

ROPE OFF MAIN STREET FOR BIG DOINGS TONIGHT

For tonight's dancing in the streets Chief of Police Timothy warns all automobile drivers that Main street between Front and Bartlett, and Central avenue between the alley in the rear of Paul's electric store and Sixth street, will be barred to all vehicles, and will be roped off to bar them. Only foot pedestrians will be allowed in the enclosure.

The festivities tonight begin at 7:30 with the rural school noise contest. The city band concert in the park and on the streets will begin at 8 p. m. Then will come the All Fools parade at 9 p. m., after which will begin the street dancing.

The committee in charge of the guessing contest on the total value of the goods displayed in the show windows at Monday night's opening of Victory week, announced the result late this afternoon. The total value of the goods was $22,815.50. The nearest guess was made by Jessie Warner Coss of 344 South Central avenue, with $21,000.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE CONDUCTED BY OREGON ELKS

PORTLAND, Ore., May 10.—All Oregon will have an opportunity of showing its appreciation for the wonderful work accomplished by the Salvation Army in France, during the eight days from June 22 to 30, when the people of this state will be asked to contribute $250,000 for the home service work of this organization.

For years the Salvation Army has worked among the lowly and the poor, for it is a steadfast rule with their workers that no person is too lowly to be given aid, but it was not until the Salvation Army workers went overseas that universal commendations has been heaped upon it. And it is well that it should be thus for the Salvation Army has made a reputation in the war that is not surpassed by any other and equaled by few.

The testimonials of soldiers is uniformly appreciative with never a word of criticism. This is not surprising for Salvation Army workers of experience are more familiar with human life, its needs and kinks, and more tactful than those of some of the more pretentious organizations.

Governor Ben W. Olcott is honorary chairman of the state executive committee in charge of the campaign in Oregon, with Mayor George L. Baker of Portland, active chairman and A. L. Mills, president of the First National Bank of Portland, state treasurer. The other members of the committee are: J. L. Neilan, A. O. Jones, R. A. Stewart, Judge W. N. Gatens, Julius J. Berg, Judge George Stapleton, Edgar B. Piner, L. G. Clark, L. R. Wheeler, Fred Bourne, B. F. Irvine, Henry E. Reed, Dr. W. S. Kennedy, Winthrop Hammond, Bishop Matt S. Hughes, Fred L. Boalt, Jos. L. Hammersly, Will H. Moore, George Lawrence, Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, Mrs. E. E. Martin, Mrs. C. J. Ivers, Lee M. Clark, Joseph Goodman, George C. Mason, Dr. J. C. Rollins and Col. Creed Hammond, all of Portland. T. B. Handlev, Tillamook, Ore., T. E. Daniels, Medford, Ore., Chas. Butteraff, Albany, Ore., Dr. H. L. Toney, McMinnville, Ore., Thos. H. Tongue, Hillsboro, Ore., Judge J. W. Phelps, Pendleton, Ore., and B. F. Jones, Newport, Ore.

The Oregon State Elks' Association, recognizing the worth of the work of the Salvation Army in Oregon, and in appreciation of its activities for our boys in France, have assumed the task of assuring the success of the Salvation Army home service campaign. This order, through its subordinate lodges throughout the state will take an active part in the solicitation and raising of the funds. The money collected in the drive, $125,000 in Portland, and the same amount throughout the state, will be spent exclusively in Oregon and thus is not a drive to secure money in this state to be sent elsewhere. That Oregon will respond to the call liberally and cheerfully is the belief of every member of the state executive committee.

own action. In view of this danger of destruction the German nation and the government which it chose must stand by each other, knowing no parties. Let Germany unite in a single will to preserve German nationality and liberties. Every thought and the entire will of the nation ought now to be turned to labor for the preservation and reconstruction of our fatherland. The government appeals to all Germans in this hard hour to preserve with its mutual trust in the path of duty and in the belief in the triumph of reason and of right.

The proclamation which was issued by the imperial president and the imperial government bears the signature of President Ebert.

Harry Carey at Page Sunday

HARRY CAREY in "A FIGHT FOR LOVE"

Harry Carey, famous for his western characters, probably has had a more diversified career than any other actor prominent on the screen today. Cowboy, street railway superintendent, lawyer, actor-manager, director, athlete, prizefighter, miner, expert swimmer and engineer are a few of his titles. A graduate of the New York university, Mr. Carey practiced law for a short time, but soon gave up the staid profession for a career as an author of short stories and plays, and later adopted the stage as his life-work.

Harry Carey, "Cheyenne"—the "many men rolled into one"—is playing in a great new picture at the Page theatre Sunday only, entitled, "A Fight for Love."

PHOENIX SCHOOL NOTES

The sophomore class took the senior class for a picnic last Saturday, the high school teachers included. The party halted early in the morning near the foot of the Billing Hill for breakfast which has supervised by Mrs. Ackert. The remainder of the day was spent in Ashland park where a luscious dinner was served. Earl Cook was visiting in the home of Prof. Milan one day last week and while here visited the school; he gave the high school an interesting talk on "Higher Education."

Operetta, May 22.
Track meet, May 23.
Dan Calhoun and Prof. Henry spent the manual training period putting up track meet bills.
Baccalaureate sermon, May 25.
Graduation, May 29.
Dr. Baile will preach the baccalaureate sermon at the Presbyterian church 11 a. m.
Normal Anderson made a business trip to Ashland, but the secret of the trip is that it had to be repeated the next day.

PRIZE WINNERS IN VICTORY BABY SHOW NAMED

The baby show held in the city park Friday afternoon as one of the Victory Week events was a very successful affair despite the threatening weather which greatly decreased the number of entries and also kept the admiring attendance down. As it was 72 smiling and cooling babies were entered in competition for the prizes. The northeast section of the park was roped off and the babies and their attendants were seated on park benches next the rope where the crowd could pass along and closely view the contestants. The judges of the contest were Mrs. W. I. Vawter, Mrs. M. Purdin and Mrs. J. B. Andrews.

The prizes were awarded as follows in the different classes:
Twins—Maxine and Joan Guyer, 4½ months old, children of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Guyer.

Babies of 8 months and under—Boy, Delmar Anning, seven and one-half months old, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Anning. The mother being 11 this prize winner was entered by Mrs. J. W. Smithey. Girl—Elizabeth Emma Vilim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Vilim.

Babies of over 8 months—Girl, Miss Mollie Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brown, aged 19 months. Boy, Montey Leonard Carpenter, aged 14 months.

Best Japanese baby—Kazuo Maru, four months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Maru, the father being steward of the University club.

He Escaped Influenza
"Last spring I had a terrible cold and gripe and was afraid I was going to have influenza," writes A. A. McNeese, High Point, Ga. "I tried many kinds of medicine, but remained clogged with cold. I then took Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, feeling relief from the first. I used seven small bottles. It was a sight to see the phlegm I coughed up. I am convinced Foley's Honey and Tar saved me from influenza." Checks coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by Medford Pharmacy.
