

TELEGRAM SENT SENATOR McNARY TO RATIFY TREATY

The following self explanatory telegram was written and sent to Senator McNary from Medford today by Judge W. E. Phipps, which was signed by 19 well known citizens: Hon. Charles L. McNary, United States Senate, Washington, D. C. Your constituents demand ratification of peace treaty, including league covenant, without material change. People even of this back woods country understand that the constitution and laws of the United States can not be nullified by the action of peace committees, the president or the senate or of all of them combined. They have no fear of the provisions of articles five and ten or any others of the league covenant. As a whole it seems plain enough to the average person.

If Senator Lodge can not understand it, procure some inventive writer to prepare explanations and reservations, but for God's sake ratify the treaty.

W. E. Phipps, John S. Orth, J. C. Brown, R. W. Ruhl, W. E. Cross, H. C. Garnett, Wm. A. Aiken, Edwin M. White, Oris Crawford, F. H. Hopkins, F. A. Fifer, Charles Strang, John C. Mann, L. L. Jacobs, J. H. Hanselman, W. N. Campbell, Edward E. Keller, Fred C. Heath; and a thousand others, regardless of party affiliations.

CULLING OUT THE NON-LAYING HENS

J. O. Isaacson, president of the Jackson County Poultry association, has a wire from C. A. Brewster, poultry expert of O. A. C., that he will be here to give a lecture and demonstration at the poultry show in the M. F. and H. building at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, January 7, on culling out the non-layers. This will be a very interesting and beneficial demonstration and should be largely attended by men, women and children poultry raisers. Non-producing hens are a detriment to any flock and how to cull them out is very important.

New Invention Sent on 30 Days' Trial Without Expense to You. Simply send me your name and I will send you my new copyrighted rupture book and measurement blank. When you return the blank I will send you my new invention for rupture. When it arrives put it on and wear it. Put it to every test you can think of. The harder the test the better you will like it. You will wonder how you ever got along with the old style cruel spring trusses or belts with leg straps of torture. Your own good, common sense and your own doctor will tell you it is the only way in which you can ever expect a cure. After wearing it 30 days, if it is not entirely satisfactory in every way—if it is not easy and comfortable—if you cannot actually see your rupture getting better, and if not convinced that a cure is merely a question of time, just return it and you are out nothing. Any rupture appliance sent on 30 days' trial without expense to you is worth a trial. Tell your ruptured friends of this. EASYHOLD CO., 966 Koch Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.

PROF. F. C. REIMER TELLS O. A. C. OF CHINESE JOURNEY

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 5.—The seriousness of fire blight which threatens the pear industry of Oregon and which has already wiped it out in certain sections of the country and how the Southern Oregon branch experiment station hopes to be of service through the propagation of blight resistant varieties, was told Thursday night by F. C. Reimer superintendent of the station, at Farmers' week. Superintendent Reimer has just returned from his second trip to China for the purpose of obtaining pears which are blight immune. He brought home between 40 and 50 new varieties, and these will be tested at the station next spring and summer. Superintendent Reimer told of oriental customs which were not altogether to his liking.

"Chinese hotels," he said, "should be called Chinese hovels. Donkeys, goats, pigs, chickens, and all the vermin God ever made are there. There is no bed, no bedding and no stove. It is a real experience to spend a few nights in one of these places."

"Fifteen to 30 Chinese all sleep in the same room. The Chinese are looking each other all night long and they snore like a rhinoceros. The noise of the donkeys in another part of the inn is terrific, but when I was given the choice of sleeping next to the Chinese or the donkeys, I chose the donkeys."

"It is a common experience to find a hog in your room roosting in your baggage. One must carry his own bed, bedding and food. The Chinese inn is beyond description."

SACRAMENTO IS DELIGHTED WITH MAY ROBSON TISH

(By Kenneth Campbell in Sacramento Bee.)

May Robson is delightful as ever in her new play, "Tish." This is described as a "melodramatic farce" on the program and in the advance notices. But the phrase is scarcely apt or just. The play, adapted by Edward E. Rose from the famous stories by Mary Roberts Rinehart, is rather melodramatic, but it ranks higher than a farce. It strikes a more serious note than frivolous skepticism. It is dignified into the deeper, richer chords of comedy by the pathos, the humanness, the heart moments there are in it.

