The Dad's of the vicinity now outnumber the Colonels and Judges by a majority of 162.

The proposal to send missionaries to Mexico has fizzled out. In the first place it is too close to home, and in the second place it requires no pleasant ocean voyage to get there.

Efforts of the administration to uproot the democratic postmaster of Portland from a tall hold on a fat federal plum has resulted in that dignitary issuing an ultimatum that he will not give up his berth. He belongs to the type of office holders who never get out till they are packed out feet first.

Scientists claim to have received messages from Mars, one of them being Marconi, inventor of the wireless. It will be remembered that when he announced this discovery, they asked what he had been drinking, as they are asking now.

The newly formed labor party will not do well in some circles, owing to the unpleasant prospects embraced in its name.

Oregon Voter Likes Hoover

Indications are multiplying that a considerable proportion of both republican and democratic voters believe Herbert Hoover to be the best qualified citizen of the United States to be elected to the presidency.

It is not impossible that Hoover may receive both the republican and democratic nominations. The politicians of neither party want him, although the politicians of the democratic party probably would be eager to take advantage of the failure of the republican convention to nominate him.

The fact that Hoover spent a large part of his boyhood and youth in Oregon will not militate against his chances in this state. But the big thing with most people is that he has demonstrated capacity to accomplish vast results—has proven himself to be the biggest figure of the war—and that so far as America is concerned, his results were based largely on faith in the patriotism of the American people and his successful use of the confidence reposed in him by the people when they made food sacrifices under his inspiration and leadership.

A FOUR YEAR SENTENCE.

OVER seven million words have been delivered in the senate on the peace treaty, and we are still at war. What a waste! But the American people are powerless to stop it from soaring to ten million.

There would have been a short campaign and the treaty would have been sustained or repudiated at the polls.

Thus at least six millions precious words would have been saved, six months of futile and exasperating political shadow boxing eliminated, and a decided political demoralization throughout the country prevented.

But under our system, no matter what the crisis, no matter how strong may be public demand for action, there is no escape from the status quo until the four-year period is over.

So strong is political inertia there is little chance of a responsible governmental system in this generation. But perhaps if results are sufficiently tragic there may be some reform in the next.

We venture to say three million words have been wasted in the senate to prove that the League of Nations if accepted would displace the American constitution.

If you are tired of this treaty wrangle and want it stopped, write or wire your senators to that effect. They aren't mind readers.

Of course this is going to be the most important presidential election in history. Can you remember one that wasn't?

It looks as though the American Legion would knock out Dempsey before Carpentier gets a chance.

THE MILLENIUM WAS PASTOR'S SUBJECT

"During the millennium the righteous will live and reign with Christ in heaven; all the wicked will be in death, and the Devil will be bound with a chain of circumstances to this world in its desolate condition."

Continuing he said in part, "The world millennium is coined from the Latin words, mille meaning one thousand and annus meaning year, thus representing a thousand year period. This period is mentioned six times in the book of Revelation. This period is bounded by two great events, the first and second resurrections. The bible teaches a resurrection of the just and of the unjust. The first resurrection ushers in the Lord Himself descended from heaven with a voice and with the trumpets of God, and the dead in Christ shall rise first, then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up to meet the Lord in the air and so shall we ever be with the Lord." 1 Thess. 4:16-18.

"Christ has promised to return again and to receive us unto himself." John 14:1-3. John in vision sees them in heaven—Rev. 19:1-16. They live and reign with him a thousand years—Rev. 20:4-6; thus we see that we are to reign with Christ in heaven instead of Him reigning with us on the earth.

"At the coming of Christ the wicked are slain—2 Thess. 2:8. Thus we see that the righteous are in heaven and the wicked are slain and Satan is bound by a chain of circumstances which he cannot break."

Today a fascinating hat of feather and net was sketched. A wide, three-fold brim shades the eyes, while at the side, projecting horizontally to almost twice the width of the brim, is a paradise feather. The crown and brim are of a skillful combination of silk and net.

by the name of Stewart and after lying in jail for a long time was finally brought to trial and if my memory serves me right was convicted of manslaughter with a recommendation to the court for leniency. The case was appealed to the supreme court and after pending in said court for a long time the sentence of the district court was sustained by a divided court. But his friends, and they seem to be numerous, are asking to have the governor give him a free pardon. I understand that there are several petitions being circulated in his behalf.

