

ASHLAND SENIORS BID FARWELL TO SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

ASHLAND, June 6.—(Special).—The 49ers graduated from the Ashland high school on Thursday evening. This number refers to the members of the class of 1919 numerically, not implying that they belong to the pioneer epoch. Strictly speaking, the exercises were the 28th as reckoned annually in history of the local institution. The event occurred at the Chautauque auditorium, and was in keeping with traditions of class spirit and enthusiasm. The auditorium was gaily decorated in a general way, with a specific floral embellishment which betokened a profusion of buds and blossoms during these ideal days of June, while the big American flag displayed fully demonstrated the patriotic ardor of students, instructors and patrons.

Instrumental music was by the high school band, and vocal selections were by the high school club and Mrs. Perce Ashcraft. Invocation and benediction were both by Rev. C. F. Koehler, Presbyterian pastor. The address was by President J. H. Ackerman of the Oregon Normal school. His topic was "A National Program for Education." The speaker's name is a familiar one, and it is needless to add that his theme, likewise opportune, was presented in a manner in keeping with the prestige and abilities which Mr. Ackerman enjoys throughout educational circles, extending even beyond state boundaries as a pastor in the pathways leading to highest ideals of intellectual development. The proverbial class prophecy was metamorphosed with a "class sentiment," very deftly introduced by Lilly Pinion Poley, the practical and figurative being interwoven in just the right proportions.

Of the class of 49 members girls predominate as usual. The diplomas were awarded by Supt. G. A. Briscoe who complimented the class collectively regarding the meritorious record.

In leaving the class room as boys and girls of today, the community at large is a well wisher, and will watch with interest the careers of the class of 1919 as reflected in the ambitions and accomplishments of the young men and women of tomorrow.

The list of graduates follows:
 William B. Allen, Edmund Barrett, Charles Albert Brvant, Arvin A. Burnett, Elva Burris, Mildred E. Carlton, Wilma A. Chattin, James R. Clary, Charles J. Cooley, Edwin M. Fraser, Anna M. EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett.
 Last Saturday evening after I had written my letter for the Medford Mail Tribune, Messrs. Corbit and Poke Smith, Mrs. Roy Cassey and two sons, Mrs. Anna Corum, Miss Bernice Edmondson, and Mr. Vernon Jones, all of Butte Falls, arrived, some for supper and to attend the dance, and others remained over until the next day, while a few of them returned to Butte Falls that night.

Frank Hazelton, Glenn Haley, Albert Clements and William Coy spent the night at the Sunnyside, at least that part that was left after the dance.

From what I can learn of the dance, there was a very respectful attendance, and of course the young folk had a good time.

Sunday morning, June 1, was one of those lovely mornings such as make us feel glad that we are in southern Oregon, and especially in the Rogue river valley where the sun can shine and not be so warm as to be oppressive and so cold as to make one feel fresh and vigorous. That was just the kind of a morning we had on the occasion referred to, and after spending an hour or so in the Sabbath school and enjoying the exercises, went home and began to meet the company that was coming in for chicken dinner. The day before some one in Medford phoned Mrs. Howlett that he would be here on Sunday with his (or a) family of fourteen, but when they arrived there had been an addition to the number for dinner at 12:30 p. m., and a short time before that hour three autos arrived bringing the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Antle of the Farmers and Fruit-growers bank; Mildred Schuhard, Miss Hazel Antle, Mrs. Y. W. Antle, Donald Runyard, Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Terrell, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Butterfield, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Roberts, Miss Phylla Roberts and Miss Alice Roberts, all of Medford. They were a merry bunch and looked like the very embodiment of happiness, while they were all seated at a long dining table loaded with good things to eat. They expressed themselves as well satisfied and promised to return again in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chapman, George W. Nelson and wife and two sons, Herbert and Donald, Miss Ruby Brooks, William Budge and C. M. Speck of Medford; John Rader, wife and daughter, Mrs. Harvey Stenley; Mrs. Royal G. Brown and daughter, Miss Hazel, of Eagle Point; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mastin, W. H. Brown and wife, Charles Edmondson, wife and daughter, Burnice Edmondson; Carl Jones of Butte Falls, Albert Clements, Emma McCaslin, Orvil Childreth, Zula Geppert, Glenn Haley, Margaret Riley, Graden Childreth, A. J. Florey Jr., and later in the day Charley Bacon, wife and two sons, and Miss Ella Adamson.

Our C. E. society met as usual Sunday evening at 8 o'clock and was led by Miss Nora Childreth. There was a good attendance and considerable interest was manifest, the young people taking a more active part than heretofore. A move was started to try to secure the services of a minister to come and preach for us occasionally.

