EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett.

Saturday night there was a general dance here and I understand that there was a very good attendance. As a matter of course there was a goodly number of young folks at the Sunnyside for supper, beds and breakfast, among whom were Fred Middelbush and Miss Edna Houston, Henry Trusty and Miss Edna Middelbush, all of Trail; Wallace Bergman and Miss Vida Bradshaw of Welles; H. Bruggeman, a traveling salesman, Frank Rhodes, our county surveyor, and F. B. Rayborn of Medford, besides quite a number of our young people who came in after the dance and took beds and did not get up until after I had gone to Sunday school.

We had a very interesting session of Sunday school, we have some new members coming in and some old ones returned who had dropped out during the cold weather. After Sunday school Rev. Joseph Travoto preached for us, taking for his text "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" presenting some fine thoughts. He will preach for us next Sunday, Jan. 25, at 7:30 p. m.

There were two carloads of people came out from Medford Sunday for dinner, among them were Helen Stillman, H. B. Stillman, Mrs. H. B. Stillman, and Howard Stillman and J. W. Wakefield and family, all of Medford. Mr. Wakefield is agent for the Continental Insurance company. We also had Henry Trusty and Miss Edna Middelbush, Fred Middelbush and Miss Edna Houston here for dinner. Also Rob Harsh and wife and Ernest Albert of Butte Falls. Later in the day Miss Marie Myers who is teaching in the Reese creek school district and Miss Josephine Koppes who is teaching in the Delaney Gap district and Miss Minter and her brother, Marshall Minter, Mr. Minter came with a buggy to take the two teachers, Miss Koppes to Jasper Hannah's where she is boarding, and Miss Myers to W. E. Hammel's, her boarding place, and Miss Minter went to Medford, with an auto driver.

Rev. Richard Welke, one of the men who has been holding evangelistic services here for the past month and went to Phoenix last Saturday, returned Monday to gather up some of their belongings they left and to attend to some other matters. In my last letter I stated that they had gone to Trail to conduct services, but I had misunderstood him and he told me on Monday that they had not decided just where they would go but would try to find some place where they could go and try to do some good. They seem to be very devoted and earnest in their efforts to help bring people to a knowledge of sins forgiven. While here they lived in rented, furnished rooms and seemed to pay their own expenses.

A. C. Spence, the Lake creek road supervisor of Brownboro, was a business caller Monday morning and so was P. W. Haley.

In my last letter I spoke of there being two different elections Saturday, and Monday learned the result. The first election, the one to vote on the bonding of the district for money to build the ditch to bring water from Big Butte creek into this valley resulted in carrying for the bonds 28 for and 8 against. There was but very little opposition to the bonds and that was confined almost entirely to one family and relations, and those who have been keeping tabs on the question as to who was in favor and those who were opposed report that there were quite a number who were in favor of bonding who were unable to be at the polls to vote. The other election was simply the annual election of the Eagle Point Ditch company to elect officers for the ensuing year and to levy an assessment to enlarge the present ditch, as it is too small to carry the amount of water needed on the land under the ditch. The election resulted in re-electing the old officers,

J. H. Cooley of Medford, president, and Wm. Perry as ditch superintendent. John Isell of Butte Falls, who had just returned from a trip to Portland came in Monday evening on the Harsh-Honey and Tuesday evening J. W. Herrian of the Butte Falls fish hatchery, and Mr. and Mrs. Austin, one of the Butte Falls merchants, came out and took supper and after supper they all went on to Butte Falls. George W. Sanders, the foreman on the experimental orchard was here for dinner Monday. He was trying to find some one to help him repair his telephone line.

Other business callers Monday were Mr. Radloff, Wm. Smith and wife of Medford, who were on their way up the country to visit relatives, Gus Nichols and wife of Lake creek, Roy, Ralph and Thomas Stanley. During the time that Mrs. Roy Stanley is up in the Williams valley visiting the Stanley mothers, have acquired the habit of dropping in at the Sunnyside, sometimes for supper and sometimes for breakfast or dinner, and they came so thick and fast that I have left their names out of my little book and count them as regular boarders.

Mr. Vernon of Trail, came in Monday afternoon to have his horses shod and reported that some one had borrowed his doubletree, neckyoke and other appendages off of his wagon while it was standing under a shed and had neglected to bring them returned. Some people are so forgetful!

Martin L. Hurst was here representing a Portland firm selling the Portable drag saw. He spent the night here and took passage on the 7:30 stage for Medford Tuesday morning.

W. A. Edvinston, representing the American Tobacco company, of Medford, was here for dinner Tuesday, and so was E. M. Lewis and A. S. Bliton.

E. V. Britton of the P. S. Anderson dairy farm, came in Tuesday and was having our blacksmith and auto repairer work on his auto.

Mrs. F. Trefine of Butte Falls, came out Tuesday and went on to Medford.

W. B. Nowstrom, wife and mother, Mrs. A. C. Nowstrom, formerly of Lake creek but now of Grants Pass, and Mrs. Stedman, a sister of Mrs. A. C. Nowstrom, passed thru here Tuesday on their way up to their old home.

L. W. Smith of Idaho, came out from Medford Tuesday and went up to Lake creek on the Lake creek stage. He is here visiting his daughter, Mrs. Stablefield.

W. B. Harris was able to return to his home Wednesday evening after four weeks in the Dow hospital. Mr. Harris is improving rapidly but is, as yet, far from well.

Rev. Nichols recently sold his iron grey team to Mr. Smith of Toke, and has purchased an exceptionally fine young team of Belgians.

Our new road supervisor, with a crew of men and teams, is hauling material and graveling the road along the pine grove.

Last Friday evening the Crossing ranch was the scene of a pleasant dinner party. Those present, besides the family, were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson and daughters.
