Ye Smudge Pot By Arthur Perry

"The peace treaty and and fourteen points are the greatest human documents ever written," blazes the head of the democratic national committee. A lot of ignoramuses still cling to the belief that the Bible is the greatest human document. Some of the Shakespeare masterpieces would also compare favorably, not to mention the Magna Charta.

"I wonder where Jim Keene is," queried George Mims Sunday. "I haven't the slightest idea," replied John Emmons, "maybe Bill Crowell has seen him."

"Stand up," demanded Judge Hamilton. Cline arose to face a bitter denunciation. For a few minutes the judge spoke of the able defense put up by the defendant's attorneys; he praised the girl for her ability. She unfolded her life's story before the court without the slightest attempt to shield herself. If words were inflammable somebody would now be collecting the reverend gentleman's life insurance.

THE DUTY OF VOTING.

EVERY election is a test of democracy. And every election in which only a minority of the electorate participate is an indictment against democracy.

The American people are prone to criticize their public officials. Condemnation of congressmen and state legislators is a popular practice. But the citizen who will not take the trouble to say what he wants at the polls, has no right to say what he doesn't want in office or on the statute books. He sacrifices his right of protest, by voluntary act.

Every good citizen of a democracy should place one duty above all others on election day,—that is the duty of marking his ballot. It makes no difference whether the election is important or not, whether it has aroused active public interest or the reverse, the duty should be the same.

Just so long as public indifference allows a minority to determine the character of government, local or national, democracy is threatened with failure. Until the sense of political responsibility has been so developed that the average citizen, regards exercise of the franchise as an inviolable obligation, popular government is in danger.

Today as on every other election day, every man and woman, with the interests of American principles and institutions at heart should go to the polls and vote. Adults should unflinching practice this principle, children should be brought up on it. In every community, in every election, the result should represent the will of the people, as expressed by a majority of the people. Any other result is a disgrace to free government.

It is striking how quickly a man shows his mettle in a big crisis. Lieutenant Hawker had the world at his feet when he made that sporty hop-off for Ireland, but the sudden fame quickly developed the fact that he is a very ordinary sort of person. Belittling the exploit of his American rival at a public dinner, was not only bad taste, but sure proof of a little mind.

A monument should be erected to that Italian anarchist who blew himself to pieces. He had the right idea.

BISHOP OF DURHAM HECKLED BY CROWD HOLDS HIS NERVE

LONDON, May 5.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Bishop Welldon, dean of Durham, had the unusual experience of being cross-examined by workers at a May labor demonstration.

The bishop's gaiters and unusual style of hat attracted the notice of the workers and he was immediately surrounded and tackled on various questions.

One woman declared that while supporting conscription and sending boys of 18 into battle, the clergy were careful to take care of their own skins.

"Quite a large number of clergy have lost their lives in the war," replied the bishop.

"Why do you support conscription?" the woman asked.

"I don't support conscription, but we must keep it in force until peace is signed or you will have the Germans on you again," said the bishop.

A man then took up the examination by saying, "I want to talk to you as a working man."

"I also am a working man," retorted the bishop.

"Yes, but you get £1,500 a year."

"Well, I earn it," said the bishop.

"I work longer hours than you do."

"I would work longer hours than I am doing if I got £1,500 a year for it," was the working man's rejoinder.

WILSON DISCUSSES REPLY TO GERMANY

PARIS, June 3.—President Wilson met the American experts at the Hotel de Crillon this morning and discussed with them the question of the replies to be made to the German notes on reparations and the economic phases of the peace terms.

The meeting later developed into a general conference of the full American delegation over the German counter proposals.

Brigadier General George H. Harris, the chief American military adviser regarding German affairs, arrived in Paris today from Berlin. It is believed that his visit is for consultation regarding the military measures to be taken in the event of a German refusal to sign the peace treaty.

IT IS ALL GONE NOW

Samuel L. Kramer, Box 95, Sellersville, Pa., writes: "I had kidney trouble for two years and had a terrible backache. This is all gone now after using Foley Kidney Pills and I feel well again." When the kidneys are overworked, weak or diseased, the waste matter remains in the system and causes pains in side or back, rheumatism, lumbago, stiff joints, sore muscles, backache. Foley Kidney Pills get results quickly and are tonic in their healing and soothing effect. Good for bladder trouble, too. For sale by Medford Pharmacy.

NO INDICATIONS THAT BOSHE WANT RHINE REPUBLIC

COBLENZ, June 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—Telegrams intimating that recognition of the Rhenish republic reported to have been established on Sunday is desired, have been sent to commanders of the armies of occupation along the Rhine. They bear the signature of Dr. Dorten, said to have been named president of the new republic, but the officials of the American Third Army have not received any official notification.

Dr. Norton asserts that delegates of Rhenish Prussia, Old Nassau, Rhenish Hesse and the Palatinate, after meetings in Aix-La-Chapelle, Mayence and Wiesbaden, had declared the autonomy of the Rhenish republic from June 1. After declaring that the Rhenish republic is willing to conclude immediate peace, the telegram states that the people of the Rhineland have no desire to escape their war obligations as far as reparation is concerned and that they are seeking recognition at the peace conference. The identity of Dr. Dorten is unknown to Americans here.

