'Big Bill' Hart at Liberty Theatre in Branding Broadway

A tense moment. That's how presents WILLIAM S. HART in 'Branding Broadway'.

They put "Big Bill" Hart in a dress suit at the studio where he was engaged on his new Arterart picture, "Branding Broadway," and thereby rendered him as uncomfortable as a man can be under ordinary conditions.

"It made me downright unhappy," confided the Thomas H. Ince star to one of his associates, "to be rigged out in one of these boiled shirt outfits. The collar binds like a bride on a mustang, and I feel as awkward as a cayuse in harness for the first time. Of course, if art demands that I wear the thing, I'm game, but give me a soft shirt, a pair of overalls and chaps and I'm contented as a Comanche with a bottle of snake-bite."

"Bill" looks well enough in his rig, but he is manifestly uncomfortable. To make the slight concession to his western temperament, he wore his Stetson sombrero when he wasn't working and the combination was decidedly incongruous. Mr. Hart has accomplished wonders with the picture, which has much of its action in little old New York. It will be shown at the Liberty theatre today and tomorrow.

CHARGE MORRISON GUILTY OF FRAUD

PORTLAND, May 2.—Allegations of fraud, stricken from the original complaint of the board of school trustees of the Episcopal diocese here against Dr. A. A. Morrison, rector of Trinity Episcopal church several weeks ago, are restored in slightly different form in an amended complaint filed in the circuit court today.

The new complaint asserts that Dr. Morrison "wrongfully and fraudulently" conceived a scheme and plan for taking advantage of his position as member of the school board trustees by acquiring "Oak Hill Farm" of 1,015 acres in Yamhill county from Bland Hering in 1908, and selling a portion of it to the board "at an outrageous and exorbitant price, far beyond its value, present or prospective."

HOW A YOUNG GIRL SUFFERED

And Was Restored to Health By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Told By Her Mother.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For three months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I didn't know what to do. I read in the papers about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained in weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. M. FINORE, 516 Marcy Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