May Robson stands among the greatest of America's character comedienne. "Tish" could very well have been created by Mrs. Rinehart around her personality. The time probably never will come when she will surpass her attainments in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary." But her "Tish," too, has classical elements. The comedy gives her just enough opportunity for her forte, which is dramatic shift of emotional play from humor to pathos. First she makes 'em laugh; then she makes 'em cry. And when they can do that, they have achieved all that virtuosity can. Humanness is the word.

SEES RUSSIA AS AMERICA OF AN OTHER NEW WORLD

LONDON, Jan. 5.—On the eve of his return to Copenhagen to resume the prisoner exchange negotiations with Maxim Litvinoff, the bolshevik representative, James O'Grady told the Mirror correspondent that he believed the poor parlors would be successful and that the repatriation of British prisoners and British civilian residents in soviet Russia would be effected by the end of January.

Mr. O'Grady said his consultations since his return from Copenhagen would aid materially in bringing about a settlement. He expressed it as his opinion that Russia would save herself if left alone.

"She is now like a child groping in the dark, but she is growing up," he declared.

"Russia will regenerate herself by her own resources. I believe she will become the America of the new world. The soviet government today is far more humane, far saner and far more statesmanlike than the soviet government of a year ago. Circumstances, of course, are being committed but I know that when the perpetrators are adjudged guilty they are exterminated."

Mr. O'Grady strongly opposed armed intervention in Russia, saying it would be a delusion to build hopes on Admiral Kolchak and General Donnikin, both of whose armies, he added, were beaten and broken.

RUMOR CLEMENCEAU IS SOON TO MARRY YANKEE 'COUNTESS'

PARIS, Jan. 5.—Allusion to the "approaching marriage of Premier Clemenceau to the widow of a former senator and former ambassador of France," is made by Humanite today. It is understood that this refers to gossip which has been current in Paris political circles for some days that M. Clemenceau had married Countess d'Aunay, widow of Count Charles Le Peletie d'Aunay, former ambassador of France at Bern.

The marriage was said to have taken place in England a fortnight ago. An authority very close to the premier, however, declares the story is quite without foundation. The countess is of an American family. Available records fail to show of what American family the Countess d'Aunay is a member.

PARIS, Jan. 5.—Families of 10 and 12 children are being urged by Premier Clemenceau who is touring the department of Var, his constituency in the chamber of deputies. M. Clemenceau points out to his rural audiences the need of re-peopling France.

OBITUARY

McDOUGALL.—Mrs. Carrie Krebs McDougall died Sunday, Jan. 3, at 3:30 p. m., at her home, 1109 West Eleventh street. She was 53 years of age last March and was the wife of H. W. McDougall. She was born at Madison, Wis., and when a young lady moved with her parents to Cedar Rapids, Ia., where she was married to Mr. McDougall in 1888. The family removed to Medford in 1913. Besides her husband Mrs. McDougall is survived by four children who are Charlotte, recently of Seattle but now a teacher at Aberdeen, S. D., Ralph of Cedar Rapids, Ia., and Leila and Arthur of Medford.

Funeral services will be held from the family home at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and the interment will be in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Military rule at Gary, Ind., center of the steel strike zone, was reinstated yesterday.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole. When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable. 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

MAN MAYBE CRAZY AND PRACTICE LAW DECLARES ALIENIST

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 5.—Harry New is a "constitutional inferior," and when he killed his sweetheart, Freda Lesser, he was insane, according to the testimony of Dr. E. B. Hoag, alienist, before a jury in Judge Craig's court here recently.

The defendant continued to gaze blankly ahead of him while the alienist added the descriptive terms, "psychopathic personality," a "man with paranoid symptoms," a "feeble minded man," and a "man showing symptoms of dementia praecox."

Dr. Hoag was subjected to a lengthy cross examination by District Attorney Woolwine.

Woolwine asked the witness if it was possible for a crazy man to have made his living in occupations requiring certain degrees of skill.

"Yes," said Dr. Hoag. "A man may practice law and be crazy."

settlement of the nation-wide strike, terminated on December 10 by a truce proposed by President Wilson which gave the miners a 14 per cent advance in wages. Plans are also to be formulated for presenting to the commission of three men appointed by the president to consider all matters in dispute, and report within 60 days, final terms of settlement. The Columbus convention, it was pointed out by the officers, is not called for the purpose of ratifying or rejecting the action of the officers in accepting the proposal of the president.

