

SPEED COP HIKES TO PARTS UNKNOWN AUTHORITIES WORRY

William E. McFarson, deputy sheriff whose special duty was to look after booze and speed violators, is no longer a county officer, having suddenly departed supposedly for San Francisco, from Ashland, at an early hour Thursday morning, taking with him his deputy sheriff and state police badges and some papers he was given to serve. He is not expected to appear in this county again. McFarson did not resign nor was he discharged up to the time he left, but it is understood now that he has been let out and that his conduct during the short time he was in the county is being investigated.

Incidentally it can be stated that the young man early in the week despite the fact he was generally supposed to be a married man with a child, planned to marry a young Ashland girl, whose age he gave in taking out the license as 17, but who is said to look only 15 or 16. The marriage did not take place, the girl's parents opposing it and withholding their consent. The county authorities are very reticent about giving any information about McFarson and his leaving, but it is understood that if he had been here yesterday he would have been fired by Sheriff Terrill. There are various interesting rumors going the rounds since the first wild and booze cop left for San Francisco. It is known that he was a deep disappointment to the sheriff and Prosecutor Roberts, having done comparatively little work in his line of duty. His only work of any consequence was his detection and arrest on a train of a Southern Pacific dining car waiter who sold him a bottle of booze.

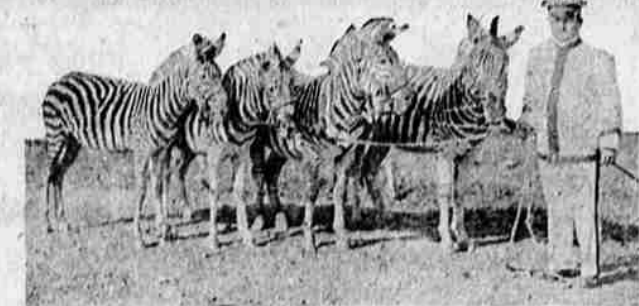

McFarson was a former member of the San Francisco police force and of the motorcycle squad of the Portland force, coming here about two months ago. On the strength of his splendid recommendations he was hired as a deputy sheriff by the county court. He was at once heralded as a world beater but as time progressed it was soon feared that he belonged to the ancient and honorable lineage of four-flushers. It was learned Saturday that the sheriff and prosecutor expected to receive the badges and papers in the mails from McFarson, and that if the missing articles did not arrive within a day or two steps would be taken to locate McFarson and secure them.

NEW SAWMILL TO BE BUILT AT TALENT

A communication from a Talent resident, states that people passing through do not see all that is going on in and around Talent. With the big irrigating ditch and new road that is being built and the other being erected and soon ready for business, it is difficult to get men enough to do all the work required. There is no boom reported there now, but a steady growth in that community. "There are a few good openings for business in Talent," the communication goes on to state, "Talent needs a drug store, a hardware store, a pool room, a bakery, a barber shop, a shoemaker, etc. The future outlook for this section of the valley seems particularly bright at the present."—Ashland Tidings.

Al G. Barnes Big Show In Medford Wednesday, May 14

A theatrical man gazes askance at a prima donna without a temperament—if there be such an article. And Al G. Barnes wouldn't have a star tiger or puma in his circus unless the animal performer could produce indisputable evidence of periodical mental surges.

"Alice in Jungleland," the big opening feature of Barnes' circus, which will open a day's engagement has proved to the owner of the show that a lady tiger can be just as unreasonable as an operatic star. Rehearsals for the pageant, in which all sorts of wild, semi-wild and domestic animals appear, showed it. And you can't calm a fussy puma with a diamond tiara and a wrist watch. Not even twenty pounds of horse flesh, which has been substituted for beef since war was declared will make her understand that time is getting short and the rehearsal must proceed. You have to humor these animals. The circus will show in Medford, May 14th.

LEWIS BROTHERS BANK ROBBERS KNOWN IN CITY

Adolph Lawson Lewis and Max Lewis, two of the bank bandits involved in the killing of Chief of Police Gibbons at The Dalles, Wednesday, were formerly of Grants Pass and known by several people of Medford. W. M. Colvig is well acquainted with their father, Sheriff H. L. Lewis of Josephine county, and often saw the two boys. The Lewises are an old pioneer family from Galice creek, the grandfather of the boys, George Lewis, having considerable reputation as a man of courage and pugnacity.

