

CRATER LAKE TO BE READY FOR TRAVEL JULY 1

The Crater Lake season will open July 1st. This news was brought to the city late Thursday afternoon by Alfred Parkhurst, manager of the Crater Lake company, who reports that the road is now open to beyond Anna Spring camp and that the camp there is open to receive visitors.

The road has been opened thru the snow to within one and one-half miles of the lodge at the lake rim, but between there and the lodge there is considerable snow, an average depth of two to three feet, and in places 10 feet. It will be a week yet before the road will be opened clear to the lodge. The lodge is now open and could take care of visitors; could they find their way there thru the snow. But the lodge can comfortably be reached by July 1, and on that date Mr. Parkhurst will start the operation of the stages between Medford and the lake.

Alex Sparrow, Crater Park supervisor, who also arrived in the city from the lake yesterday, reports that the road from the Klamath side is open to within a short distance of the lake and will be open all the way inside of a short time.

Mr. Parkhurst says people broke into the lodge again during the winter, and stole a lot of blankets and other things and left the window out where they entered, thru which the snow filled the kitchen and did considerable damage.

ANOTHER AVIATOR FLIES OVER CITY

Flying airplanes over the city is no longer a strange sight in Medford, but nevertheless when the first plane flew shortly before noon announcing that Lieut. Hackett was due in his plane the people rushed forth from their homes and viewed the soaring aviator till he was out of sight to the south. Lieut. Hackett was enroute from Cottage Grove back to Mather Field near Sacramento. He was to have returned from Portland last week with the squadron from Portland, but was prevented from doing so because of his plane breaking down. He left Cottage Grove at 8 a. m. today and stopped in Grants Pass for oil and gas.

VILLA PLEDGES NO REPRISALS

EL PASO, Tex., June 20.—Villa will make no reprisals upon American property and lives in Mexico because American troops drove his men back from the border Sunday night; a courier from Villa's camp near Villa Ahumada, who arrived here last night declared.

EL PASO, Tex., June 20.—A courier from General Villa's headquarters at Samalayuca arrived at the border last night with a communication from General Felipe Angeles for Brigadier General James B. Erwin, district commander.

The communication asked for the reason why American troops crossed to the Mexican side Sunday night. The communication was received by General Erwin, acted upon and referred to Major General De Rosey C. Cabel, southern department commander.

CORVALLIS MAN IS NEW PEN WARDEN

SALEM, June 20.—To succeed the warden of the state penitentiary as a member of the state line board, Governor Oleott today appointed Sam H. Moore of Corvallis. A law enacted by the last legislature removed the warden from membership on the board and the governor therefore had two appointments to make from the state at large, instead of one, as formerly.

B. G. Leedy of Corvallis, representing the state grange, holds over as a member of the board and the governor appointed Benton Powers of Ashland, representing the farmer's union, and Dean A. B. Cordley of Corvallis, member of the state at large, to succeed themselves on the board.

UNPARDONABLE SIN PLEASES A LARGE CROWD AT THE PAGE

Tom Moore at Rialto Tonight

The "Unpardonable Sin" at the opening engagements at the Page Thursday afternoon and evening drew large crowds and everyone was delighted with the wonderful screen production and the many "big scenes."

"The Unpardonable Sin" is one of the most pretentious screen plays that has ever been attempted, and has been completed after months of painstaking effort and with the expenditure of more real money than has been enlisted in the aid of any photoplay produced within the past five years. It is a brand-new production, and just now is having its initial runs in the important theatres in the east.

Those who are familiar with the important books which have been published during the past couple of years will identify the big Garson picture as an adaptation from the powerful story by the same name, written by Major Rupert Hughes. The story has been spoken of as one of the most powerful tales of love and adventure which has ever been written, and reviews of the picture made by important critics throughout the country pay high tribute to Director Marshall Neilan when they say that here is one of the rare instances when the photoplay version is even more powerful and gripping than the original narrative.

Moving picture devotees will be particularly interested in the work of the star, for the reason that in Miss Blanche Sweet it brings back to the screen a favorite who had thoroly established herself before retiring for a long and unceasined rest. Miss Sweet won her spurs in some of the biggest and best pictures ever produced—by David Wark Griffith, who has since given to the public such big things as "The Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance" and "Hearts of the World."

The picture will be shown tonight and Saturday afternoon and evening.

Weddings

WILSON-GILMORE

At the Baptist parsonage at 9 o'clock Thursday evening, in the presence of a few near relatives, Miss Grace Barnes Wilson and Mr. Charles Morris Gilmore, both of Medford, were married by Rev. W. T. S. Springs. The pretty youthful bride was the very spirit of spring in white crepe de chine and a white picture hat, with just a touch of green in her costume. Her bouquet was white sweet violets and fern. Mrs. Gilmore is a very talented musician, and both young people are well and favorably known in southern Oregon. They will reside at Gold Ray dam, where the groom has furnished a charming bungalow.

Mr. Gilmore has a responsible position with the California Oregon Power company, and later in the summer when his vacation time arrives, the young couple will go to San Francisco and other California points on their honeymoon trip.

DISSORDERS of the stomach and constipation are the most common diseases of children. To correct them you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Tablets. One tablet at bed time will do the work and will make your child bright and cheerful the following morning. Do not punish your children by giving them castor oil. Chamberlain's Tablets are better and more pleasant to take.

GRIFFIN CREEK RANCHER FOUND DEAD IN BED

Robert Bruce Wilson, the well known Griffin creek rancher was found dead in his bed at his ranch home last night about 7 o'clock by Earl Webber, his foreman. Mr. Wilson had been chopping wood in the morning and not feeling well stopped work about noon telling his foreman he intended to take a rest. At supper time as Mr. Wilson had not appeared the foreman entered the house to investigate and found Mr. Wilson's body lying on his cot bed. Coroner John Perl was notified and soon arrived on the scene, the body being brought to Medford. After an examination it was decided death was due to heart failure. Bruce Wilson was a brother of Dr. George Wilson of Portland, a member of a prominent pioneer family in that city. He lived alone, but often entertained his sisters who make their home in Portland. Dr. Wilson was notified by telegraph and is expected to arrive in the city this afternoon.

LOCAL STOCKMEN GIVE SUPPORT TO PORTLAND SHOW

O. M. Plummer, manager of the Pacific Livestock exposition, was in the city yesterday and today in the interest of that association and reported strong interest among local cattlemen in that organization. Yesterday several hundred dollars was subscribed in a short time and it is believed the quota for the district will be easily secured. This afternoon Mr. Plummer went to Ashland where he will confer with stockmen in that vicinity. Mr. Plummer has been a member of the Portland school board for many years, and has made a thorough study of the subject of education. He is much interested in the recent defeat of the Medford school budget and said a similar situation had arisen in Portland. It is his opinion there is no better investment a city can make than in the improvement of schools and he believes the budget will carry in Medford when the public are informed of the actual conditions and the necessity of backing up a progressive school board in their effort to secure better schools.