The Americans are cooperating with the British and have adopted an attitude of taking any action necessary against demonstrations within the occupied areas.

The Americans say there are no indications that the Germans generally desire a republic and attribute the movement to a handful of intriguers, but they are unwilling to permit the American area to become a battle ground for rival factions.

The American authorities decided today that there was no foundation for a charge of high treason against inhabitants of the American occupied area, so far as the German government was concerned. They reported this conclusion as the result of a message sent by Berlin warning civilians not to promote establishment of the Rhenish republic.

SECOND DANCE FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11

The citizens committee, who managed the recent reception and dance for the returned soldiers and sailors, met yesterday afternoon with Mayor Gates in the Red Cross rooms to formulate plans for a similar affair to be held Wednesday evening, June 11.

With the last brilliant entertainment still fresh in the memory of the entire population of Jackson county, the announcement has called forth much enthusiasm. The natorium has been chosen for the event, and both ballrooms are to be used on this occasion. Aquatic sports are to play a prominent part on the program, the swimming tank open to the throng, and special stunts and interesting races are to be featured.

The smaller ballroom can be used if there are any desirous of doing old fashioned dances as well as the more modern, while the large hall, gaily decorated, is to have Launspach's augmented jazz orchestra as the piece de resistance.

The entire affair is to be gratis, the funds having been raised by subscription prior to the first entertainment for the servicemen and women.

TURN OF THE ROAD AT THE RIALTO TONIGHT

Hamilton Perry, money mad and flint-hearted, wouldn't give in to the workers who wanted higher wages. He was lashed to the mast—strictly speaking, he was tied hand and foot to a chair, and three desperate men with wicked-looking Colts had told him he had just one minute to pray before they sent his soul to hell.

Then the door opened and a little child—his grandson—walked in, followed by ten little pups, his playmates.

"What kind of a game are you playing, all tied up?" prattled the little fellow. "And you've got blood all over your face!"

Climbing upon the old sinner's lap, the child began wiping the dripping blood from his face, while the dumb-founded strikers looked on amazed. They couldn't shoot then—they didn't want to. "The grim face of the old tyrant relaxed and

P. S. ANDERSON GETS TIN HAT, CAMERON AND CANTRALL TIE

The German helmets which have been on exhibition at the Commercial club designed for the two heaviest subscriptions in this county for Liberty bonds, have brought on a crisis. In the final accounting it develops that the largest subscription was made by Peter S. Anderson of Medford, through the Jackson County bank, he taking $14,000 worth of the best bonds in the world.

There were a number of subscriptions ranging from $5,000 to $9,000. Z. T. Cameron of Medford subscribed for $10,000 worth, as did also Andrew Cantrall of Jacksonville, and therein comes the rub. Mr. Anderson has earned one of the "tin hats" and will undoubtedly value it highly as a souvenir, as it was originally intended by the Germans to equip their forces with new helmets for the triumphal march through the streets of Paris, when circumstances over which they had no control prevented.

The fact that Mr. Cameron and Mr. Cantrall are pioneer neighbors of the Applegate section since the year one may enable them to determine to whom the "tin hat" will go. If they could go over to Hornbrook they could doubtless settle it amicably, but it looks now like a case of peaceful arbitration. If it develops that no conclusion can be reached, or if the "baby" proves a source of worry, it is suggested it be placed in joint storage in the windows of the commercial club as a permanent home, to stir patriotic thoughts in the minds of the beholders.

With the awarding of these prizes and the final collection of the equipment pertaining to the Liberty loan in this county by W. N. Campbell, the chairman of the county organization, the Victory Liberty loan will be a closed episode in Jackson county, and most creditably closed for the county and the state.

32 YEARS' SERVICE Mrs. A. Waldman, 460 Glenn Ave., Fresno, Cal., writes: "When I was young I had a fever and it left me with a cough every winter. Thirty-two years ago I read about Foley's Honey and Tar and bought some and it helped me. I use it yet and it helps me every time. I am a widow 66 years old." There is nothing better for bronchial, grip and similar lingering coughs and colds that hang on. Just fine for children—for croup and whooping cough. Contains no opiates. THINK A MINUTE

WHAT is your doctor's first question? Why does he suspect constipation?

Because 90% of his patients are suffering from ailments caused directly or indirectly by the action of poisons formed in a sluggish intestinal tract.

These body poisons are absorbed by the blood and carried all over the body until the weakest organ, unable to withstand the poisonous contact, becomes infected and refuses to act properly. Unfortunately it is usually not until then that the doctor is consulted and asked to treat the diseased organ.

The surest way of purifying the blood and preventing the formation of these destructive body poisons is to prevent stagnation of food waste in the intestinal tract—to prevent constipation.

Constipation is not a matter to be taken lightly or neglected. Nor is it either sufficient or safe to take castor oil, pills, salts, mineral waters, etc., in order to "force" bowel action. Such action does not cure constipation, it makes constipation a habit.

Nujol is entirely different from drugs as it does not force or irritate the bowels. Nujol prevents stagnation by softening the food waste and encouraging the intestinal muscles to act naturally, thus removing the cause of constipation and self-poisoning. It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take.

Nujol helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle from your druggist today.

Warning: Nujol is sold in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. All druggists insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.
