Ye Smudge Pot

Spring is here. One knows it because young men buy a spring hat, peek it over one ear, and endeavor to be the leading actor in an auto wreck at Main street and Cent. Boulevard. It is not safe to promise.

Charging Attorney General Palmer with connivance in the sugar price fixing scandal, knows that distinguished citizen's presidential aspirations three feet farther than Jack Dempsey's pugilistic ambitions. If the accusations against the Cabinet member are true the public has been hit in the head with a tenebrous maul.

By praying for a continuation of the present weather conditions, those who want rain will get it in such quantities as to cause the religious hysterical to predict another flood like the first one. Prayers, like dreams, go the other way.

Admiral Kolehak, the anti-Red leader who was killed twice in one day a month ago, has recovered and last Tuesday defeated the Bolsheviks, thus getting revenge for being killed.

The guy who stole $5,000,000 has been located by the New York police, through a woman. She is a Broadway beauty, and beauty cannot keep its mouth shut.

Hiram Johnson says he has "no chance" to be president, which is exactly the number of chances he started with.

PERSONAL—To D. L. C. Yreka, Cal.—Thanks. Name of guy does not sound as bad as it looks.

What has become of the old-fashioned sign—"Fresh Paint! Don't Touch!" that used to hang in front of business houses this time of the year.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRE

A party "to comprise all men and women who do not approve of the present form of government" has been organized by German royalists, according to a Berlin dispatch.

Bolivia's reply to the recent Peruvian note concerning the Africa question, reaffirms that "Bolivia must have an outlet to the sea," according to a dispatch from Santiago, Chile.

A joint resolution introduced by the conservative and national liberal parties demands the dissolution of the German national assembly on May 1.

Frederick Franklin, concert master of the Boston symphony orchestra, was dismissed last night following his failure to stand in acknowledgment of applause after the playing of a symphony.

The declaration regarding the economic situation of Europe which the allied supreme council has pronounced to make, has neither been signed nor approved by France, it was declared in Paris yesterday.

Bestful Results for Men Only a person who has experienced that awful "all night" cough that sometimes follows influenza can appreciate what a good night's sleep can be. Mrs. Annie Davidson, 2058 Myrtle St., Long Beach, Cal., writes: "The result of using Foley's Honey and Tar was a restful one for me. Foley's Honey and Tar checks harsh, racking coughs; eases whooping breathing; stops tickling in throat; cures raw, irritated surfaces with a soothing, healing feeling. For sale by Medford Pharmacy."

THE 11TH COMMANDMENT.

A FEW DAYS ago the Oregonian printed an editorial of a column and a half explaining that it is not wicked to belong to a political party. This is a government of parties, ever has been, always will be, and the Oregonian confessed to a certain impatience with the growing spirit of revolt toward a time-honored American tradition.

Of course, there is nothing wicked in belonging to a political party, but at the present moment it is almost difficult. For parties don't make principles, principles make parties, and today there is no great principle upon which the two old parties are divided.

Take the treaty and league of nations, for example. If the Republican party follows Borah, Johnson, et al, thousands of republicans will be democrats; if the Democratic party follows Senator Reed or the President's dictation, thousands of Democrats will be republicans.

Then there is the prohibition question. Here is another great principle. But the parties are hopelessly divided again. Governor Lowden of Illinois, for example, a republican, agrees with William Jennings Bryan, a Democrat, while Governor Edwards of New Jersey, a Democrat, agrees with Senator Wadsworth of New York, a republican. Both parties will be forced to take a stand on this question, but no one knows whether the dries or damp will control at the party convention.

CAN IT BE?

WE FIND the following references to President Wilson in the last issue of Harvey's Weekly:

"Any American regardless of politics, would unhesitatingly support the President against any offensive slighting or discourteous treatment by any foreign power."

Referring to a statement of the President, "These were true and noble words."

"Is it either proper or courteous to the President for the senate to continue discussion of the treaty.—The senate ought to act or quit."

"A program of duty, justice and humanity, as the President well described."

"To say that is not to reproach or condemn the President."

Can it be the Colonel is suffering a softening of the Wilsonphobia arteries?

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Last Saturday night Henry Trusty of Elk Creek and Sam Courtney of Reese Creek, spent the night at the Sunnyside.

Sunday morning we had our usual attendance at Sunday school, but did not have any preaching, as our minister, Rev. Joseph Trevato, instead of coming out from Butte Falls to fill his regular appointments at Brownsboro and Eagle Point, remained in Butte Falls helping to take care of the sick and needy.

Sunday noon we did not have very many here for dinner, as we had had a little snow and rain, with a prospect for more. Although it proved to be a fairly nice day considering that it was the fifth Sunday in February, something that does not happen very often and will not occur again until February, 1928, if I am correctly informed.

