

ASHLAND'S WAR CHEST STILL HAS BALANCE OF $1000

ASHLAND, June 9.—(Special). A correction is in order. The local Patriotic fund is not by any means depleted. At the close of its fiscal year, May 31, it had on hand approximately $4300, since which time appropriations of $3250 have been made, leaving a working balance of about $1000 in its treasury. "Handsome is as handsome does" continues to apply to the war chest in making generous appropriations for worthy objects. The apportionment of $2500 for the Salvation Army, made through channels of the local Elks lodge, was a graceful recognition of timely aid, financial and otherwise, extended by that order in every emergency thru-out not only the war period but in meeting other needs. The latching to Elks temple is always out. Frantz appeals for assistance are unnecessary, provided the object is deserving. Merely a suggestion is in order and there follows an immediate response. The Salvationist quota so promptly made, has been supplemented by $300 in behalf of the Young Women's Christian Association, $250 in favor of the Ashland band, and $200 granted the local branch of the W. C. T. U. Nevertheless the war chest is not empty. It is not bulging, but continues to "shell out" generously as occasion requires, and whenever needs indicate its coffers will be replenished abundantly.

Seventy cents per pound, f. o. b. Ashland, was the price Fred Herrin received for his clip of corriedale wool. The purchaser was the Pendleton Woolen Mills, thru its president, C. P. Bishop, of Salem, who at the Panama Exposition in San Francisco had opportunity of investigating the merits of this particular wool and was very favorably impressed with it. The result is that this special lot will be sent direct to the mills at Pendleton, where owing to its fine texture and other superior qualities, it will be manufactured into high-grade products for which that institution is famous, notably Indian blankets and other designs not only fancy but also extra serviceable.

The city will have another special election to vote on proposed charter amendments. One will govern municipal elections, and another will create and define the duties of a municipal court. The date fixed is June 27.

The Boy Scouts will have headquarters in the Chautauqua building incident to their campaign activities this week. Sunday night they met in the Baptist church.

The Wednesday Afternoon club will picnic in the parks, in accordance with annual custom, on June 11.

Last Sunday, owing to the illness of Pastor Koehler, his wife occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church urging the disposition of our manifold opportunities and best talents thru proper channels.

Miss Aida Heer is home for the summer vacation from her school duties the past term at Beaverton.

Married, in this city, June 6, at the Presbyterian manse, Rev. C. F. Koehler officiating, Ira F. Orom and Miss Marie Griffith, both of Klamath county.

The ten-acre tract on Nell creek, known as the Jeff Howard place, has been sold by D. V. Richie to Thos. A. Morris, who for the past ten years has been lessee of the upper Dunn ranch, recently disposed of to a member of the Chapman family in this vicinity. Morris will have possession at once of one of the best improved places thereabouts, carrying with it a valuable water right. He also has other realty interests in that locality. The Beaver realty agency made the sale.

With Mrs. F. H. Johnson, and Miss Coshow, teacher in the city schools, as chaperone guides and protectors, a dozen young school girls of this vicinity made the ascent of Mount Ashland the last of the week. Long's Cabin was the rendezvous incident to the trip.

The Ashland high school alumni association held a joyous reunion in Odd Fellows hall last Friday evening, nearly 150 former grads having been present. Mrs. D. Porozzi, the retiring president, gave the address of welcome, which was responded to in a number of impromptu talks, the happy retrospective being dwelt upon also present and perspective views were outlined optimistically. Will M. Briggs was elected president; Mrs. Olive Thorne Burdick, vice-president;

Miss Hazel Powell, secretary. History of the various classes was reviewed with enthusiasm, and there was considerable rivalry displayed in recounting the achievements of the educational classifications of the long ago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Beaver, of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Robinson, of White Salmon, accompanied by their son Kenneth, are here for a visit with relatives in the Beaver and Yockey families, touring southern Oregon over the auto route.

Tom Daly, who ranches over in Dead Indian at the foot of Frog creek hill, brought into town last week a mammoth agate specimen weighing 270 pounds, which is on exhibition here, and which is at disposal for 25 cents per pound "live weight."

E. H. Bush and family have gone to Portland for a visit during the rose festival period.

Fred Tostevin, now living near Eugene, was a visitor here last week. In attendance upon the annual reunion of the high school alumni association. He is now field representative of a leading trade publication in territory extending from the Canadian to Mexican borders.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Winter left early in the week for Portland to visit relatives and witness the rose festival. The trip is being made in the family car. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vining will return with them over a route the itinerary of which includes various sections of central and eastern Oregon. They plan to be gone several weeks. A reunion of the Vining family will probably be in order. Prof. Irving Vining having returned from New York recently after an absence from Ashland for several months.

Announcements in the Portland dailies indicate that the Union Meat Co., nominally an adjunct of the Swift Packing Co., has been taken over—horn, hoof and hide—by the latter corporation.

Word from Charley Johnson, who went to Arizona sometime ago for the benefit of his health, is to the effect that he is steadily improving. He is not only doing some light carpenter work, but the past winter has been engaged in making toys, for the sale of which there has been a good demand in that section. He also acknowledges with gratitude courtesies extended by fraternalists with which he is affiliated.

Complimentary to Miss Pina Benedict, teacher from Ashland, who has been conducting the primary department of the Eagle Point schools, a farewell party in her honor marked the approach of the closing of the spring term, a delightful social event in which a number of mutual friends participated.

WAR MAKES WAITER $5000 A YEAR MAN

WASHINGTON, June 9.—"I know a young man who was a waiter in a small town restaurant in pre-war days for $12 a week and tips," says Colonel Arthur Woods, assistant to the secretary of war. "He had been in the National Guard and managed to get an appointment at an officers' training school. They sent him to war as a second lieutenant. He came back a captain with a medal and a citation. 'Nothing doing,' he laughed when the boss offered him the old job back in the restaurant with the promise of a head waiter position in a few months. I am a five thousand dollars a year man now."

GERMANS WANT TO TRADE IN AMERICA

TREVES, June 9.—Beginning May 1, the United States disbursing office at the army headquarters in Coblenz began paying 222 marks for 100 francs, an increase of 22 marks over the exchange rates which had been in effect several months.

Letters to the United States continue to indicate a desire to re-establish business relations. One firm in the American occupied zone, writing to a watch manufacturing company in the United States, says that Germany will soon be in the market for a great many watches for shipment by parcel post.

WILLARD MAKES $2,084 ON SUNDAY EXHIBITION BOUTS

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 9.—Jess Willard began the second week of serious training today for his heavy-weight championship contest with Jack Dempsey here July 4. The champion plans to increase his boxing until he has reached the 12-round limit, the distance he is to travel against his youthful challenger.

There was criticism because the champion doubled the price of admission yesterday to visitors to his training camp. The champion charged 50 cents instead of 25 cents, as on week days, and receipts were $2,084, about double the cost of training expenses for a week. Dempsey declined to take advantage of the Sunday throng and charged the customary 25 cents. There were 1,600 paid admissions at the Dempsey camp.

Reports that Bill Browne, a new York referee, had been selected for the big fight, were denied. It was announced that the referee question would not be settled until two weeks before the contest. Willard said he had not given the question of a referee any thought.

What Is Rheumatism? Why Suffer from It?

Sufferers Should Realize That It Is a Blood Infection. Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unanswered. Science has proven that Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons. This explains why liniments and lotions can do no permanent good, for they cannot possibly reach these germs, which infect your blood by the millions. S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years. Try it to-day, and you will find yourself at last on the right track to get rid of your Rheumatism.
