TABLE ROCK TABLETS

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Potts of the Agate district were Wednesday evening callers in this district. Mr. Potts has just purchased a tract of land near the Elbert Glass ranch in the Antioch district.

The frost of last Friday did considerable damage to gardens, potatoes and corn.

Melborn Atkins who has just returned from service with the army in Europe, spent Sunday with friends and relatives here.

Those in this district who took the eighth grade examination have not yet heard from their papers, although it has been a month since the examination.

Ellis May who left here some ten years ago, drifted in one day last week in search of his brothers, whom he did not know had married since he last saw them and had enlisted in the U. S. army.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dickson started Monday on their return trip to their home in Portland. Charley claims that their stay in Ashland was very beneficial to their health and that he had gained twenty pounds in weight.

The Agate Sunday school will give an ice cream social at the Agate school house next Saturday night.

Cuma Deford who has been staying in Portland, is visiting with her home folk for a few weeks.

Henry Maury and sister and Sanford Richardson and family of Ross Lane were Sunday evening visitors here.

S. K. Adams and children of Macdonald, Calif., visited in this district the first of the week.

Ilen Hilton and Mr. Evans were interviewing our farmers last Wednesday in regard to the Simplex silo, and sold one of thirty tons capacity to the Pendleton ranch.

Very little interest was taken in the special election in this precinct, there being only one-third the registered vote cast.

Two returned soldiers in New York City have written to the Table Rock Commercial club in regard to homesteads in this vicinity. They also state that they are expert packers and would like work in that line.

We are telling them that homesteads of any worth are scarcer than Ford's without cut-outs, but if they are fruit packers to come ahead.

The Deford, Wilson and Tresham sheep are being proved to leased range in the National forest near Prospect.

A very pretty wedding took place last Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cameron when Mr. Cameron's daughter Addie became the bride of Byron Deford.

Miss Cameron during her stay here has been a great helper in all social functions and by her unselfish ways and loving disposition has won a place in the hearts of all she chanced to meet.

The groom is a son of Frank Deford of the Sams valley district and is a promising young farmer, being interested with his father in the sheep business.

The happy couple are spending a short honeymoon in the Willamette valley and on their return a reception will be given for their friends.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bolkney of Central Point in the presence of relatives and a few friends. Both young people are well and favorably known here, having spent several years of their lives in this vicinity.

Anita Stewart in "Two Women" at Rialto Tonight

ANITA STEWART, in "TWO WOMEN"

"If you loved a man better than life would you surrender him to the woman who once held and who had proved unworthy of his love that she might be re-claimed—for him? Anita Arden faces and answers this problem in her mountain home with the woman, an outcast thru her own faithlessness, had followed the man it was Anita's first love and she was but a child. Her answer to him and to the woman is pictured with tremendous dramatic force in "Two Women," the Anita Stewart picture which will be seen at the Rialto theater tonight only.
