

Local Briefs

As the high cost of living grows not worrying as sufficiently, now comes the news that blanks for income tax returns will soon be sent out to enable Uncle Sam to take his little annual gouge out of our pocket books. Persons and business entities who come under the provisions of the income tax law are advised to get their reports ready in advance in order to avoid delay later. All single men with an income of $1000 or more, and all married men whose annual incomes are $2000 or more are required by law to make out their income statements, even if they have enough exemptions to bring them below that figure.

REV. BRAY GIVEN BIRTHDAY DINNER BY HIS CHURCH

Last evening a most delightful dinner and program was enjoyed at the parlor of the Methodist church, South. When the lights had to be used at the early hour of dusk a messenger was sent to the parsonage to inform Dr. and Mrs. Bray that the church was not affre and that they need not come over until sent for. The ladies of the church and friends spread a sumptuous repast of several courses and when all things were ready a committee was sent after the pastor and wife. The guests were all seated and suddenly the lights were turned out and Rev. Ryan in behalf of the church and friends presented Mrs. Bray with a beautiful birthday cake with candles burning. Numerous gifts were brought forth and piled high on the table.

After enjoying the dinner the guests assembled in the main auditorium where the following program was highly enjoyed:

Song, My Country 'Tis of Thee.

Prayer, Dr. Joubert Bray.

Instrumental piano, Mrs. Emily Conrad.

Duet, Misses Billings.

Instrumental piano, Miss Ruth Billings.

Three Big Subjects

Tonight—"The Twenty-Three Hundred Days."

This is the longest prophetic period in the Bible. It fixes the year when Christ should begin His work, the time of His death, and the time of the rejection of the Jews as a nation. It also fixes a date which concerns the destiny of every individual.

Saturday Night, 7:30—"Court Week in Heaven."

This subject deals with the judgment work and the time when the work begins in heaven. It will also show the part the family in heaven take in the execution of this important work. You have a case at this bar.

Sunday Evening—"Daniel Eleven."

In this chapter is brought to view the final overthrow of the Turkish Empire and what it means to the world.

You cannot well afford to miss hearing one of these subjects. Song service at 7:30, preaching 7:45.
