Medford relatives and friends of local U. of O. students are much interested in the flu epidemic at Eugene because of which that city was closed Monday by the board of health. The flu preventive regulations closing the schools, theatres, churches and prohibiting public or social gatherings are being so rigidly observed that the basket ball games between the U. of O. and Stanford university teams are to be played behind locked doors, the regular meetings of the Elks and all other lodges have been called off, only 15 people were allowed in the room at the city council meeting last night, Company C could not meet and drill, and all billiard and card rooms are closed until further notice.

For sale—Buck shot gravel. Phone 912-J.

At the Medford are registered Otis Knight and C. W. Little of El Paso, Tex., Con Danielson of St. Louis and William A. Dines of Calgary, Can.

Letters have just been received in the city conveying the glad news to his many friends that W. T. Quisenberry expects to be back in Medford from Wichita, Tex., by March 1st, to remain here permanently. He had been in Wichita for the past few months managing the department store of his brother, who recently sold out the store and bought another one in Kansas City. "Quiz" has decided not to go with his brother to Kansas City, as he found out during his short absence that for him Medford was the only place to live. He will probably go into business here. His family is still in Medford, never having gone to Wichita as was first contemplated.

Grip, Influenza
Hamil's Wizard Oil a Reliable, Antiseptic Preventive
During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and snuff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against "Flu" germs.
Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza.
Get it from druggists for 30c. If not satisfied, return the bottle and get your money back.
Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30c at druggists. Guaranteed.

L. Myron Boozer of the First Presbyterian church of this city leaves for Portland this evening to attend the meeting of the synodical home mission committee to be held Thursday and Friday for the purpose of determining the home mission policies and activities of the Presbyterian church in the state during the next twelve months. Mr. Boozer is chairman for the denomination for all of southern Oregon. Progress has been splendid during the past year and by April first there will scarcely be a Presbyterian church in southern Oregon that has a debt. All churches are served with ministers and the home mission churches are paying the largest salaries in their history.

Salisbury Field and Margaret Mayo's funniest of all funny plays will be the attraction at the Page theatre on Monday night, March 1st. Laughter is said to never leave off in "Twin Beds." It is a riot almost all the time, a tornado of harum-scarum fun. "Twin Beds" concerns itself with the harrowing experience of three couples who live in a large fashionable apartment house, and thru the friendliness of one of their number, suddenly find that, try as they may they cannot escape each other. In the scramble for peace and privacy, both of which recede steadily as the plot unfolds, the characters are intensely amusing. The cast and production seen here is the one especially organized for a Pacific coast tour of the prominent cities.

DAILY ROBBERY IN PORTLAND, THRILLER

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 25.—Police investigation was in progress today of the case of J. D. Bobroff, a resident of an East Side suburb, who was found by a neighbor at an early hour, bound in his home, which had been set on fire by means of a pile of rubbish lighted in one of the rooms. Bobroff told the officers that three masked and armed men had entered the house when he was alone, robbed him of $15 cash, compelled him to sign a check for $300 with the name of the payee left blank, tied him to his bed and left him after setting the house on fire. The fire only smoldered and Bobroff's shouts attracted the attention of a late home-comer who released him.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Feb. 25.—That the Oregon Growers' association will build a prune packing and processing plant here, work on the structure to start immediately, was the statement made by J. O. Holt of Eugene, manager of the association, who is here.

The association also is planning processing plants for Riddle and Myrtle Creek, both places being centers of large areas of prune orchards. The processing plant here will be erected on company holdings along the Southern Pacific track.
