

Local Briefs

Because of so much illness of various kinds in the city and country the merchants of Medford report that business this week has been the lightest for a long time past.

For eye, ear, nose, throat see Dr. Helms, Liberty Bldg. Glasses fitted.

If you really want to enjoy pancakes these mornings, mix them with Colistin water. Order from Jackson County Creamery.

For sale—Buck shot gravel. Phone 912-J.

J. L. Reed, manager of the Sample store, arrived home today from Lewiston, Mont., where he had been attending the convention of managers of the chain of stores of which his establishment is a part.

For sale—Home made bread and pastry. 129 North Central.

Miss Josephine Koppes, teacher this year at the Debenker Gap and Laurel Hill schools, who was taken with an attack of appendicitis and brought to her home here Friday afternoon was conveyed to the Sacred Heart hospital last night where she was operated on today.

Get the habit! Buy shares now in the Building and Loan.

The funeral of Mrs. A. C. Malone which will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at St. Mark's church is expected to be largely attended by Ashland and Medford people, and by quite a number from Grants Pass where she resided for several years with her brother, Fred W. Williams, member of the state public service commission.

Order your Nitrate of Soda today. Farm Bureau Cooperative Exchange.

Joe Kugler of Chicago, and A. E. Meizer and Chas. Fauler of Seattle are business visitors in the city and Holland guests.

Wanted to buy clean cotton rags. Medford Printing Co.

The Albany high school basketball team which last night defeated Medford high team by the score of 29 to 14, and plays same team at the Natatorium tonight, will leave for home Sunday morning.

Try us, Apparel Cleaners and Hatters 103 N. Central, phone 223-J. 275

Mrs. Mabel Priddy of this city has returned home from her visit at Crescent City and Grants Pass.

The Medford Printing company has the De Luxe Multiplex cash books and other ruled books, loose leaf system, also inventory sheets. If you need these or any other blank books or bills to fit any binder see this office and patronize home industries.

Oregonians registered at the Medford include C. E. Morrill of Springfield, G. M. Bratton of Klamath Falls, T. H. Moore of Ontario, Harry R. Hogue of Eugene and L. V. Rex, V. J. Claussen, Arthur Bramwell, C. C. Evans, Russell B. Hecker and L. T. Hodson of Portland.

Growers may now get their lime and sulphur supply for the dormant spray at the Bardwell Fruit Co. 275.

Concerning two companies of the Third Oregon Infantry which are well known in Medford thru having been here on guard duty in the early part of the war, a Portland newspaper says: "Company C of the old Third Oregon had a platoon in Paris that was considered the best drilled unit in the American army. It is to give a public competitive drill at the Armory Wednesday night. Its opponent will be Company I. It is expected that a large audience of old and new national guard men will attend. Old Company C was commanded by Captain Creashey, now lieutenant colonel, and it is hoped to have him command the platoon. Company I will be commanded for that drill by Lieutenant Hanson, formerly commander of the crack platoon.

Mrs. Paul Hansen, corpsiere for Nubone. Phone 825-J.

Colder and fair weather in the prediction for tonight and Sunday. The absence of fog, the mildness and sun shining made today seem very spring like.

The Bardwell Fruit company has received a carload of lime and sulphur and are now prepared to make deliveries to growers.

The season for large stories is now on and the latest from this section is the following from the Grants Pass Courier: "The Portland papers a few days ago printed a news item telling of a large Willamette valley egg. Mrs. T. P. Judson comes forward with the produce of one of her Rhode Island Red hens which equals the Willamette egg. The circumference of the Rogue valley egg was 6 1/2 inches by 8 inches."

Orres, tailors for men and women. High grade only. Ashland, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Simmons of Yreka and Fred M. Foster were among this morning's arrivals at the Holland.

Children's hair ribbons, wonderful quality, at cost. The Vanity Hat Shop.

Mrs. Geo. Laidley is very sick at her home, 1212 West Second street with lumbago.

Hot tamales and chili con carne at DeVoe's.

Lieutenant E. B. Jackson and recruiting party of Camp Lewis, who have been in this city en recruiting duty the last few days and making their headquarters at the local army recruiting station, 123 East Main street, left today for Ashland and Klamath Falls where they will seek enlistments for the new democratic peace time army. They will return to this city within a week or ten days.

Just arrived. Car of famous Utah coal. Valley Fuel Co.

Guests from a distance at the Medford include B. S. Cotner of New York city, H. Hunter of Monesey, Pa., D. E. Warner and H. H. Gates of Chicago, H. Smiley of Denver, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Robinson of Lewton, Mont., and G. E. Drum of Seattle.

This office will take subscriptions for the Portland Telegram. Bargain rate of $2.95 a year by mail. Subscriptions to be sent in before February 10.

Medford and valley people who usually attend the Rose Festival at Portland will be interested to learn that the festival will be held June 24 and 25, and will last only two days instead of three as formerly.

