This sentimental custom is annually increasing in popularity in Medford. Mother's Day sermons will be preached in several of the churches.

If there is any boy in Medford who wants to see the circus next week and hasn't the price of a ticket, and can't get the price let him call on Ed Brown. When Ed was a youngster himself the nearest he came to a circus was sitting in a tree and watching the parade go past. That was the day of the horse wagon circus that traveled overland and the Brown place was situated too far from the stopping place, also along the line of travel. Ed vowed then when he grew up he would do what he could to see that boys not only saw the parade but saw the circus. So if you are a kid without the price of a ticket call on Ed Brown at his home or place of business. He will see you get in the tent and have a good seat, and it won't cost you a cent.