Prof. G. W. Ager, county school superintendent of Jackson county, was out Thursday visiting our schools and took dinner at the Sunnyside and so did Mr. McGuirk, the cigar manufacturer of Medford, and while here was looking after that branch of business in our town.

James Archibald of Brownsboro, passed thru our town with a fine registered bull he had purchased at the stock sale in Medford. He also had a fine boar hog that he had purchased in the same place. Mr. Archibald prides himself on keeping up-to-date in that line. He believes that it costs no more to keep a cow that will give ten or twelve quarts of milk than it does to keep a cow that will hardly raise a calf, and if our stockmen would pay more attention to the quality and less to the quantity they might find it to their advantage.

Our creamery men were a little mixed Thursday as some of them who supply the Jackson County Creamery with cream came in and found that they had phoned out that he could not come out on Thursday as their truck broke and was out of commission, but the independent creamery man was on hand and met his customers, but the other man did not reach here until Friday and got his cream and eggs just the same. While here Thursday I overheard a conversation between two of our dairy men with regard to a contest or that had come out to teach the dairy men how to tell a good cow from a poor one, and Mr. A. remarked to Mr. B that he had in his herd a large Holstein cow and Mr. G, the tester or teacher remarked that she was good for beef but good for nothing for milk or cream, whereupon Mr. A told him that she was among the best milkers he had, but said the teacher said she had such a small udder. Yes, remarked Mr. A, her udder is small but it expands and she will give over eight quarts at a milking. The teacher then thought that he would save himself on the cream-or-butterfat supply so he remarked that she was no good for butterfat, but Mr. A assured him that her milk tested from four and a half to five points or per cent. (I don't fully understand the full meaning of their terms). The teacher then started in a different direction and pointed to a large roan durham cow and this earth, Rev. 21:2. Now Satan is loosed and marshals his forces to take the city but fire comes down from God out of heaven and blots out sin and Satan, Rev. 20:7-10.

It was shown that God was a God of justice and yet a God of love. The wicked will not burn throughout eternity as many teach but will be burned into ashes as is recorded in Malachi 4:1-3. Now that the last trace of sin has been obliterated the saints can enjoy the earth made new.

The subject as announced tonight will be "The Origin, History and the Destiny of the Devil." Meeting will continue each evening this week closing next Sunday night. Song service 7:30 and preaching service at 7:45. Adv.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Al Sturgis, one of the leading citizens of Elk creek, passed thru town Wednesday and went on up to his home.

Joe Wattenhouse who is living on the Joe Rader place, and a friend were doing business with car merchants and blacksmith Wednesday evening.

John B. Martin and A. Stockford of Derby came out Wednesday afternoon and report that they were almost four hours coming from the Ayres place on the Derby road, to the Reese creek school house, a distance of about two miles, with a good team and wagon with about five hundred pounds, Mr. Martin's tool chest and a few other things. The piece of road referred to is a strip of sticky that has been a source of trouble to almost everyone who has to travel over it. I heard the mail carrier remark the same afternoon that he had been carrying the mail over the same road for the most of the time for fourteen years and he had never seen it so bad before as it was that day. And while our county authorities are spending thousands of dollars on what are comparatively good roads the people of the rural districts are left to plod thru sticky mud, and this road is along an old mail route that has been used for years to carry U. S. mail over, and yet is neglected from year to year with the promise "Well, we will try to do something next year."

G. T. Wilson of Medford, came in and spent Wednesday night at the Sunnyside on his way up to his ranch near Derby station on the P. & E. John Mayham was also a lodger at the same time with us.

