FINISH YOUR VICTORY

By investing in the best property in Jackson county for a high class stock ranch while the value is at the lowest ebb.

Now listen—You, Mr. Stockman, who are looking for a money-making proposition in an ideal climate.

360 acres, first class Rogue River bottom land of which 250 acres are in cultivation—all the very best land and only 10 miles from Medford—30 minutes drive on good highway. This land carries a paid up permanent water right for ample water to irrigate the full acreage and the land is easy to prepare—very little water being used at present as the land has been under lease. No better land anywhere for alfalfa, wheat, barley, corn, potatoes and all root crops and grasses.

The Price? Just a minute—360 acres with a permanent water right with an annual upkeep of about 50 per acre—$132 per acre—$47,500—and in a climate which only Southern Oregon possesses—can you beat it?
