

Don't Let Catarrh Drag You into Consumption

Avoid Its Dangerous Stage. There is a more serious stage of Catarrh than the annoyance caused by the stopped-up air passages, and the hacking and spitting and other distasteful features. The real danger comes from the tendency of the disease to continue its course downward until the lungs become affected, and then dreaded consumption is on your path. Your own experience has taught you that the disease cannot be cured by sprays, inhalers, atomizers, jellies and other local applications. S. S. S. has proven a most satisfactory remedy for Catarrh because it goes direct to its source, and removes the germs of the disease from the blood. Get a bottle from your druggist today, and begin the only logical treatment that gives real results. You can obtain special medical advice without charge by writing to Medical Director, 27 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

ASHLAND OVER THE TOP AFTER QUIET VICTORY CAMPAIGN

ASHLAND, May 9.—(Special.)—“Over the top on Thursday,” was the announcement concerning the Victory loan quota as applied to the Ashland district. However further subscriptions are in order, as they will help to swell the excess figures, the problem now not being one of raising the quota of $175,000 and some odd dollars, but of getting in on the ground floor in the way of purchases before the campaign time limit expires. There never was a quiet campaign on a financial proposition in this vicinity, results being accomplished without any grandstand play or frenzied appeal, neither any list of purchasers have been paraded. The highest individual purchases were in the $2,000 classification, showing that the great volume of the loan was placed with the “common people.” O. Winter was chairman of the campaign forces in this district, and he and his assistants have scored a victory, both as applied to individual effort and government aid, financially creditable and mutually satisfactory to all concerned in the general result as achieved either through district, county or state organization, or all collectively.

A seven day program awaits the pleasure of the local Chautauqua assembly for the season of 1919, the specific dates being July 18-25. Smith and Charley Lindsay leave for the Klamath country in a short time, and will trail a number of buggies into territory that is, as yet, seldom visited by a motor car, planning to sell every vehicle at good prices. Horace Mitchell will act the part of interpreter for them at the several Indian agencies, inasmuch as Smith only talks Modoc, while Charley makes signs in Yainax with difficulty.

Mrs. Jennie Downing of Los Angeles, a former well known resident hereabouts, is here visiting numerous friends of the olden time.

Auxiliary Hall was the scene of an enthusiastic Commercial club session on Wednesday evening, ladies participating. Aside from the usual order of business, A. G. Clark of Portland, manager of the Associated Industries of the state, was present, speaking in behalf of “Bigger Payrolls for Oregon.” The club is outlining a campaign of publicity this season which in scope will include a number of major activities relating to highway and irrigation development, tourist travel not being overlooked, as indications point to a big influx of visitors this summer from all directions.

The Free Methodist annual conference is to be held in Ashland, May 14-20, Bishop Pierce presiding. Later on a summary of the chief events on the program will be announced.

April weather averaged on the chilly order, although a maximum of 80 degrees was reached on the last day of the month by way of a welcome to the May sunshine. The minimum was 25 on the 14th. Precipitation, 1.40 inches, clear and cloudy days being about equally divided.

Another Ashland instructor will leave the ensuing year for other fields, Charles A. King, named training teacher and athletic director, having been elected to a similar position in connection with the Medford schools. This change is considered in the way of a promotion.

Music to beat the band will be heard in the parks on Friday evening, May 9, weather permitting. This entertainment will be the initial one of its kind of the present season. Following at stated intervals these concerts will continue throughout the summer, according to customary schedule the past few years.

Ashland's big natatorium promises to renew its old time prestige this season, having been leased to new management, Harold B. Tredegar of Portland being the new director. The familiar Nat will be headquarters for baths, while swimming and other aquatic sports will be taught under competent instruction. The building and its equipment are on a colossal scale, water is abundant, and when the need is dictated there is abundant room for dancing and athletic games. The swimming pools are in line with the bigness of the structure.

Dr. D. M. Brower of this city, in an early week issue of the Portland Journal, treats of the “Overthrow of our Political System,” a movement which he regards inevitable sooner or later, due to the trend of events both domestic and foreign.

Word has reached Ashland relatives of the birth recently of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Eliason, whose home is in the vicinity of Turin, Province of Alberta.

The limits of exasperation were about reached in the case of a soldier, returned from overseas, who testified that when he got home he found his girl being carried off by a slacker who was fanning her with his exemption card.

Women of the Baptist church congregation will hold a food sale at Enders' store, Saturday, May 10.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The war risk insurance bureau today, issues another appeal for disabled soldiers and sailors who are entitled to receive compensation checks but who may not be receiving them on account of a recent change of address to communicate the new address to the bureau at once. Nearly 3,500 checks aggregating thousands of dollars representing compensation for injuries have been returned to the bureau for lack of proper address.

BRITISH LABOR IS OPPOSED TO TERMS OF PEACE TREATY

LONDON, Thursday, May 8.—After meeting to consider the terms of peace imposed upon Germany by the allied and associated nations, the national executive committee of the British labor party tonight issued a manifesto declaring the treaty in some essential particulars “opposed to the declarations of President Wilson, of the inter-allied labor conference and the Berne conference, and very defective from the standpoint of world peace.”

“It bears evidence of a compromise by capitalism and imperialism which still dominate European states,” the manifesto declared. “Any permanent denial to Germany of an opportunity to become a mandatory under the League of Nations must cause jealousy and unrest leading to further international disputes.”

Some points criticised were the failure to give Germany representation on the reparations commission and the omission of provisions for a progressive limitation of armaments by other signatories to the treaty. The manifesto protested against the permanent separation of the Saar basin from Germany and advocated a plebiscite in Malmedy and other contested territories between Belgium and Germany.

PRIVATE OPERATION OF SHIPS JONES' SOLUTION

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Private operation of all merchant ships built by the government during the war, except those necessary for government departments, is proposed in a bill framed by Senator Jones of Washington, who will be the chairman of the senate commerce committee in the new congress.
