REESE CREEK RIPELTS

Rev. J. Stille preached Sunday after Sunday school to a good sized audience. His text was on Christ knocking at the door of our hearts. "Behold I stand at the door and knock."

S. Courtney's brother from California is visiting him for a few weeks.

W. E. Hammel expects to begin building in a few days. C. Courtney will do the carpentering work.

Mr. Von der Hellen is building a house on his place near the school house. Mr. Isabel will live on the place and care for the sheep.

This is quite a busy time at the Lewis camp. They are shearing about 200 a day.

The many friends of Mrs. William Parnell of Chelsea, Okla., formerly Miss Anna Robertson of Reese creek will be glad to hear of the arrival of an eight pound boy.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Castor and Mrs. W. E. Hammel were in Medford last week.

El Stille and Rev. J. Still took dinner at Mr. Watkins' Sunday.

The little shower Wednesday afternoon was greatly appreciated, although more was needed.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Last Saturday night was the night that there was the windup of the big Victory drive in Medford and there was a strong pull in Eagle Point to induce the people to go to that city and at the same time there was advertised a big soldier reunion and play by the Butte Falls High school in Butte Falls and there was a hard pull to induce the people of Eagle Point and vicinity to go there and at the same time there was advertised to be a reunion of the soldiers, a presentation of the service flag, box social and a play, "The Prince of Lairs," by the pupils of the high school of Central Point at this town, and I am glad to say that in spite of all the drawbacks and log rolling to try to induce the citizens of Eagle Point to go elsewhere we had a very good attendance at the fine play by the Central Point pupils, in fact as good as any we have had here for many moons, and if I should attempt to particularize I would have to simply write the names of the actors and say that their performance was fully up to date. During the time between the acts Mrs. Julia Hockett of Ashland favored us with some very interesting patriotic and comic songs. She was encored each time she came on the stage. After the play we had the presentation of the service flag containing 35 stars, the presentation speech was delivered by S. B. Holmes and he presented the flag in the name of the Christian Endeavor of Eagle Point to A. J. Flory, Jr. Then came the selling of the boxes by Frank Brown. There were 24 boxes sold and the prices ranged from one to three and a half dollars. Some of the boxes were very artistic, one representing "The old oaken bucket that hung in the well." Another an old "log cabin." In fact they were very beautiful, and some of them will be kept as mementoes perhaps for the next generation. The whole of the exercises were fully up to date. And we, as a community, feel under obligations to Miss Pina Benedict, our primary teacher, the promoter and manager of the entertainment.

WOMEN DRY CLEAN THINGS AT HOME

Try it! For a few cents you can dry clean everything.

Save five to ten dollars quickly by dry cleaning everything in the home with gasoline that would be ruined by soap and water—suits, coats, waists, silks, lace, gloves, shoes, furs, draperies, rugs—everything! Place a gallon or more of gasoline in a dishpan or washbowl, then put in the things to be dry cleaned, then wash them with Solvite soap. Shortly everything comes out looking like new. Nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles. Do not attempt to dry clean without Solvite soap. This gasoline soap is the secret of all dry cleaning. A package of Solvite soap containing directions for home dry cleaning, costs little at any drug store. Dry clean outdoors or away from flame.

PROMPT RELIEF for the acid-distressed stomach, try two or three KI-MOIDS after meals, dissolved on the tongue—keep your stomach sweet—try KI-moids—the new aid to digestion. MADE BY SCOTT & BOWNE MAKERS OF SCOTT'S EMULSION for her untiring effort in thus securing so good an exhibit of local talent. Miss Benedict requests me to express her sincere thanks to those who so ably assisted in the undertaking. After paying all the expenses of the entertainment, including the hall rent and cost of service flag and expense of the visiting company from Central Point, Miss Benedict reports that there was $15 left to be used to buy books for the Christian Endeavor society of Eagle Point.

Sunday morning broke on us cloudy and threatening rain but cool and owing to so many of our citizens being out late the night before there was a small attendance at the Sunday school. But by noon, fast time, the guests began to arrive for dinner, coming in our loud lads. I tried to secure the names of each one but am almost sure that I omitted some of them. Among those whose names I registered were O. E. Davidson and wife, Gus the tailor, and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Luce, Judge Tom Velle and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Robertson of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, Grace Mitchell, Genevieve Tilley, Dr. M. C. Barber and wife, Mrs. Julia Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Henth, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Schade, Mr. Schade is with the Martin Jeweler company, Medford; Joe Boerman of San Francisco; Wm. A. Summer, superintendent Modoc orchard; Van R. Person, Nash agent; C. W. Speck, U. A. Lanckes, Wagner; Wm. Stin, Mr. and Mrs. Verne U. Mills and Mrs. Ella Mills of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. William G. Knighton, Carlisle Northwick, Malvin Robertson, John Goin of Newport and Charles Clark, and later in the day Mr. Hohenbeck and family of Prospect. Mr. Hohenbeck is mail carrier from Prospect to Derby.

Sunday evening we had a very interesting meeting of the Christian Endeavor society and before the services the service flag that had been presented to the soldier boys by the Christian Endeavor society of Eagle Point was hung over the pulpit in the church by one of the company. At the close of the C. E. services Rev. G. C. Griffin preached for us. On account of there being so many out to the different places of amusement the night before the congregation was not so large as it might have been.

W. C. Butler, Rev. I. F. Britton and Harry McCabe, Mrs. R. D. Laffin came out on the Medford-E. P. auto stage Monday morning. Ed Cook of Butte Falls came out Sunday evening to have Dr. Holt examine his arm where he had had it set, and spent the night at the Sunnyside, going on to Medford Monday.

I omitted to state in the report place that our town marsh had gathered up 41 of William Lewis' sheep—man's cattle that he had drove through here a few days ago and put them in the pound, thus adding to the town treasury $2.

Among the callers for dinner at the S. S. Monday were M. E. Root and Floyd Hart of Medford, fruit men. Also Wm. Chambers, Robert Coffman and Fred Dunlap of Butte Falls.

W. S. Channell, the man who bought the house and lot of Verna Mathews, has hauled a lot of building material on the ground and is putting an addition to the building to make more room.

E. M. Stewart and wife of Medford came out Tuesday morning to look after their property here and visit Mrs. Stewart's son, Wm. Perry and family.

There has been another real estate transaction in our neighborhood, S. C. Eckenberg having sold his ten acre tract to Mr. James Linn. Consideration $1,000.

J. G. Taylor of San Francisco, formerly in the harness business here Monday on his way to Brownboro to visit his daughter, Mrs. G. E. Pierce. He went to Medford Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

Art Nichols and wife came over from Hornbrook Monday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols, returning the same day.

John Howard was a business caller Tuesday and so was J. L. Robertson and son Lewis, and W. E. Hammel.

Dr. L. E. Tracey and wife and three other ladies from Albany passed through here Tuesday. They had been on about Brownboro visiting friends.

Hert Clarno and Pete Belts were business callers Tuesday.

Mrs. D. H. Watson and Mr. Ramona of Trail came out from Trail Tuesday and Mrs. Watson and another lady went to Medford, returning Wednesday morning on the mail stage and went on up home this Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Anne Kellehor and Misses Katie and Anna Kellehor left this morning for Portland where they will visit a month with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Simontt.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from headache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gas, sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad. Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
