

ARREST FOUR MEN FOR INTOXICATION ONE BOOTLEGGER

As the Medford aftermath of the unusually heavy travel by auto and train to Hill and Hornbrook Saturday and Sunday the police arrested four men on intoxication charges and one on a bootlegging charge. There were hundreds of autos making the trip to the California towns Sunday, most of the occupants were bent on satisfying their thirst before the great national drought becomes effective.

Sheriff Terrill and deputies kept a vigilant eye out in the Slakiyous for bootleggers, and the sheriff was on the job personally all of last night, but no arrests were made. The bootlegging fraternity evidently fears the law at the final windup and is very cautious. The Jackson county authorities are of the opinion that the bootleggers are caching their illicit booze on the California side of the mountain, intending to get it after the excitement incidental to the national prohibition act going into effect blows over.

Phil McCool, a northern Californian, who was found intoxicated on the streets at 1 a. m. Sunday, was fined $15 and costs today by Justice Taylor. Three other men arrested for intoxication Sunday and who put up $15 cash bail each as a guarantee that they would be in court today had failed to put in appearance up to this afternoon. A man from Crescent City whom the police claim is a bootlegger and who was arrested for having nine pints of whiskey in his possession was to have been arraigned late this afternoon.

CRATER LAKE TO BE OPENED FOR TRAVEL TUESDAY

The Crater Lake season officially opens tomorrow and in the morning the Crater Lake stages will begin the regular schedule. The road has been opened to the rim of the lake and the hotel can easily be reached by tomorrow. Two tourists are already booked to take passage on the stage tomorrow and others are expected to arrive on the trains today or Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Parkhurst arrived by auto Sunday from Portland with a party of men and women who will reinforce the employees at the hotel and other concessions of the Crater Lake company, and the entire party departed for the lake this morning. Included among the employees are Pearl Craine, Melba Williams, E. Clare Loran and Dorothy M. Diekey of Eugene. Others are Mrs. Yoe and Mrs. E. G. Pomroy, James Sprissa, Archie E. Coak and G. Anderson of Portland.

A new feature of this season will be musical entertainments for the hotel guests at the lodge which will be given by two Eugene young women. Court Hall, who will look after the Crater lake routing of tourists for the eastern tourist agencies has established his office in the Commercial club where he will answer all questions pertaining to Crater Lake travel and accommodations. Returning visitors from the lake reported that Sunday there were ten guests at the Crater Lake lodge and more were coming every hour.

HEART OF HUMANITY AT PAGE THEATRE MAKES A BIG HIT

A remarkable cinema production was given its premiere showing at the Page theatre last night when the management of that theatre presented the Jewel production, "The Heart of Humanity." And at the same time, a new figure took his place among the three or four really great moving picture directors. This figure was Allan Holubar, who both conceived the story and transferred it to the screen.

To discriminating photoplay patrons, "The Heart of Humanity," will rank as the third of a triumvirate of great pictures produced since the inception of the film industry. The first two are "The Birth of a Nation," and "Intolerance." Altogether in a measure a war picture, it is a rank injustice to stigmatize it by that term, since it has come to mean the brutalities, horrible atrocities and similar tricks to which the average film director resorts when producing a motion picture in which the Hun figures.

Love forms the central theme of "The Heart of Humanity," and, as the title implies, it is the story of all the living, breathing world. It is the story of the love that lives in a mother's heart; of the love that dwells in the hearts of all sweethearts; of the love that exists in the hearts of all husbands and wives. It is the story of the grand passion which prompts humanity to do and dare for what is good and right, even to the extent of sacrificing life itself. See this picture tonight.

U. S. SOLDIERS AND FRENCH CIVILIANS FIGHT, TWO KILLED

BREST, June 30.—Two French civilians were killed and five American soldiers and sailors were severely injured, and more than 100 wounded in riots here last night. Two of the American soldiers are expected to die.

The casualties occurred as a result of the exchange of shots between American military and naval police and French sailors.

The trouble began, according to available accounts, when an American naval officer, who is said to have been drinking heavily, tore down a French flag and trampled on it. A crowd of Frenchmen attacked the officer and it is said kicked and beat him until he was unconscious.

Americans who passed by and who were not aware of the cause of the fight, went to the aid of the naval officer. The fight then became general.

A mob of French civilians and soldiers and sailors attempted to rush the Hotel Moderne, where American officers were quartered. They burned a sentry box and threw stones at Americans in uniform wherever they found them. The Americans, it is said, retaliated.

A company of marines with fixed bayonets was hurried to the scene and the Americans soon restored order.

Admiral Henri Salaun, the French naval commander at Brest ordered the marines to return to their barracks.

DRESSMAKER SAVED FROM OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time.

Ithaca, N.Y.—"Three years ago I suffered from pains in my right side, so severe that I could not raise my feet from the floor. Pains would shoot down my limbs and through my back, and the doctor said I had an abscess. I was in bed two weeks with an icebag on my side and expected any day that I might have to go to a hospital for an operation. A friend came to see me and told me of your wonderful medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it, and after taking six bottles I feel well and strong, do my own work and dressmaking for others. I cannot speak too highly of your medicine and recommend it to others who suffer with female trouble. It is a Godsend to ailing women, and you may use my name at any time."—Mrs. PERMILLA HULAUZER, 218 E. Fall St., Ithaca, N.Y.

Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

RELIEF OVER PEACE VOICED IN LONDON

LONDON, June 30.—Relief, gratification and hope for a speedy readjustment of the world are voiced in the editorials published by all morning newspapers on the signing of the treaty of peace.

"President Wilson's telegram to America," says the Chronicle, "struck the right note regarding the treaty." Several newspapers mingle thanksgiving with warnings that there must be no relaxing of effort to make the League of Nations effective. The Daily News mentions apprehension regarding Japan and the Far East, and denounces elements "on both sides of the Atlantic," who, the paper asserts, "are trying to stir up discord between England and America." The Telegraph does not appear to fear anything in this direction, saying:

"We made this peace in a co-operation and friendship with the American people such as has never hitherto been approached."

LONDON, June 30.—The allied governments have represented to the government of Holland the necessity of taking steps to prevent the departure of the former German emperor from Holland, C. B. Harmsworth, under-secretary of state for foreign affairs, announced in the house of commons this afternoon.
