialto theater today and tomorrow. It is a secret few women could keep, even though a well known writer made the amazing assertion a few months ago that every married woman had a secret from her husband.

transfer of the business to C. H. Pierce and the Harrison Bros. of the Ashland Vulcanizing Works.

Elmer Ketchum, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ketchum, is still in France with the engineer corps. Taking advantage of a leave of absence, he and other enlisted men are having the time of their lives by occasional visits to interesting centers, notably the wonders of Paris, which were personally inspected recently. Elmer writes his folks that there is a probability of his returning home in May, however he wants to see what is to be seen, inasmuch as a tour to Europe under A. E. F. auspices is not to be had very often.

Clarence Lane is hosting the installation of a fine new soda fountain in the very latest annex to the Enders department store, where mild drinks, ice cream and light refreshments will be dispensed to the public at large as well as patrons of the big establishment.

G. F. Damon, who purchased the Angle property on Oak street, is making substantial improvements, notably in the way of clearing the premises of old buildings and overhauling the grounds in general.

The removal of Paul Williams to Ohio sometime ago marked the passing of the entire A. D. Graham family from this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Graham died in Ashland. Arthur Graham is in Sidney, Ohio, and Paul Williams went to Toledo in that state to locate temporarily at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Duboyce contemplate returning to Ashland from Wisconsin. Mrs. Duboyce was formerly Miss Agnes Storey, and her husband was a local confectioner and secretary of the Commercial club along about 1907.

Cliff Jenkins and Herman Stock rounded up a swarm of bees on the premises of Al Kinney, last Sunday, and on Monday another swarm located on the Dunn place, next door to Kinney's on Granite street. Bees swarming in April is a trifle early for this latitude.

YAKIMA APPLE ESTIMATE CUT TO 8960 CARLOADS

YAKIMA, Wash., April 30.—C. B. Wood, district horticulturist, issued yesterday a revision of his crop estimates made before the blooming period. He cut the apple tonnage 20 per cent, not so much for frost damage as for shy blooming in Winesap. Last year the Winesap crop of the county was very heavy, and this year, especially on the older trees, the crop is light. Mr. Wood's early estimate was 11,200 cars, and he cuts this to 8960. The peach crop, he thinks, is damaged 25 per cent by the recent frosts, and he places the yield now at 2475 cars. Cherries are not hurt and the crop will be 240 cars. The pear crop is fixed at 2500 cars, plums and prunes at 250 cars, and mixed fruits at 250 cars.

De Laval Cream Separators

Viewed from every angle, the DeLaval is distinctly in a class by itself. There is no wonder that the largest dairymen and creamerymen who have for years made a careful study of dairy methods and machinery refuse to consider any other separator but the De Laval. Experience has proven—clean skimming, ease of operation, freedom from repairs, durability—there is no other cream separator that can compare with the De Laval.

However, we have a number of other new separators we will sell cheaper than you can buy elsewhere. We offer the following at greatly reduced figures:

- 1 No. 33 Empire Separator
- 1 No. 34 Empire Separator
- 1 No. 35 Empire Separator
- 1 No. 2 Sharples Separator, Suction feed
- 1 No. 4 Sharples Separator, Suction feed
- 1 F. Vega Separator
- 1 G. Vega Separator

We will sell these machines on easy terms; better come and let us talk it over with you. We can save you money on Separators.