When the S. P. railroad was being built, there was considerable difficulty in collecting the poll tax of four dollars a head from the Chinese laborers. One party of collectors were fired on, and things were at a standstill when George Lewis volunteered to collect the tax. He was deputized, went to the camp and after shooting three Chinamen collected the taxes in full.

A little later the grandfather got into an argument with a man named Watt, and when the latter used a vile epithet, grandpa hit him over the head with an axe, breaking his skull. Lewis took to the hills, but when he heard the man was recovering gave himself up. Judge Colvig was District Attorney at the time and prosecuted Lewis who was defended by Judge Hanna. The only witness was H. L. Lewis, the father of the bank robbers, and the state had a hard time.

On the jury, however, was an old Missourian by the name of Milton Reynolds of Merlin. Judge Colvig was then the only Missourian on the Jackson county bar, was joked a good deal because of the fact, and there was considerable amusement when he accepted the Missourian, on the jury. The case went to the jury and they deliberated for a day and a night, finally being dismissed, unable to agree.

Judge Colvig and Judge Webster went to the court house and when the juryman came out Judge Colvig asked Reynolds what was the matter. "Well," was the reply, "I am from Missouri and so are you and I jest naturally decided you was right."

APPLGATE IRRIGATION DAM GOES OUT

A severe blow was dealt the ranchers of the Applagate valley last night when about 40 feet of the Wilderville Irrigation company dam, seven miles above Wilderville, went out. There was no flood, but it is supposed that high waters of the past winter so weakened the structure that it gradually gave way.

Water from this dam covered approximately 1,000 acres of land and because of the present high stage of the stream it will be almost impossible to repair it. Some of the best orchards and finest agricultural land in this part of the state was covered by this irrigation system.—Grants Pass Courier.

Revolutionists Defeated CACACAS, Venezuela, May 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—Revolutionists who invaded Venezuela from Colombia late in April were defeated completely in fighting on April 28 and April 30 and have retreated into Colombia, the government announced today.

Ogden, Utah.—"During expectancy I suffered a severe nervous break-down. Became very weak, was nauseated and sick all the time. My mother advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After the first few doses I could eat, something I had not done for some time. I kept on taking it and had practically no suffering and a fine large baby, weighing eleven pounds. I would advise all prospective mothers to take 'Favorite Prescription.' They could take nothing better."—Mrs. John Weston, 370 28 St.

Compare Goodrich 375's with other Ford Car Tires

If you have not used these husky, de luxe tires for the Ford car, go at once to a Goodrich dealer and say to him, "Give me a Goodrich Three-Seventy-Five."

Compare it with an ordinary Ford-size tire, and you will find it bigger and burlier in every way.

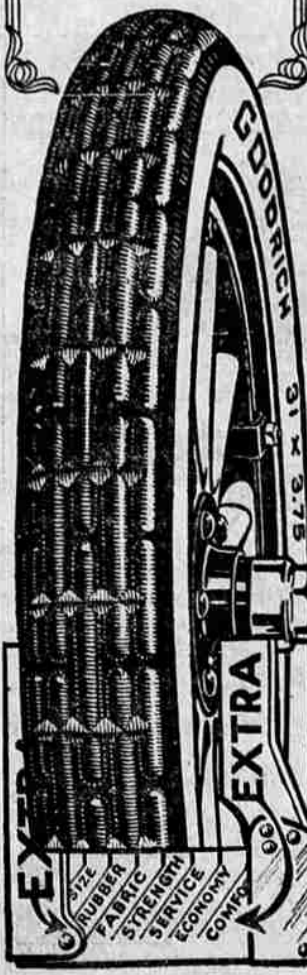

As a matter of figures and measurements, it is an inch bigger on the circumference, and much thicker in the cross-section—that is, a 31 x 3 1/2 inch tire.

That extra size means a finer looking, easier riding Ford car to begin, and a longer lived car and tires in the end.

Though "Three-Seventy-Fives" cost a little more at the outset, built to meet the special needs of the Ford car and bring out its known virtues, they soon reveal a greater dollar economy, which makes it the better buy in the long run.
