Ye Smudge Pot

By Arthur Perry

"The Lord watcheth the sparrows fall," but that has nothing at all to do with the pests hopping about on the ground, and devouring poisoned wheat the farmers scattered for the squirrels.

Von Rantzen, (who rants so) declares that Germany wants this, that, and 40 other clauses of the peace terms changed. All the world wants from Germany is silence and very little of that.

JUSTIFYING HIS NAME

(Orlando Unit)

Tom Kelly, who runs the "1919 Hotel" on Fifth street, was assaulted on last Saturday morning by Frank Pounder.

American soldiers will probably be kept in Germany "indefinitely" announces Secretary of War Baker. This is to see that the Hunns pay their war debts. The "Savior of Europe" is going to be her bill collector.

The city of Yreka, Cal., is waging war on the silt skirt, the same being worn more or less extensively by the women folks. One's recollection of Yreka, Cal., informs that there are much naughtier things within the corporate limits to get excited about.

WHY WOMEN FRET

(Port Umpqua Courier)

Ruth Garrison, a Seattle woman, poisoned the wife of a man so that she could marry him. The deed was a cold-blooded affair. A long-haired jury, mauling in sympathy apparently for anything that wore skirts, found the poisoner insane. In place of the woman being hung as she ought to be, she will be placed in some sanatorium for a few months and then turned loose again upon the world. The jury should have been committed with her. A nice example to set before the women of the country who may wish to secure some other wife's husband.

SALMON RUN SLACK

ON COLUMBIA RIVER

ASTORIA, Ore., May 30.—Salmon are coming in slowly at the local canneries and receipts have slackened off to such an extent that most of the plants are running only on part time. Few fish have been received from gill-nets and there is practically no trolling on account of bad weather outside the mouth of the river. The seining grounds are not sending in fish in quantities as yet. Local cannery men say they expect a substantial increase in the receipts after the annual freshet which occurs about the middle of July.

MEMORIAL DAY.

FIVE or six years ago Walt Mason wrote one of his poems in prose on Memorial Day. He called it "The Little Green Tents." We print it below for our mind it is one of the best,—because one of the simplest,—tributes to the old soldier ever written.

The little green tents where the soldiers sleep, and the sunbeams play and the women weep, are covered with flowers today; and between the tents walk the weary few, who were young and stalwart in sixty-two, when they went to the war away.

The little green tents are built of sod, and they are not long and they are not broad, but the soldiers have lots of room; and the sod is part of the land they saved, when the flag of the enemy darkly waved, the symbol of dole and doom.

The little green tent is a thing divine; the little green tent is a country's shrine, where patriots kneel and pray; and the brave men left, so old, so few, were young and stalwart in 'sixty-two, when they went to the war away!

THE EUROPEAN SITUATION IN BRIEF

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS, May 30.

The Austrian delegation has been informed that the presentation of the peace treaty will not occur until Monday and has acquiesced in the decision of the conference. It was pointed out by M. Brattiano of Roumania that Poland, Serbia, Roumania and other small nations desired a short time for consideration.

The treaty is not as yet fully completed, the clauses involving settlements being omitted from the draft submitted at the plenary session.

The vexing problem of the disposition of Fiume has, according to Paris advices, been definitely settled. Fiume becomes an independent state which will be under the guidance of the League of Nations. Questions relative to the Dalmatian coast have been adjusted by giving Italy strategic islands along the coast but there seems to be some discrepancy between dispatches as to the future status of Zara, capital of Dalmatia, and Sebenico, a seaport on the coast 70 miles southeast of Trieste.

Experts are busily engaged in the task of translating the German counter-proposals submitted yesterday. Nothing specific regarding the contents of the German reply has been made public. It is probable, according to dispatches that the French and English translations of the reply will not be ready for the consideration of the council of four before Saturday.

The first of the two notes concerned German property in allied countries. The second has to do with the Turkish public debt.

