The Screen

ELSIE FERGUSON AT LIBERTY TWO DAYS, STARS TOMORROW

What we have said on numerous occasions we do not hesitate to repeat, for reiteration of a truism never does harm—Elsie Ferguson's popularity is due not only to universal recognition of her talents, but to her beauty and winsomeness as a woman. For years prior to her appearance in motion pictures she had been one of the most commanding figures on the legitimate stage, in which field she scored numerous dramatic and personal triumphs. Her personality has drawn to her an immense clientele of theater goers, who, since her desertion of the legitimate stage, have followed her advancement as a screen player in each succeeding photoplay with ever increasing delight. Miss Ferguson has a charming role in "The Witness for the Defense," a dramatization of A. E. W. Mason's dramatic play and novel of the same name, which secured so emphatic a literary success several years ago. In this photoplay Miss Ferguson has the role of a young woman who sacrifices her love to aid her invalid father and who leads a stormy, miserable life until a tragedy of which she is the central figure insures her release and ultimately brings her happiness. The role is dramatic and admirably suited to Miss Ferguson's abilities, and her army of admirers will hail her portrayal in this stirring photoplay as one entitled to their warmest commendation.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Pete Thurman of Elk creek, came in on the Persist stage Saturday and spent the night at the Sunnyside taking passage on the Sunday morning stage for Medford.

Sunday was one of those quiet balmy days such as we often have in the latter part of January and during February that reminds one of an April morning and makes us almost forget that a short time ago we were shivering with the unusually cold snap that visited our southern Oregon country, and made us feel thankful that our lot has fallen to us in such a lovely climate.

We had our usual Sunday school exercises Sunday morning and at the close of the school our janitor, Heath Childreth, tendered his resignation and now it devolves on us as a Sunday school, to secure the services of another. We regret very much that Master Heath decided to resign as he has been rendering good service and has given general satisfaction. We had no preaching services at 11 o'clock a. m. but Mr. Trovato preached for us at night and had what might be called a fair sized congregation, but not near so large as it ought to have been. He gave us a very good discourse on the history of Jacob, from the time he cheated Esau, his brother out of his birthright up to the time of his seeing the vision of "The ladder that reached into the heavens."

There were but few came in for dinner Sunday also in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jerome of Medford called for dinner and so did Lawrence Lay of Welles. Mr. Jerome is interested with the Standard Oil company of Medford. G. E. Pierson and wife who are now located on the Charley Terrill farm near Brownboro, also took supper with us.

Frank Rhodes, our county surveyor was here Sunday night and Monday he and Wig Jack were surveying out a ditch running from the main ditch that is taken out of Little Rette creek just above the Pelouze place, to water the tract of land he purchased from F. M. Stewart, and Wm. G. Knighton, known as the Grover tract.

Sam Courtney was a business caller also Monday and took dinner at the Sunnyside.

F. G. Thomson, one of the firm of Thomson Brothers of Lake Creek, came out on the Lake Creek stage Monday and went on out to Medford that afternoon. J. E. Johnson also came in and went to Medford Monday.

Wm. Smith and wife who own a small farm on the Medford-Central Point road, came out Monday and went on up to Salt creek, Lake Creek post office, to visit Mrs. Smith's daughter, Mrs. Gus Nichols, returning Tuesday and taking with them their granddaughter Muriel Smith. Miss Muriel has been attending school here during the school term but her grandmother took her home so that she will be greatly missed from our school for she was one of the brightest pupils in our school.

Mrs. Charles Nichols and two of her sons, Otto and Carl Nichols, were doing business with our merchants Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornbrue were transacting business with George Brown and Sons Tuesday. Mr. Thornbrue is the foreman on the Pelouze farm.

R. A. Petty was also a business caller Tuesday.

Ira Tungate of Butte Falls, came in Monday night, took supper, went to Medford to attend the Page theater, came back and the next morning went on up home.

Ed Frey of Lake creek, and Miss Haynes of Ashland, came out from Medford Tuesday morning and took passage on the Lake Creek stage for Mr. Frey's home.

Wm. Perry and wife went to Medford Monday on business remaining over night, and while there attended the Page to see and hear the performance.

S. R. Snapp of San Francisco, representing Royal Baking Powder Co., was here for dinner Tuesday.

I see that our new garage men, McDonald and Holmes, are getting their garage fixed up in good shape as they bought out a garage firm in Central Point and are moving the tools and machinery out here. They are also putting in a new gasoline pumping plant and a lathe, drill and other machinery. They are expecting to do considerable business the coming season.

Mrs. H. L. Vandenburg of Butte Falls, came out Tuesday and went on to Medford on the stage.

P. W. Haley, one of our rustling farmers, was in town Tuesday having our blacksmith make him a hoe of a peculiar make, to cut the rushes and tough grass out of his ditches. He stood right by Mr. Childreth all the time he was making it and was constantly borrowing trouble for fear he would not make it just right, but when it was completed pronounced it O. K.

Sam Coy, another one of our rustling farmers who bought his farm on the installment plan and is making good, was in town Tuesday.

Hamilton Watkins and wife were also in town Tuesday. Mrs. Watkins is taking subscriptions for the Oregon Journal.

The Dodge brothers are starting to drill a well for Mr. McDonald, the man who bought the Hensley place in the lower end of town.

Miss Humphrey of Derby came out this Wednesday morning and went to her home on the stage, and Miss Veve Loun of Lake creek also came out at the same time and went up home on the stage.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Teat at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system. Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

the Lake Creek stage. She is attending the Medford high school and was thru with her examinations for the week, was excused and has gone home to spend the week end with her parents.

F. G. Thomson of Lake creek, came out this morning on the stage and went up home.

Frank Rhodes and John Grieves, the old reliable road builder, spent the night at the Sunnyside last night and Mr. Rhodes started for Derby and Mr. Grieves for Prospect.

There were two strangers came in last night and called for beds, stating that they wished to start early on their journey this morning.

I see in my letter published Tuesday the 27th, that there is a big mistake made either by myself or the typesetter. In speaking of George Stowell's henry and of his sending off for his young hens I am made to say that he sent an order for three thousand pullets when I intended to say three hundred. While Mr. Stowell is keeping quite a lot of hens he is not going quite that strong into the business. The mistake was possibly made by my using numerals instead of letters to express the number and it is very easy to add an extra cipher, making a difference of twenty-seven hundred in the statement.

John Rader who owns and operates one of the best farms in this section and is also one of our leading stock men was in town Tuesday to have his plow sharpened and to attend to other business matters.

In spite of the high prices, for dishes Roy Ashpole, one of our hardware merchants and the only one in town who handles dishes, has had a fine lot of cups and saucers placed on his shelves.

Rev. Trovato will preach next Sunday, Feb. 1, at 11 o'clock a. m.

He Feels Like a New Man Rheumatic pains, backache, pains in sides, sore muscles, stiff joints or an "always tired" feeling are usually symptoms of disordered kidneys. W. W. Wells, Toquim, Mich., writes: "I am on my feet most of the time and get tired. But after taking Foley Kidney Pills I feel like a new man. I recommend them to my customers and have never heard of any case where they did not give satisfaction." Prompt in action to relieve kidney troubles and bladder ailments. For sale by Medford Pharmacy.