Monday D. A. Shively, our school janitor, started up to Valley Forge, Wash., to visit his son-in-law and family, Rev. L. L. Summons, formerly pastor of the Baptist church of this place.

W. C. Daley, one of the pioneer stockraisers of the Lake creek country, his son George W. Daley, Jr., and daughter Myrtle Vander Hellen were among the business callers Monday. George W. Daley, Jr., for several years was the operator of the Sunny Butte mill of this place, but is now residing in Klamath Falls, and is here visiting his parents.

Fred Pottogrew and Amos Ayres were also among the business callers Monday.

Charles Courtney and W. E. Hammel were among the business callers Monday. Mr. Courtney has been building a new house for Mr. Hammel. The reader will perhaps remember that Mr. Hammel was burned out some time ago and he at that time simply put up a small house for a temporary lodging place.

M. C. Lozan of Brownsboro started for Bend, Oregon, Wednesday with his family.

Walter Charley and his friend, Carl Morrison of Medford, were here Monday on business, as was also D. R. Patrick, Mr. Patrick, V. C. Brock, appraiser for the Federal Land bank of Spokane, and Carl J. Brommer, appraiser for the Medford National Farm Loan association.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollie Hoyt were here on business Monday afternoon. Frank Lewis has put up a new awning in front of his confectionery store.

W. S. Chappell has completed the addition to his shop and installed a complete shoe, boot and harness repairing outfit and seems to be doing a thriving business.

Alonzo Barrell of Medford was a business caller Tuesday.

Miss Lee Spence and Mrs. Hazel McIntosh of Brownsboro were among the callers Tuesday.

Charles E. Wooden and S. A. Rolston, John W. Hoyt, Sunday school missionary, of Ashland, Ore., and Rev. L. Myron Booser, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Medford, were among the diners here Tuesday. Mr. Hoyt and Mr. Booser were on their way to Butte Falls to look after the interest of the church at that place.

Tuesday, when the election board came in for dinner at the Sunnyside, they reported that they had had only four votes cast up to 1 o'clock p. m.

Mr. Sandos of Elk creek, was here Tuesday and took supper with us. He started early the next morning for Medford.

Henry Elcher of Central Point and Mrs. Leroy Stanley were diners here today.

Graden Childreth has taken a room at the Sunnyside and is working at the Alivesta orchard.

5 MILLION YARDS TEXTILES TO BE SOLD BY WAR DEPT

WASHINGTON, June 6.—More than 5,000,000 yards of textiles will be disposed of by the war department through sealed bids on June 18. The material ranges from a remnant of 3 1/2 yards of black Albert twill to 200,000 yards of blue and white ticking, and includes cotton shirtings, sheeting, sateen, mohair serge, moleskin, grey duck, outing flannel and brown denim.

YOU NEED NOT SUFFER FROM CATARRH

But You Must Drive It Out of Your Blood.

Catarrh is annoying enough when it chokes up your nostrils and air passages, causing difficult breathing and other discomforts. Real danger comes when it reaches down into your lungs.

This is why you should at once realize the importance of the proper treatment, and lose no time experimenting with worthless remedies which touch only the surface.

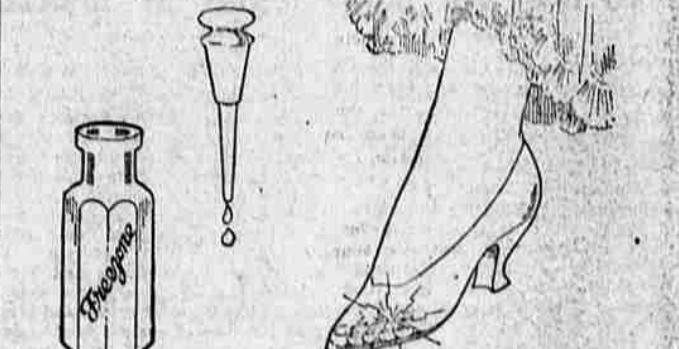

GREAT BRITAIN ASKS NEW ZEALAND TO FIGHT U.S. PACKERS

LONDON, June 6.—The New Zealand government has received advices from London indicating that Great Britain will ask New Zealand to help her to fight the American packers, says a dispatch to the Daily Mail from New Zealand. The suggestion is that an agreement be made to sell New Zealand meat products in London at a certain price. Then, adds the dispatch, "if the trust reduces prices, Great Britain and New Zealand must beat it on its own ground."

A conference of New Zealand producers, it is added, has been convened to discuss the subject.
