SEAT SALE FOR WALKER WHITESIDE STARTS SATURDAY

The sale of seats begins tomorrow at 12 o'clock for the Walker Whiteside engagement which will be played at the Page theatre on Monday night, January 26th, at which time Robert Louis Stevenson's thrilling comedy-drama, "The Master of Ballantrae," will be acted.

An attractive scale of prices has been arranged by Manager Hunt, and seats maye be obtained at prices which range from $2.00 to fifty cents. When it is remembered that the company which is headed by Mr. Whiteside is the very cream of the theatrical profession, it may be seen that a distinctly metropolitan event is assured.

"The Master of Ballantrae" is most lavishly staged, costumed and lighted. A special switchboard is carried by Mr. Whiteside, and all of the intricate effects are under the control of Mr. Frank Fox who is responsible for the various effects. The play opens during a terrific storm, and the play of forked lightning, and the rumble of thunder is most convincing in its naturalness. During the progress of the plot, the fire light floods the huge old baronial hall, and concealed spot lights illumine the quaint old room; when the snow begins to fall, steel blue gelatine mediums color the falling flakes, and the final curtain descends upon a picture which glows with hues, impossible to reproduce without the complicated devices employed by Mr. Whiteside's able assistants.

The Screen

Robert Warwick at Liberty

For thirty years a "best seller" in novel form, "Told in the Hills," has been adapted for the screen, with Major Robert Warwick in the leading role. It is on view at the Liberty theatre today and tomorrow. Ann Little, Eileen Percy, Wanda Hawley, Charles Ogle, Tom Forman and Monte Blue are included in a distinguished supporting cast. It is a thrilling story of the west of 1890 and well worth seeing.

Country Cousin at Rialto

The picturized version of "The Country Cousin," adapted from the famous stage play by Booth Tarkington and Julian Street, is a thoroly entertaining photoplay, as can be attested to by any of those who have seen it at the Rialto theatre, where it is the feature attraction the remainder of this week. Elaine Hammerstein is the star, and to her natural charm and capable work is due much of the appeal of this Selznick picture.

She is seen as Nancy Price, a capable young American girl who manages a farm. Nancy's wholesome simplicity is accepted as personified on the screen by Miss Hammerstein, and that appeal is heightened when the country girl becomes the pivot around which turn the working of a group of "fashionable" near relatives and their friends. Nancy is instrumental in opening the eyes of her young-girl cousin after the latter inherits a fortune and takes up life in a handsome villa. A charming love story runs thru the plot.

Corn Bullish Again

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—Bullish sentiment revived in the corn market today helped by gossip that the stoppage of eastbound grain shipments would last for only a short time. Opening prices, which varied from the same as yesterday's finish to ⅜c higher, with May $1.33¼ to $1.34¼ and July $1.31⅜ to $1.31½, were followed by moderate upturns all around.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She mixed Sulphur with it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