NOT A DAY OF WAR GLORY BUT PEACE IDEALS

L. Myron Booser who gave the Memorial Day address said:

"This is not a day of the glorification of war but a solemn recognition of the supreme sacrifice and terrible cost of war. A day around which centers the tender sacred memories and sorrows of a great nation. A day of tribute to the veterans of three wars, the noble women of the W. R. C., and that great sisterhood enlisted in the vast army of mercy, the Red Cross.

"The day reveals a new luster and glory about American ideals. These were the animating principles of our nation, the inviolable equipment of our armies. The soul of America has withstood the influence of material conquests. The world knows today that America's greatness is not domination, wealth of population, but greatness of soul and ideals. The longing of a heartsick world recognizes the name of their desires in that which America has realized in the lives of her citizenship. The heart of the nation was sound and responsive.

"We find ourselves in the midst of a great struggle to bring a reluctant and selfish world to an acknowledgment of a new idea in international relationships and colonial policies. No nation may hereafter plunder weaker nations at will. No government may exploit colonies for gain and oppress the backward for filthy lucre. A colony must be accepted as America accepted her suddenly acquired island possessions, as a solemn responsibility to develop the national resources and add to them that in the end a free people shall be added.

Stockholders Notice

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Home Telephone & Telegraph company, of Southern Oregon, will be held at the office of the company, 218 West Sixth street, Medford, Oregon, at 3 o'clock p. m., June 3, 1919. W. H. GORE, President.

Children's Ailments

DISORDERS of the stomach and constipation are the most common diseases of children. To correct them you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Tablets. One tablet at bed time will do the work and will make your child bright and cheerful the following morning. Do not punish your children by giving them castor oil. Chamberlain's Tablets are better and more pleasant to take.

WORLD JOINS IN TRIBUTE

deepened solemnity, the first Memorial Day after the close of the great world conflict was observed in the national capital today, the nation's heroes of earlier wars sharing its tribute with those who fell in the great struggle to maintain the liberties and ideals for which their forefathers fought.

Memorial exercises were held at Arlington National cemetery and United States Soldiers' Home, and other points under the auspices of the G. A. R., United Spanish War Veterans and allied organizations, which participated in the annual parade earlier in the day.

With the senate not in session, members of the house devoted the day to paying tributes "to those who served or gave others to the service of the country in the great war."

Labor Appealed To

The significance of Memorial Day this year was interpreted in statements by Secretaries Baker and Wilson and Acting Secretary of State Polk.

Secretary Wilson appealed to the labor forces of the country especially to recognize that it is their "privilege to carry on the work" for which the nation's heroes have died.

"While the war was on," said Secretary Wilson, "our slogan was 'labor will win the war.' In this period of reconstruction it is in labor's hands the tools are placed. Let us build a permanent memorial indeed, a memorial whose foundation is American pluck and perseverance, and whose structure is American integrity and loyalty."

WARDEN STEVENS AND JOE KELLER QUIT PEN JOBS

SALEM, Ore., May 30.—R. L. Stevens, warden of the state penitentiary, and Joseph F. Keller, state parole officer, both submitted their resignations today to Governor Olcott. The warden's resignation, at his request, becomes effective immediately and he will be succeeded, temporarily, by Superintendent R. E. Lee Steiner of the Oregon State hospital, who will be replaced for the time being by his assistant, L. R. Griffith. Keller will remain as parole officer until July 1, at the governor's request, to complete installation of a new record system in the parole office. Neither his successor nor the permanent successor of Warden Stevens has been named.

Warden Stevens declared, in tendering his resignation, that he had had it under consideration for many weeks and that he had a number of personal matters to which he was anxious to devote his attention. He became warden last December, by appointment of Governor Withycombe.

Parole Officer Keller likewise stated that he was contemplating entering other lines of business which would take up his entire time. He was named parole officer by Governor Withycombe in 1915.