Monday morning when I got up I found J. W. Sanders, the superintendent of the Commercial orchard, was here for breakfast, and supposed that he had come from home that morning as he is a man that is generally bringing in foreign help he will be shouted down as "un-American." Speaking about work in general and on the roads in particular, I heard two taxpayers discussing the proposition as to using the tractor engine to do a great deal of the grading, leveling, seraping and ditching on our county roads instead of using horses. When the horses are used, as a rule, they are stopped every short distance to rest, and the owners are careful not to over work them, and the man who handles the plow or grader is careful not to set it too deep, but with the iron horse, one can hitch onto the plow or grader, set them as deep as desired and still walk right along and do more work in one day than they can in two days with the teams and at a great deal less expense.

Miss Mae Greb came out on the Medford-Eagle Point stage Monday morning. J. P. McAuliffe of Fort Klamath and S. S. Mitchell of Ashland, two cattle buyers, C. W. Walton of Portland and Hamilton Watkins, on the Free Ferry road, C. V. Loosley, Fort Klamath and Fred Neil of Ashland, Mrs. S. A. Wheeler of Medford, who went up to Butte Falls as a trained nurse, came out on the stage Monday. All took dinner here.

S. M. Holk of Butte Falls came out on the stage Monday and went on to Medford. W. H. Crandall and "Brig" Whetstone were also business callers Monday.

Thomas Cincrade came in with his wood sawing machine to have it sharpened up a little by our blacksmith and machinist, W. F. Childreth.

B. H. Willison, representing L. Dinkelspiel, San Francisco; H. B. Stephenson, itney chauffeur and E. L. Potts of Medford were here for dinner Tuesday.

Mr. Ed Marsterson and Mrs. Elva Roberts of Dufer, Oregon, sisters of W. P. Morgan, who have been here visiting their sister, started for their home Tuesday.

Green Mathews, one of our prosperous cattlemen, made a business trip to Medford Tuesday.

James Davis, Jr., one of the deputy county assessors, who is appointed to assess the Brownsboro, Lake Creek and Climax districts, was with us Tuesday night on his way to his district.

H. L. Havse and wife were in town this Wednesday morning on their way home near the Free Ferry, they were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Riley.

Carl Taylor of Portland, a son of Mrs. R. O. Brown who is sister of Mrs. W. H. Brown, is here visiting his mother and family.

J. M. Spence of Kesho, Ore., who has been visiting his cousin, A. C. Spence of Brownsboro, eagle out of the Eagle Point-Lake Creek stage and doing. Carlyle Notwick and Jack Florey were here for beds also Sunday night and breakfast Monday morning.

Mrs. Fred Storges of Elk Creek and George Strong, also of Elk Creek and Mrs. Earnest Peachey, came out on the Medford-Eagle Point stage Mrs. Storges and Mr. Strong went up home on the Eagle Point-Prospect stage, and Mrs. Peachey went up to her home in Butte Falls.

P. W. Halev, one of our enterprising farmers, I understand, has sold his farm and is moving into Central Point. We don't like the idea much of having our old stand-by farmers selling out and moving away but it has come to that point where an old man, like Mr. Halev, for he is around 60 or 65 years, is not able to do the work on a farm and to attempt to hire the ordinary laborer, who is in the market for hire and depend on him for help when he will lay in bed until just time to wash his face and eat his breakfast before 8 o'clock, and if the team is fed the employer will have to go out to the barn and feed it and get it ready to go to work or else the hired man puts in a good part of his eight hours that he is expected to work getting the team ready and then if he is left to himself—well, he won't hurt himself working, and he will be sure to be in plenty of time for supper.

That is about the way that it is represented by those who have to depend on hiring men to work on the farms, and the farmer has to keep in his teams and have them do only about half the work they should have done, so the other ones are leaving the farms and the newcomers are introducing the tractor and catwalkers to do the farm work instead of spending so much on hired help. And yet if an employer says a word about this morning and went on to Medford on his way home. H. Bruggeman of Seattle, Wash., came out on the Medford-Eagle Point stage today and went up to Brownsboro on the Lake Creek stage.

C. H. Nordvik and son Carl, John Greb, Jr., Irvin Greb and his brothers George H. and Otto, and A. C. Edder of Lake Creek and Miss Lorraine Ames of Ashland were in town today. The five last named were on their way to Medford.

Mr. E. Szouzer of Beavering, Calif., a mule buyer; Frank Neff of Derby; Wm. Von der Hellen one of our hardware men and Mr. Jess McNeil of Alameda, Calif., were here for dinner today. Mr. McNeil was soliciting subscribers for some twenty different magazines and by that means working for a free pass to college. He served over two years in France and was gassed which incapacitates him from heavy work. He seemed to be meeting with success in his undertaking. He seems to be a bright young man and has undertaken a laudable project, trying to finish his education.
