EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett.

Thomas Harris of Lake Creek was among the callers Wednesday afternoon.

The Misses Sadie and Ethel Anderson of Medford, in company with A. Y. Florey, Jr., came out from Medford Wednesday evening and took supper at the Sunnyside.

Jack O'Conner, wife and two boys of Phoenix, came out Wednesday evening on business, remaining until bed time with Mrs. Howlett, Mr. O'Conner having business with one of the mail contractors in this section.

Mr. J. H. Heemer of Brownsboro came on the Eagle Point-Lake Creek stage Thursday, bringing with him two large coyote skins, taking them to Medford to sell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Robertson, Rubie Johnson, Alex Mathews, who live out north of our town and Mrs. Ed Tucker and daughter of Brownsboro, were dealing with our merchants here Thursday.

Ray Harnish came very near being seriously hurt Thursday. He was riding a horse that he had just broke to the saddle, which became unmanageable, and in attempting to make him stop as he wanted him to be reared up, falling over backward and Mr. Harnish's foot being in the stirrup, so that he could not free himself from the saddle, the result was the horse fell on his leg, but fortunately there was no serious damage done.

Mort Daley of Medford and Frank Bagley, one of the U. S. timber inspectors, spent Thursday night at the Sunnyside.

Mr. and Mrs. William Beale of Butte Falls were here Friday morning and Mrs. Beale went up home on the stage, but William remained here. He has had a paralytic stroke but is so that he can walk by using one crutch.

Jack O'Conner of Phoenix came out Friday morning on his way to Butte Falls, but on arriving here found a telephone call to return to Medford on urgent business, so he called a taxi and went back to Medford.

R. L. Walton, representative of the Ajax Rubber Co., Inc., of New York, was here for dinner Friday and so was James Owens our county commissioner, D. A. Houston, an internal revenue officer, hunting up the poor fellows who have an income of $1000 or more to relieve them of part of it. He remained here until today, going to Grants Pass this afternoon.

A. A. Betts, Arthur J. Muzz of Portland; G. L. Buckner of Medford, Charles Terrill, sheriff and deputy and two strangers came in late for dinner while I was out hunting Eaglets so I didn't see them.

Geo. Stowell and little step son came in this morning and the little boy went out in the country on the jitney.

Carl Hays, our new road superintendent and Bob Harnish were driving the roads this morning, but now the rain has come at last, and will put a stop to road work, we all hope, for awhile.

The rain is about the most welcome visitor we could have and we hope that enough will come this time to start vegetation for the long drought has seemingly damaged the growing crops and kept back the grass so that the stockmen have had to feed longer than usual.

J. F. McCabe, F. J. Ayres, Ed Spencer, from Fort Klamath, were business callers today.

Mrs. E. J. Murphy, daughter Thelma, and Mrs. Murphy's sister, Miss Ethel Holmen of Weller, J. F. Garner formerly of Brownsboro, but now of Medford, Mrs. Earnest Peachey, wife of one of the forest rangers and Wm. A. Hansen of Portland, representing Failing-McColman Hardware Co., Portland, were here for dinner today.

Walter Wood and wife were in town on their way to Medford today.

Charles Klimble of Lake Creek was also a business caller Friday.

CENTRAL POINT

James E. Grieve, the popular proprietor of the Prospect summer hotel, and Mrs. Grieve and their son, Hestlin, who were guests during the week of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tex, left for their mountain home Wednesday morning.

Landlord F. C. Schrod of the Central Point hotel, who has been looking after business interests in California for the past two months, has returned, and again monthly greets all transients at his place of business.

A. W. Moon and family of Bray, Cal., were Central Point visitors during the week, en route to Grants Pass. The visitors formerly resided here and have many friends in the city.

Miss Hazel Tetherow, who has been ill at her home here for the past several days, is much improved at this writing and will soon be able to resume her work at the county court house and be among her many friends again.

Miss Pearl Gill of Seattle, Wash., has joined her parents here and has accepted a position as stenographer in Paul's Electric Store in Medford.

