RIVERSIDE RIPPLES

The most delightful event of the season on Riverside was held at the Champlin home Saturday evening, May 17, when Mrs. Beatrice Jones gave a party and dance in honor of her mother, Mrs. Abbie Champlin, in celebration of her birthday. Mrs. Champlin was presented with a large basket of flowers by the Riverside Recreation club to exemplify the love and respect which all feel toward her and few can express as well as flowers.

The house was elaborately decorated with roses and ferns. The Roberts orchestra of Medford furnished music for the lively dancers. Everybody was captivated by the music and inspired by the genial spirit of the occasion and a general good time was enjoyed. Almost everybody danced and then danced some more. Mr. Fred Champlin prevailed upon his mother to dance and she surprised the guests with her wonderful agility and spryness.

When supper was announced the guests drew numbers and matched them for partners. In this way everybody found a very agreeable partner except one unfortunate—less favored by the chances of fate, who was forced to eat with his own wife. But all enjoyed the sumptuous feed and did not fail to appreciate the efficient service rendered by girls and boys of the younger set who assisted the hostess with this part of the program. Appropriate to the occasion carnations were used as favors. Mr. Alden presented the birthday cake, decorated with candles, to the hostess of honor and after the short ceremony of blowing out the candles and wishing, she deftly cut into this most luscious of all angel foods, that all might partake and wish some more.

Mrs. Charles Champlin and Mr. George Jacobs also assisted with the serving and demonstrated their ability and skill in balancing a tray on one hand.

After supper the dancing was resumed and all seemed bent upon general merry making and fun. But the supreme success of the occasion was due to the untiring efforts of the charming hostess, Mrs. Jones. There was never a dull moment from the time the party assembled till the guests reluctantly and perhaps rather guiltily sought out their wraps and departed at 2 a. m. C. R. Boyd has a new Grant Six which was delivered to him early in the week. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hittle attended the high school banquet in Gold Hill Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Alden, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Engel, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Striker, Mrs. Maria Jacobs and Mrs. Brashear joined in the Home Study tour Wednesday. Six homes were visited and much useful information was gained. Mrs. Rose Gay and the children are making a two weeks visit with Mrs. McOuliken in Ashland. Mrs. C. R. Boyd is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Brown, from Cottage Grove. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wahl have returned from their auto trip and visit in Idaho and visited on Riverside Sunday. C. R. Boyd and family motored to Yreka Sunday. Mrs. Brown accompanied them and they were joined at Medford by Mr. and Mrs. Kads. Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Porter and family were Medford visitors Friday. G. W. Jacobs was in Medford having some dental work done Friday. Miss Alice Harper and her sister, Mrs. Hessel of Yelm, Wash., made a week end visit with friends in Ashland. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wald were business visitors in Medford the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Schaumburg

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett.

Frank Smith, who is operating a dry land farm just west of north of Eagle Point brought in a sample of his barley and it was fully three feet tall and the grain seemed to be quite well matured—now this is not a slap at irrigation. Pro. R. E. Morris, our school supervisor, was one of the guests at the Sunnyside Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Myers, who are living on the old Snyder place just north of town, were here Thursday. D. R. Patrick passed through here Thursday on his way to Medford. W. J. Jack, one of our stock dealers, was here Thursday looking after hay lands. Green Mathews called the same day and told of three horses or mares and at young colt about a month old that came dashing across the Dodge-French bridge the day before, running as fast as they could as they passed his place and turned going up the river and when they reached C. E. Bellows' place the old mare, that was sucking a colt, dropped dead right close to the gate; she was branded S on the shoulder. He said that he was satisfied that some one had put new life on them. And on asking what new life is, he said that it was a liquid that burns like fire when it is put on an animal. The probabilities are that they were beached and had been breaking into someone's field and had taken that method to get rid of them, but any one who would treat a dumb brute in such a way ought to be severely punished. C. E. Bellows and wife were in town Friday and said that they were trying to teach the colt to drink. There was a government man here for dinner Thursday but he asked me to not mention his name as he avoided newspaper notoriety. Our mail carrier on the route between here and Persis, Mr. Adamsen, brought out a full truck load of household goods for Mrs. Leroy Willits from Persis Thursday. Mr. Hall of Prospect came out from Medford on the Harshish itney and took the Mooman auto stage for home. My attention was called to the loss of a checkbook by Mr. J. W. Fry and in a very few minutes I learned that W. L. Childreth had picked it up and so we sent a phone message to Mike Sidley, one of the men he was with that the purse had been found and was safe. It had a certain amount of money in it. E. V. Brittsen and his mother came in Thursday afternoon with their cream, but had to wait here until almost night before the Independence creamery truck came in. While it is a great convenience to have the cream truck go around and gather up the cream and eggs for the farmers; but as they have to wait until he comes to get new cans for the next week's cream, it works a hardship on the dairymen to have to wait so late for them. I saw a man, Mr. Myer, waiting very impatiently as he said that that very hour was his time to commence milking and that it would take him an hour to drive home, thus breaking into the regular habits of the cows in being milked on time. Miss Ella Belford came in from the Stewart ranch Thursday, left her team of mules at the Sunnyside stable, went to Medford and back and then went home the same day. M. C. Neenan of Brownsboro and son were in town Thursday getting ready to start to Bend as soon as the