It is expected that the radical element of the convention may take exceptions to the action of the officers in agreeing to the 14 per cent advance and the appointment of the president's commission, but they are said to constitute a minority.

Alleged discrimination on the part of the operators in Alabama, Tennessee, eastern Kentucky, Colorado, and parts of Illinois against union officials, is expected to come before the convention.

Secretary Green said the alleged discrimination had been brought to the attention of Attorney General Palmer.

Chicago recorded the lowest death rate in its history in 1919.

Battle Between Tooth Pastes

Who Will Settle The Argument. Let Your Druggist Be The Referee.

It must be perplexing to the reader to decide which of the claims are logical and which are unsupported when he reads the glowing advertisements of the various manufacturers of Tooth Paste.

One maker's product lays stress on the flavor. Another claims to "remove the film." Still another leaves a "clean feeling." Another calls attention to the teeth of wild animals and is reputed to be highly antiseptic.

After reading all carefully, the intelligent person decides to refer the matter to the court of last resort for the true answer. The Druggist is the one whom the physicians and dentist relies upon to furnish expert advice on the action of chemicals. Why, therefore, is he not the person for you to trust? Long years of patient training and a knowledge of the relative value of the various ingredients in all chemical products have fitted him to express an opinion. He knows because he is qualified to know.

Something over 28,000 druggists and physicians in this country belong to national association known as the American Druggists Syndicate. The national formula committee of this great association met annually in conference for 19 consecutive years in order to select the best formulas for household remedies to be manufactured in their own great laboratories maintained at Long Island City.

One of their well known preparations is A. D. S. Peroxide Tooth Paste which has been endorsed by leading dentists in every state of the nation. Your druggist will tell you that it enjoys a fast repeating sale and its claim as a perfect product is briefly stated when he tells you that "besides doing all that any other tooth paste can do, Peroxide whitens like peroxide."

Large production of this remarkable preparation enables you to still purchase the large tube at the old price—25 cents. Try a tube today and be convinced.

LOS ANGELES WOMAN STATES SHE COULD NOT WALK UP STAIRS

"I had rheumatism so bad that life was simply miserable for me and I hardly cared what happened but now six bottles of Tanlac have entirely overcome my six years of trouble and I am a well and happy woman," said Mrs. Martha Asbach of 2226 1/2 Duane St., Los Angeles, a few days ago.

"For the past six years I have been in such misery that I can hardly understand how I have stood up under the strain and held out as long as I did," she continued. "I had rheumatic pains in my knees so bad that it was impossible for me to step up or down a stair or step, and my hands were so swollen and stiff that I could hardly hold the broom or dishes. When I went to bed at night I simply ached all over so bad that I could not sleep or rest at all, in fact, I was suffering all the time. I was very nervous and worried so much over my condition that I became despondent and saw no hope of ever getting any relief."

"I had little or no faith in medicine and treatments for I had tried everything I had ever heard of but they did no good but finally after I had noticed so much in the papers about Tanlac I made up my mind to give it a trial. And now I am happy to say it has come up to my fullest expectations and more too, for all signs of the rheumatism have completely left me and I am back doing all my housework by myself for the first time in years. My nerves are as steady as they can be and when I go to bed I never feel an ache but can go to sleep at once, and not wake up till morning. My appetite is better than it was, I am built up in every way and just haven't felt so fine in years. Tanlac has helped me after everything else failed and it certainly is a pleasure to tell everybody what it has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Medford by West Side Pharmacy, in Gold Mill by M. D. Flowers, in Central Point by Miss M. A. Mee, in Ashland by East Side Pharmacy, in Eagle Point by Von der Hellen.

Samuel Goldwyn Presents Mabel Normand in "Jinx" Jinx made one fatal mistake — She bit off more than she could chew! Her heart was in the right place, but her feet got mixed up in the scenery and that killed Hogarth's chances of selling the circus. The wild man escaped and put the crowd in a panic — Jinx fled in her dance costume, all dressed up and no place to go — the monkeys acted like the very Voronoff, and nobody yet knows what happened to the elephant. Poor Mabel Normand! Jinx of the circus, but queen of comedy! She couldn't even sling wheat cakes correctly, but the kids loved her and the wild man married her, and they were happy ever afterwards. Go see "JINX" and take the children with you, and if you haven't got any children borrow some for "Jinx" and square some of your sins!