C. J. Kafer of Brownsboro, was among the business giggers Thursday. Carl Bieberstadt, one of our well to do citizens, was canvassing our town Thursday morning with a petition to Governor O'Leary requesting him to use the executive clemency to keep W. E. Butler from going to the penitentiary. There is a very strong sentiment here in his favor as the mitigating circumstances seem to be greatly in his favor. Mr. Butler was indicted by the grand jury about two years ago for shooting a young man remarked that there was the best cow in the herd fully expecting that Mr. A would fulfill his statement, when to behold, he was told that that cow would make good beef but was no good for milk or butterfat. So Mr. A derived but little benefit from the professional teacher and Mr. B remarked that that was about his experience in the same line. Although there are some who have studied and partially mastered the subject, it is not everyone who goes to school and gets a smattering of the business who makes a success in that line.

R. M. Coaley and G. C. Cottrell of Rutte Falls, were here for dinner Thursday.

Ed Cowdon who is living on the old J. M. Nichols place and C. A. Hanson of Brownsboro, were also in town Thursday.

W. A. Nessler, a member of the fire department of Portland who has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Knighton of this place, left yesterday (Friday) for his home.

Mrs. R. M. Richardson of Rutte Falls, went up home Friday.

Plany Leabo, one of our old boarders who has been away for a few weeks, returned to his room Friday.

C. H. Obenhaus, of Portland, was here for dinner Friday.

Grant Mathews and wife and son-in-law, J. F., and his brother Frank Johnson were in town Friday.

There have been some changes in real estate out this way in the past few days. W. C. Daley has sold his fine farm on the north fork of Little Butte to a man by the name of Dundas and W. C. Daley has bought the George Von der Hellen place just above town. While the community in the Lake creek country are losing one of their best citizens, we as a community will be the gainers.

We hope that Mr. Dundas may prove to be equally as desirable a citizen in the Lake creek country and that he will not only prove a blessing to that neighborhood but to the surrounding country.

J. L. Robertson brought in a lot of hogs Friday to ship to Medford today, Saturday, for the Portland market.

Nick Young, our road supervisor, was here for dinner yesterday.

Mrs. Wm. Nickef of Lake creek, was here yesterday.

Messrs. Dodge and Sage, the men who are drilling wells in this neighborhood have been lodging with us for the past few nights while they were drilling a well for Mr. McDonald, and Mr. Dodge was here for dinner today while Mr. Sage was taking the drill, etc., out to John Greb's to drill a well for him.

Mr. H. Bruggeman of Lake creek, spent the night with us Friday and so did M. C. Mahoney of Rutte Falls, and was met here this morning by his daughter and Mrs. J. L. Vandenberg of Rutte Falls.

Jimmie Dugan was an early caller this morning.

FRIENDS REMARK ON BIG CHANGE IN HER CONDITION, SHE SAYS

"Since I began taking Tanlac I have gained thirteen pounds in weight and my general health has improved so much all my friends remark on how well I look," said Mrs. B. M. Lichtenberg, who resides at 1420 Forty-first St., South Seattle, Wash., recently. Continuing she said:

"For years and years I have suffered with nervousness and finally became so badly run down I was on the verge of a complete nervous breakdown. The least little excitement or noise out of the ordinary would upset me and it would be hours before I could compose myself. I could get but little sleep, and night after night I would lie awake all night long and just roll and toss from one side of the bed to the other, and would get up in the morning feeling a great deal worse than when I went to bed, and in spite of all I could do I just kept getting weaker and weaker. I was also troubled a great deal with my stomach. I had a very poor appetite, and when I did manage to force down a little something it would sour and I would bloat terribly from gas, and would have such intense pains in my stomach after each meal I could hardly stand them. I lost so much in weight, was so badly run down I just had to drag around, and it was with the greatest difficulty I managed to do my household work."

"I had read a great deal about Tanlac helping others and decided to try it, too, and I noticed an improvement in my condition almost as soon as I began taking it. At this time I took a trip east, and as Tanlac had not been put on sale at that time where I was visiting I had the druggist order me some from the manufacturer, as I did not want to miss a single dose for fear of losing the benefits I had already received from it. Well, I continued taking it and kept getting better all the time, until now I have a fine appetite and can eat anything I want without suffering any bad after effects. I am never troubled with pains or gas and the improvement in my nervous condition is simply wonderful. I have gained my strength so that my household work is simply a pleasure to me. To see me now no one would think that only a few months ago I was almost a complete nervous and physical wreck. I think Tanlac is a remarkable medicine and I tell everybody I get a chance about it."