Oh how I love you dear old Dort of mine.

Skilled workmen made you, I will never trade you, All highly grade you dear old Dort of mine.

Clark & Childers, Medford, Oregon. The condition of Mrs. Everett Trowbridge continues to be very low at the Sacred Heart hospital where she has been ill for a week or ten days. An operation will be performed on her as soon as her weakened condition permits.

Brunswick phonographs on easy terms at Hale's Piano House.

Board of chamber of commerce meeting today at 4 p. m.

Ribbons. Then more ribbons, at cost. The Vanity Shop.

H. H. Clark of Sterling, Ill., Wm. Alexander of Kent, Wash., and J. E. Abel and M. R. Rhoads of Portland are stopping at the Nash.

Rogue river sorghum at Hutchinson & Lumsden.

Misfortune attended the arrival here this week of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Callahan from Burlington, Vt., who expect to make their home in Medford. Coming over the Siskiyou Mrs. Callahan caught a severe cold and the next day after their arrival was taken from the home of T. Henry Callahan, who is Mr. Callahan's uncle to the Sacred Heart hospital threatened with pneumonia. She is now better, however. Then Mr. and Mrs. Callahan received word that their furniture was burned enroute between Chicago and Portland. Mr. Callahan spent a summer and winter in the Blue Ledge district nine years ago and ever since has longed to become a permanent resident of Oregon.

Take your hemstitching and pecking to the Handicraft Shop.

Carl Jeschke, high grade watch and clock repairing, 9 Fir street.

Richard Horn, of Portland, northwest manager of the Cleveland tractor company, is in the city on business with headquarters at the Holland.

Fine seed barley, bearded and beardless, reclaimed gray oats, vetch seed. Lee Watkins Co., 337 South Front. Phone 269.

The famous Shasta tamales on sale now. Shasta.

Messrs. Boyle, Plymouth, Gammon and Leavitt of the California-Oregon Power company left last night for Klamath Falls and vicinity. They will be busy for some time on engineering work in that territory.

For the best insurance see Holmes the Insurance Man.

Hand embroidered dresses for infants. Handicraft Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Curry and W. G. Daugherty and daughter, Miss Myrtle, were visitors here from Ashland yesterday.

CHARLES CHAPLIN AND HIS SIX CYLINDERED FLIV AT RIALTO SUN DAY

The special evangelistic campaign announced to begin on Feb. 15th in the First Methodist Episcopal church has been postponed on account of so much illness in the city. The date now set is March 14th to 25th. Plans and preparations are being made for the greatest revival ever held here in the Methodist church.

A. C. Halstead, mechanotherapy, metaphysics, 225 East Main, over Kidd's shoe store. Phone 690-M. 286

Slab wood for sale by tier or cord. Valley Fuel Co.

J. C. Stewart of Louisville, Ky., is in the city and is very desirous of finding Wm. C. Scott, formerly of Louisville.

Cakes, French pastry and cream puffs at the Shasta.

Try our merchants' lunch. The Shasta.

The American Legion post of Grants Pass announces that it will give another big boxing entertainment in that city on February 24, to which a large contingent of enthusiasts from Medford is expected to attend. The following is the card: Roy Cedarstrom of Roseburg vs. Jimmie Gray of Portland, 10 rounds, at 155 pounds; Kid Rogers of Eugene vs. Bud Stevens of Portland, 8 rounds, at 125 pounds; and Red Richardson of Grants Pass vs. Roy Pruitt, a newcomer to Medford, at 125 pounds, 4 rounds.

Painting, tinting and decorating, orders promptly attended to. Phone 664. Elliott & McCafferty.

Tickets for the Andrews-Scutti concert, Tues. eve., Feb. 10 at Palmer's Music Store.

Among the San Francisco men visiting in the city are Karl H. Kraft, A. A. Goble and Chas. H. McCready. Another Californian here is R. Randolph of Los Angeles.

Pure home-made sorghum at Hutchinson & Lumsden.

All makes of sewing machine needles. Handicraft Shop.

A big dance will be held at the natatorium this evening. The music will be in charge of Herb Alford and his new Imperial orchestra, piano, banjo, saxophone, marimbaphone, drums and traps, Moonlight waltzes and fox-trots will occur at intervals. Dancing will be free till 9:30 p. m. and no admission will be charged at the door.

See D. R. Wood & Co., No. 7 West Eleventh, for fire insurance.

See the Farm Bureau about mill run, $49.00 per ton, $2.00 per sack.

A. L. Edgerton, wife and daughter, J. B. Paddock and wife of Grants Pass, spent Saturday in Medford. Mr. Edgerton is planning to build a theatre for George Hunt in Grants Pass.

A real dance! Tonight! Medford Nat! Imperial orchestra. Admission free!

