A peculiar accident occurred at 8 a. m. today on West Main street at Orange street, in which Vanioh Lewis, the 10-year-old son of James Lewis, the taxicab man, suffered a broken leg. He was crossing West Main street to visit at Mrs. B. Orr's home and was coasting with one foot in his small hand wagon when an approaching auto struck the wagon and crushed it, and in the mix up the lad's left leg was broken above the ankle. The driver of the car took him to his home at 39 North Peach street where Dr. Sweeney cared for the injury.

FRENCH PREMIER'S DAUGHTER, NEW PHOTO

This is a picture never before published of the daughter of Premier Clemenceau of France, and no one has been more devoted to war work than she. She wears in the picture the croix de guerre, one of the many decorations she received.

Thursday was three degrees cooler than Wednesday, the maximum temperature being 90 degrees, and today was cooler than Thursday. Fair and warmer is the prediction for Saturday.

CASE AGAINST THE FISH COMMISSION OPENED PORTLAND

PORTLAND, June 6.—"Today both our fish and game protection and propagation are practically nil," declared Attorney John M. Joyce today in presenting to Governor Olcott, at a hearing being held here, the grievances of the Oregon Sportsmen's League and the Multnomah Anglers' club against the state fish and game commission.

Politics, domination of the commission by the commercial fishing interests and "
