WOMEN'S TROUBLES

The tortures and discomforts of weak lame and aching back, swollen feet and limbs, weakness, dizziness, nausea, as a rule have their origin in kidney trouble, not "female complaints." These general symptoms of kidney and bladder disease are well known—so is the remedy.

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS

OH, THEN, CAN I BE IN A GOOD PLACE! LET'S SEE IF THEY GOT IT RIGHT—WANTED—A HUSBAND! CHARMING YOUNG LADY IS WILLING TO MARRY AND WILL CONSIDER OFFERS FROM ELIGIBLE BACHELORS OR WIDOWERS BETWEEN 20 AND 50 YEARS OLD...

noon. The G. A. R., of which he has been since its organization, one of the chief members, and the W. R. C., tenderly bearing beautiful floral offerings, marched to the church in a body to pay their last respects to the memory of the grand character of local history. The capacity of the church was filled to the utmost by friends from the entire countryside and especially by admiring residents from the Table Rock district in which place Jackson county's "grand old man" spent most of his days.

Robert H. Holmes went to Albany, Ore., Saturday and spent a few hours with his young brother, Joseph Byron Holmes, who has a position there with the S. P. Co.

Mrs. Merrill O. Betts of Gold Hill, spent the week end with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. W. Welch.

Miss Agnes Dunlap of this city was one of the leading speakers at the Epworth League convention recently held in Medford.

Mrs. Nettie Green and children of Ashland, were in Central Point Saturday afternoon in attendance at the funeral of the late S. M. Nealon, a former neighbor of the family.

Misses Audrey and Gladys Holmes spent the week end with Ashland friends.

Mrs. Summer Bryant and son of Pendleton, Ore., are very welcome guests at the home of the former's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Belknap of this city.

The W. R. C. met here in regular session Saturday evening in the local hall. Four new members, Mrs. Mahoney and daughter, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Belknap and Miss Gertrude Wiley enlarged the membership roll of the order on that night.

Rev. John C. Stille and Ethel Stille brothers, of Derby, Ore., were business visitors in the Point of Jackson county Monday.

Martin Marshall left Monday night for Seattle and other Washington cities for a lengthy visit with his children and friends in the northern cities.

J. W. Merrill of Gold Hill, revisited the scenes of his former home here Monday.

Ed Musty, one of the last of Central Point's soldier boys to return to his home, arrived here the first of the week. Mr. Musty was one of the "fortunates" who saw overseas service and is just recently returned from the "land of the lily" and of "Kaiserless" Germany.

Many Central Pointers went to Medford Monday to see the airplanes and many watched from their own doors the flight of the huge birds, so high that they were mere specks, then so low that the numbers of the machines were plainly seen. This exhibition was a very novel and interesting sight to a great many of the residents of the valley and was hugely enjoyed by all.

32 YEARS' SERVICE

Mrs. A. Waldman, 460 Glenn Ave., Fresno, Cal., writes: "When I was young I had a fever and it left me with a cough every winter. Thirty-two years ago I read about Foley's Honey and Tar and bought some and it helped me. I use it yet and it helps me every time. I am a widow 66 years old. There is nothing better for bronchial, grip and similar lingering coughs and colds that hang on. Just fine for children—for group and whooping cough. Contains no opiates. For sale by Medford Pharmacy."