Why trust a tramp repair man? We will repair your old machine and guarantee the job. "Singer" Shop, 115 West Main street. Phone 215-R.

Fred Gay of Gold Hill, was a visitor in Medford Saturday.

Houston's home-made sorghum for sale. Hutchinson & Lumsden.

Painting, tinting and paperhanging. Phone 690-X.

Yesterday afternoon the grammar school basketball team of this city, which is being coached by Mr. King, physical director in the public schools defeated the high school team of Jacksonville 28 to 3. The contest showed up some good future material for the high school. Campbell, forward, Hughes, center, and Baughman guard, were the stars for the grammar school, while Thomsan, center, was the score gainer for Jacksonville.

Arloine Andrews-Scutti in concert. Pres. church, Tues. eve., Feb. 10th.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Seventh Day Adventist Church. Sunday night—Subject—"Heavenly Railroad." Closing service. You are invited.

Old Age and Glasses. The gradual decrease of ocular power which accompanies age should not be considered contrary to nature any more than it is for the hair to turn gray, the teeth to become defective or the muscles to weaken.

Talent Man Drops Dead. John Nywander of Talent, while in the pool hall of that town operated by his son, Riley, dropped dead this noon presumably of heart disease. It is understood he is survived by a wife and six children. He was the father of Mrs. Ralph Koozer.

Notice of Removal. The Union Livery, Feed & Sales Stables formerly located at Dr. Helms barn, 111 North Fir street, is now located at the old Vincent barn, North Riverside and will be known as the Union Livery, Feed & Sales Stables, the only feed stable in Medford.

Dr. Rickert OPTOMETRIST. Duvel Bldg. Medford, Oregon.

Ribbons AND Maline. Wonderful selection at cost. Watch our Window. The Vanity Shop. Next Rialto Theater. For Spring Canyon Utah Coal AND Dry Wood. PHONE 242 WISEMAN & SCHEFFEL 631 S. Front St.

Spray Now With Lime and Sulphur. Guy W. Conner Warehouse.

DANCE. ASHLAND NATATORIUM. FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6. LAUNSPACH'S ORCHESTRA. Piano, Accordion, Trombone, Drums. Admission Free.

First Methodist Episcopal Church. Fourth and Bartlett. "A Church with a vision and program of Community Service." "A Church of Good Music." 11 a. m. "The Way Transcendent" 7:30 p. m. "A Fool's Philosophy of Life" A true philosophy of life is the secret of happiness. The discussion of the evening will bring out some of the errors of an eminent fool's principles of living. Both Messages. REV. J. RANDOLPH SASNETT.

MAGAZINES. We have received notice that many of the popular magazines will raise subscription prices during February, March and April. A few of the raises are as follows: American, Now $2.00, New price $2.50; Cosmopolitan, 2.00, 3.00; Everybodies, 2.00, 2.50; Good Housekeeping, 2.00, 3.00; Harper's Bazaar, 4.00, 6.00; Hearst's, 2.00, 3.00; House and Garden, 3.00, 3.50. House and Garden during February, two years for $4.00. Hand us your subscriptions now as many changes will be made February 15th and 20th. Medford Book Store.

THE "WONDERFUL" SPONGE RUBBER PAD TRUSS. This truss certainly will perform wonders in the way of holding rupture, and at the same time wearers say "Hardly know I have a truss on." It is very light, fits perfectly, and holds all the time. (Sponge Rubber Pads Cannot Slip.) Heath's Drug Store. The San Tox Store.

They're Coming Back A REAL DANCE. With McCormick's Jazzensation Orchestra of Portland, Oregon. On their 12 months tour of the United States at the Nat. ASHLAND, TUESDAY, FEB. 10. MEDFORD, WEDNESDAY, FEB. 11. DANCING FREE FROM 8 TO 9 P. M.

BASKETBALL TONIGHT. Albany vs. Medford. NAT. 7:30 SHARP. "Rip 'Em Up, Medford!" Tickets at Crowson's and Shasta.

OBITUARY

ELLIOTT—Died at the Sacred Heart hospital, Friday, Feb. 6th, 1920, Mrs. Nellie L. Elliott, after an illness of ten days of pneumonia. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, H. V. Elliott and four year old daughter, her father, Decker Lewis, and mother, Mrs. Augusta Lewis, two sisters and one brother. The remains are to be shipped to Roseburg, Sunday morning, Feb. 8th. Interment in Cole's Valley cemetery.

Ella Florence William-Malone was born in Harrison county, Iowa, Feb. 7, 1883, and after finishing the high school graduated from the Iowa state normal, taught school for a number of years and was married to C. A. Malone, Oct. 27, 1910. She died at Medford, Oregon, Feb. 4, 1920. She was the daughter of Mr.

WEEKS & MCGOWAN CO. UNDERTAKERS. Day Phone: Pacific 227. Night Phone: F. W. Weeks, 103-J. Lady Assistants.