

WAR WORKER TO SPEAK AT ASHLAND SATURDAY NIGHT

ASHLAND, May 16.—(Special.) The premier entertainment of the season in this vicinity will be the great mass meeting at the Chautauqua auditorium, Saturday evening, May 17, addressed by Daniel A. Poling, L.L.D., associate president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor and president of the great federation of temperance organizations throughout the nation. This gifted speaker will narrate actual conditions as they existed not only among the civic centers in Europe but also in connection with the hostile battlefront, he having served overseas as a leading Y. M. C. A. worker under conditions which gave ample opportunity for witnessing the horrors of war by way of contract with investigations which he was conducting along various other channels. In connection with this rally Dr. Poling will meet local Christian Endeavor workers and friends at a supper and reception in his honor, and will assist in the organization of a Christian Endeavor alumni association. Meeting at 8 o'clock, will be free, an offering being taken. "The Call of the New Crusade" will be the speaker's topic.

Incident to the recent visit of leading railroad magnates here lately by special train, J. P. O'Brien, federal manager of S. P. lines north of Ashland, and who met the party here on the way north, was the "victim" of a huge birthday cake, a masterpiece of the dining car chef's art. R. H. Ashton, of Chicago, federal regional director and head of the official party, presented the cake to O'Brien just as the train pulled out of the Ashland yards. The cake was a mammoth one, built after a Mallet compound recipe, and altho the age of O'Brien was not specifically divulged at this birthday anniversary event, it is said that the genial federal manager extinguished no less than 58 waxen tapers, each of many candlepower, before the cake was carved and served to the distinguished company.

Local Masons are recipients of a cordial invitation to meet with the lodge at Dunsuir on Saturday evening, May 17, a special event at which a number of representatives of the grand lodge of California are to be present and personally assist in the work.

Ashland is to revive baseball, and L. F. Ferguson has been elected manager of the local team. Games will be played on the round-up grounds, season tickets will be sold, and all preliminaries will be attended to with the view of making the game schedule an interesting one this season. The railroad employees gave a benefit ball at the Nat. Thursday evening, in behalf of its baseball team, music being afforded by the Porter orchestra.

The itinerary of the home study tour thruout Jackson county next week, includes visits for practical demonstration at the homes of J. R. McCracken, of Valley View, and Chas. E. Gray, of Bellevue, on Wednesday, May 21.

Highway complications have caused the resignation of C. A. Dunn, division engineer under state auspices, and C. W. Wanser, of Portland, has been appointed in his place.

TAYLOR HOLMES SCORES HIT AT THE RIALTO

Everybody laughed together, not once but many times, at the Rialto theater last night. Perhaps this the best way of saying that "It's a Bear" is an enjoyable picture. Taylor Holmes is the star, and he is supported by an excellent cast.

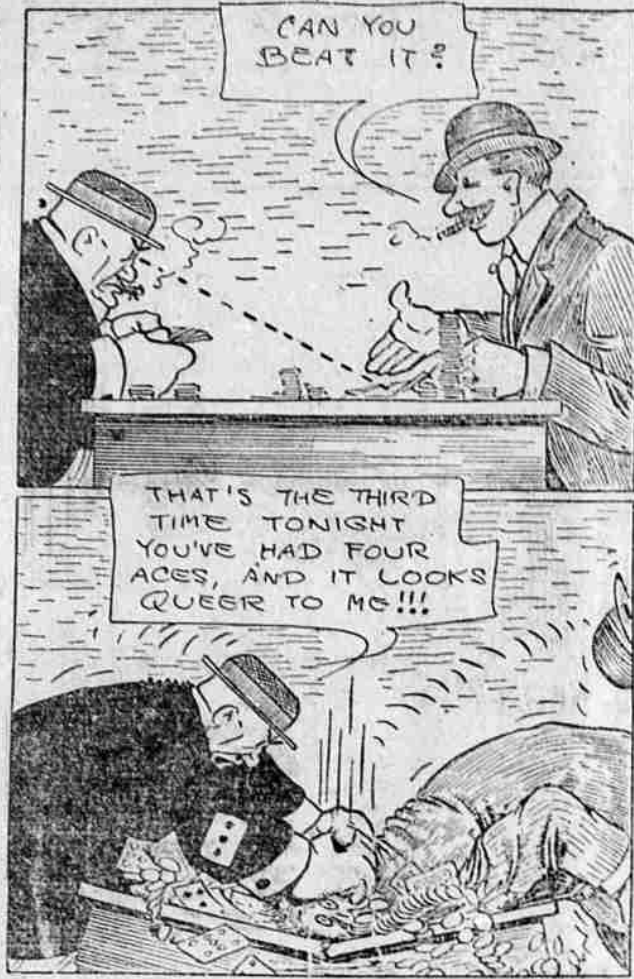

"It's a Bear" shows how the factor of not taking things too seriously frequently disarms one's opponents. Taylor Holmes is presented as a youth from a Boston college, whose toes mistake him for an easy mark, when he must unwillingly take command of a bunch of western "roughnecks" as their foreman.

The producer, Mr. Holmes, and his co-workers seem to have been in entire sympathy with the author's trend of thought, resulting in the presentation of a picture at the Rialto theater for the last time tonight that will satisfy that craving for comedy pictures of the better sort.

RAILROADS TO BE RETURNED SAYS SEN. CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO, May 16.—Members of the International Association of Garment Manufacturers left for their homes today, having finished their twenty-first annual session by the election of Stanley L. Sweet of New York as president; leaving to the new officers the selection of a meeting place for the 1920 convention.

At the annual banquet United States Senator George E. Chamberlain of Oregon, in an address approved of the business men "for not telling congress what they wanted and for not knowing themselves what they did want." He said congress would be quickly responsive to business men if the latter were practically of one mind as to what they wanted done. The railroads would be returned to their owners as soon as adjustments could be made, he asserted, as would the telephone and cable and telegraph lines.

The manufacturers adopted a resolution calling upon the government "to let go of private business and let the business men operate the industries of the country."

LAXATIVE for Aged People

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.
