The Screen

Rialto Bill Makes Hit

The big double bill which opened yesterday for a 3 day run at the Rialto theatre met with a wonderful reception from the large audience at each performance. There is Harold Lloyd, billed as the different comedian, who kept the audience hitting the high c's of laughter altho his new special comedy "Bumping Into Broadway," the dramatic feature, "The Beauty Market," stars Catherine MacDonald, who is very easy and pleasing to watch, while she portrays one of the most unique characterizations, she strongly drives home the wholesome lesson that the "four-flusher" and the society fakir must ultimately pay for what has been conceded to them.

Why Smith Left Home

Why did Smith leave home?

Was it because he didn't get enough to eat?

Because he didn't get along well with his mother-in-law?

Because he was henpecked?

Because he couldn't have breakfast in bed?

Because they didn't want him to come home late at night?

Because he smoked cigars and threw his ashes on the parlor carpets?

Because he sought adventure?

Or was it because he was in love?

You'll admit there are any number of reasons why a young man by the name of John Brown Smith would leave home, but this John Brown Smith had one very good reason in particular. At the Liberty theatre where "Why Smith Left Home" is playing you will find the reason. The picture, by the way, with Bryant Washburn starring, is one of the best comedies of the season. Don't fail to see it.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

About 30 families in the Beagle neighborhood turned out one day last week to do a good deed for Jasper Rodgers, who has been laid up for a long time with rheumatism, and cut and hauled 11 loads of wood for his winter use. The women all took their basket dinners.

We are sorry to learn of the accident that befell Beagle Welsh of the Meadows, who is over 80 years of age. He was riding to a neighbor's and the horse threw him and broke his leg in two places and he laid out in the rain all night and was found Christmas morning.

George Perry, whose parents used to live in the Chaparral district, but now of Dunsmuir, is up on a visit at Vern Conley's.

Myrtle Chapman returned to Griffin Creek Saturday, after a two weeks' stay with home folks.

Carl Doll, formerly of Antioch, but now of Roseburg, is up in the valley visiting friends.

Mrs. C. M. Conley visited with home folks a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker are up from Portland on a visit around with relatives and friends and will live at Ashland this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moore rode out from Roxy Ann New Year's day to visit home folks.

John Conley of Myrtle Creek is up on a visit and brought back his mother and father who have been staying there for a two months' visit.

Miss Maltby, the Chaparral school teacher spent the holidays in Medford with her sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinnis gave a dance New Years and furnished a nice supper for a large crowd.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c.
