

Local Briefs

The team representing the Medford schools won decisively over the team representing the Ashland schools and the all-county team outside at the annual track meet held in Ashland yesterday. Medford scored 159 points to Ashland's 106 and the all-county team's 66. The ideal weather and the keen competition drew pupils to the very successful meet from all sections of the county. Medford was well represented with 40 teachers and 349 pupils in attendance, constituting 85 per cent of the teaching force and 35 per cent of the enrollment of the schools. The high school alone had 150 students, or 60 per cent of its enrollment present.

In view of the record breaking fruit crop in sight in the Rogue River valley and the expected shortage of orchard help the labor situation looms up big this year, but no steps have as yet been taken to meet it. In Douglas county plans are under way to aid in the fruit harvest by organizing the school boys of Roseburg into working clubs or crews. These crews with crews would go out with their tents and mess outfits into the orchards and work under the direction of trained men. The Portland Y. M. C. A. used this method of relieving the labor situation in the Hood River orchards and in the cherry orchards of Salem last summer and fall. 36*
