Chas. Ray is leaving town tonight to get away from Vivian Martin and "The Third Kiss." (Know what it is?) who arrives tomorrow.

SO—

you had better connect with the "Equi Crate Wallon" tonight if you want to see a rattling fast comedy drama.

AND—

You'll say it's Ray's "Best Ever" picture. That's what the crowds tell us.

NEW MINISTER OF METHODIST CHURCH REACHES MEDFORD

Rev. J. Randolph Sasnett, the new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church arrived in Medford yesterday from Seattle. Rev. Sasnett comes to this city with a very high reputation as preacher and parish worker, and is a young man most prepossessing in manner and appearance. The following article in the Seattle Times indicates the high esteem in which the young minister was held in the Puget Sound metropolis:

Rev. J. Randolph Sasnett, associate pastor of First Methodist Episcopal Church of Seattle, has been appointed pastor of the Methodist church at Medford, Ore., and will leave Tuesday to take up his new duties. He will be one of the youngest ministers on the coast, as he is not yet 30 years old.

In looking over the field for a permanent pastor for the Methodist pulpit, Bishop Matthew S. Hughes decided to offer the pastorate to Dr. Sasnett and called him to his office in Portland. The Seattle man accepted the appointment and as a result First church will be without a head until the return of its pastor, Rev. J. E. Crowther, from the east.

Dr. Sasnett has been Dr. Crowther's assistant for more than a year. Coming to the state of Washington shortly after he graduated from the college at Meridian, Miss., in 1912, he held pastorates at Blanchard, Wash., and Spmas, Wash., and in 1916 was appointed pastor of Calvary church in Seattle. He left that pulpit to become associate pastor of First church.

"I accepted the appointment with no little reluctance, as it means leaving Seattle and a host of good friends here," said Dr. Sasnett today. "It is especially hard for me to quit First church because of my very pleasant relations with Dr. Crowther. But when Bishop Hughes called me to Portland and pointed out the opportunities for me at Medford I could not decline the appointment."

Below is printed the resolutions of Methodist Ministers' Association of Seattle: It was a decided surprise to many of us when it was announced in the Methodist Ministers' Union that the Rev. J. Randolph Sasnett was transferred from our city to be the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in Medford, Ore. We had looked upon him as one of the men who was to build himself into the future of this growing northwest conference.

During the few years that he has been a member of this conference he has served the churches where he has been appointed with devotion and recognized ability. His choice Christian manhood has been felt and appreciated by his brothers in the ministry and they have rejoiced in his steady advancement.

We are decidedly sorry to lose him from among our ranks, but we extend congratulations to the brethren of the Oregon conference on his joining their fraternity.

The Epworth Leagues of this conference have found him one of the helpful leaders in the institutes that have become such sources of power throughout the conference. He has been untiring in his work for the young people.

Our prayers and our love are with him and his family as they go to their new and large field of service. WILLIAM PARK, E. D. WHITE, ROBERT J. REID.

FOX RANCHING GROWS IN POPULAR FAVOR

CHARLOTTETOWN, Prince Edward Island.—Fox ranching on this island province is steadily growing and this season it is estimated that about 5,000 will be culped from here. The prices range from $1,000 each for silver fox skins down to $10 for the cheapest reds.

Ranchers are giving up the breeding of the cheaper grades of foxes as they cost just as much to feed as the others and domesticated reds are now a rarity. A number of individual farmers in this province are starting small fox ranches.

Coughed Night and Day

John Vogues, Elberton, Ga., writes: "Last fall, when my neighbors were down with influenza, I took a severe cold and before I was aware of my condition I was down sick in bed. I coughed night and day and my throat was raw and sore. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and took eight small doses in two hours. My condition began to improve and in a few days I was as well as ever. In my opinion Foley's is the best cough medicine made." For sale by Medford Pharmacy.

EVANGELIST ASKS PEOPLE TO STUDY THE HOLY BIBLE

Evangelist J. A. Rippey said last night at the Seventh Day Adventist church that emperors from the days of Charlemagne until the days of Kaiser William have tried to abolish a universal kingdom. He showed from the Bible that Rome was the last universal empire that would exist before the one established by Christ, which would never be destroyed.

His opening text was II Peter 1:19. The speaker stated that the prophecies of God's word was more sure than to "hear with the ear or to see with the eye."

According to II Peter 1:21 and II Tim. 3:16 the Bible is for us to study and there are no non-essentials in it. The evangelist emphasized the fact from Isa. 46:8-10 and Isaiah 48:3-4 that God had marked out the end from the beginning and that according to Amos 3:7, no crisis would be brought on the world in which would involve his people unless he had revealed the same by a prophet. He substantiated his remarks by citing specific instances recorded in Matt. 24:15 and Luke 21:20 where it speaks of the destruction of Jerusalem.

Turning to Rev. 1:1-3 he showed that this book was written by John for us and was not sealed as some might infer. The very title of the book itself would indicate that it was not a sealed book. In fact a three-fold blessing is promised to those who go and teach the things that are written in this book.

While it is true the book of Daniel is considered a sealed book, still we read in Dan. 12:4 that Daniel was bidden by the angel to seal the book only to the time of the end. In the latter days the seal was to be broken "in which days we are living" said the pastor.

He showed that the metallic image which was seen by Nebuchadnezzar represented the four great universal kingdoms of the world. Babylon represented by the head of gold, existed to 538 B. C. and was succeeded by the Medes and Persians. They, in turn were overthrown by "Alexander the Great" in 331 B. C. The Grecians held sway till 161 B. C. when Rome represented by the legs of iron took the scepter and ruled the world. History tells us that between 351 and 478 Rome became weakened and divided into ten parts as represented by the ten toes of the image.

These divisions were to continue until God would set up his everlasting kingdom. These kingdoms are in existence in Europe today. The next great event in the world's history is the coming of the kingdom of Christ. An urgent appeal was made by the speaker for every one to be ready for that kingdom which will never be destroyed.

Let Us Help You Get the Most From 1920

Things Are Settling Down, Prospects Are Mighty Bright

A new year, a new spirit and mighty good times ahead for the aggressive optimist.

That's the way we look at it as young 1920 starts his career.

A few weeks ago things didn't look so promising. Most of those who weren't striking were thinking up pet remedies for what ailed the world. There was too much scheming, too little doing, too much unrest.

But now the unrest and the quick economic remedies are vanishing. The world is going to work. There is going to be real production in all lines where shortages exist. And that is all the world needs. It means better times for all of us.

The prospect is especially improved for farm crop prices. There is a growing stability in the market. The law of supply and demand is again beginning to prevail. And a world at work will bring a healthy demand for a big supply of all food products.

Get ready for another prosperous year on the farm. We are ready to help you. Tell us early what repairs you will need for your old implements whose serviceability can be renewed. Investigate our stock of high quality new implements. Drop in any day and find out how well prepared we are to help make 1920 a good year for you.