The many friends of Mrs. Jesse Richardson, who have been much alarmed over her serious illness, will be glad to know that her condition is improved and that strong hopes are now held for her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Grim are the proud parents of a fine baby daughter, who justly made her appearance at the home of Postmaster Guy Tex and Mrs. Tex for a few days this week. The gentlemen were en route to Sacramento and other California cities with a view to locating in a business way. Mrs. Stizler (nee Faye Pankey) and Mrs. Ross didn't accompany their husbands, but will follow later, as soon as a location is found.

Ray Acer of Hepper, Ore., was greeting his many friends here Saturday. Central Point was once the home of Mr. Acer and his family and it is always glad to welcome them back here. Mr. Acer formerly was engaged in business in the center city.

Mrs. McAllister, (nee Clara Grim) and infant daughter, of Grants Pass are visiting Central Point relatives this week.

Many Central Point people have been attending regularly the Evangelistic meetings held at the Baptist church in Medford and have been greatly interested and benefitted by the wonderful messages presented by the able Evangelist, Dr. Reid.

The health conditions in Central Point at this time are very good. There has been, in the past few days, a number of people suffering from severe colds, but those people have recovered, so far as to be attending to their work again. A number of people have had the flu, though in most cases in a very mild form, and they are all recovering now. Central Point has been very fortunate. It was never nearly so hard hit with disease as some of the surrounding communities and it has not been necessary to close the schools, as the attendance at all times has been good. Upon investigation at this time, very little sickness is found here.

Beginning March 7, Reverend Koehler of Ashland will be at the Union church here each evening and will assist the pastor, Reverend Edgar, in holding a series of meetings. There will be good music and fine sermons and every one is urged and earnestly requested to attend these meetings. It is hoped that a full house greets these earnest people each evening of the series and that great good will be accomplished by every one doing his bit.

NEW YORK, Mar. 2—A delegation of Italian bankers on a mission to the United States in connection with proposed loans to Italy arrived here today on the British steamship Imperator from Liverpool.

NORDWICK BUYS NURMI BUILDING

H. O. Nordwick and sons have purchased the Nurmi building on South Front street and are rearranging it for autos, tires and auto supplies. Nordwick and sons will put in a stock of Brunswick and Kelly-Springfield tires and auto accessories.

J. F. Hittson will have his sales room for Tetular, Velle and Allen cars in the middle room and J. G. Hoffman will occupy the south room with Exide batteries, and auto electrical supplies.

This adds three new firms to the auto, tire and accessory lines in Medford.

MANY YEARS OF TROUBLE ENDED

When we received the following letter from Mrs. C. J. Hurd of Witter Springs, California, we were rather skeptical as to the statement it contained so we had one of our men make a personal call on Mrs. Hurd and he verified every statement. The letter follows:

"For twenty-five years I suffered with rheumatism, I was never out of pain and my limbs were so swollen I seemed deformed. Could only stand on my feet for a few minutes at the time and was almost a hopeless cripple. I had given up all hope and life held no pleasure for me. During all these years I tried many remedies, spent months at the hot springs and was treated by physicians, but temporary relief was all that I received. I had little faith in Anti-Uric at first, your claims were so mild and I seemed to get worse after using the first outfit. But I continued and the results were wonderful, the swelling in my limbs disappeared, the pains ceased and I could walk without a cane. Even stormy weather and exposure do not affect me in the least. It has been over a year since I stopped using Anti-Uric and I have had no trouble whatever. My weight had increased from 84 to 170 pounds, I eat whatever I please and am as active as a girl in her teens. I owe all my health and happiness to Anti-Uric and do hope that those suffering with rheumatism will not neglect this wonderful remedy, for I know it cures."

This letter should prove to the skeptical that Anti-Uric is the master of rheumatism in all its forms. No matter how long you have suffered try Anti-Uric and it will do no give relief your money will be refunded. This certainly is a fair offer and shows we have faith in our remedy.

Get an outfit of Anti-Uric today from Heath's Drug Store and give it a trial. It will not disappoint you.
