Women Backing the Soldier Boys.

When the history of the war has been written, the work done by the women at home will impress itself upon this nation as few even now realize. Literally, millions of women left their homes and took up war activities into which women had never before been called, and many more at home devoted long hours at work in knitting and preparing surgical dressings for the boys "over there." Some may have worked at the expense of health and are now suffering from headaches, backache, dragging-down pains or some derangement. It should be remembered that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for more than forty years has been restoring such women to health and strength, and is now recognized as a standard remedy. Adv.

ASHLAND COACH PHYSICAL LEADER MEDFORD SCHOOLS

Mr. Chas. A. King, who has been instructor in manual training and coach of athletics at Ashland for the past two years has accepted the position of physical director in the schools. In addition to the physical training work Mr. King will have charge of the grade athletics in the elementary schools the ensuing year. It is the plan to make this a vital and important part of the work in the elementary schools in connection with the regular physical training work. The board considers itself fortunate in being able to secure the services of Mr. King for this work.

Mr. H. Heidenreich will still have charge of the athletic work in the high school, that is the boys, the ensuing year. Mr. Heidenreich has done very excellent and consistent work with the teams this year and the school is grateful to have his efficient services another year when undoubtedly much more can be done. There appears to be a misunderstanding as to this work for the ensuing year. In order that this may be cleared up definitely, it may be said that Mr. King will have charge of the athletic work in the elementary schools and that Mr. Heidenreich will have charge of the athletic work in the high school. By such a plan and division of work under efficient men fine results will come.

The Nash barber shop is now owned and operated by Carl Bowman and Clarence Noe, the latter having bought a half interest from Mr. Bowman. Messrs. Bowman and Noe had been associated together in the barber business for the past five years, both are expert fishermen, close friends and taking the same Sunday school paper, it was but natural that when Mr. Bowman recently sold his old shop and purchased the present one the two should get together in a business way again.

COMMERCIAL CLUB LUNCHEON FRIDAY

The Commercial club luncheon Friday will be served at the Hotel Holland, at which time W. W. Dillon will speak of Y. M. C. A. and other matters. Before entering the Y. M. C. A. work Mr. Dillon was a Clackamas county rancher. He spent a year with our armies in France and Germany, being for seven months on the active front, attached to the Rainbow division. He was afterward director of the 77th division, then placed in charge of the regional organization of the Argonne district. He spent 20 days in Germany, organizing the work at Trier and visited Coblentz, headquarters of the army of occupation. He was wounded on the Chateau-Thierry front and will give an interesting account of conditions then prevailing over there.

BEER MAKING STILL WAITS ON DECISION

WASHINGTON, May 15.—An opinion to the effect that the brewing of beer containing 2¾ per cent alcohol is illegal has been given by Attorney General Palmer to Internal Revenue Commissioner Roper, but officials explained that it would not operate to stop the manufacture of this beer pending a decision by the federal district court of New York in a case now under consideration.

PORTLAND, May 15.—An appraissal of the estate of the late Jay C. Olds, Portland merchant and former Willamette valley resident, who died last January, was filed today.
