TOM KAY IS FOR GOVERNOR LOWDEN ON G. O. P. TICKET

SALEM—At an enthusiastic meeting of republicans in Salem on Friday night, March 5, following a strong presentation of the merits of Governor Frank O. Lowden of Ill., no. 3, as a candidate for the presidency, by Thomas R. Kay, with rousing endorsements by Major C. H. Glos of Portland, and others, a Marion county organization was formed to further the Lowden candidacy.

Thomas R. Kay was elected chairman and Gordon R. Watt secretary of the new Marion county organization, and it was announced that an executive committee will be appointed within the next few days, with members from practically every town in the county. Frank Davey and Ronald Glover were elected vice-presidents.

In presenting the merits of Frank O. Lowden as presidential candidate, Mr. Kay laid special stress on the need of a practical business man at the head of the government at this time. He spoke of the dangers confronting the country and the many problems that must be met within the next four years, and said that if these are to be satisfactorily solved, the country's chief executive must be a man of wide business experience and great practical ability, as well as of loyalty and public spirit. In Frank O. Lowden, with his outstanding record of practical and public-spirited achievement, he said, the republican party now has such a man available.

A point emphasized by the speakers was the reduction through Governor Lowden's efforts, of the taxes in Illinois, which was the only state to reduce taxes under war conditions, during the past two years. Through reform inaugurated by Gov. Lowden, taxes in Illinois have been reduced 30 per cent, at a saving of $10,000,000 to the people of that state.

IOWA CATTLEMEN PRAISE PACKERS

WASHINGTON, Mar. 9.—Presenting a petition from 26 Iowa cattle producers and feeders opposing "any legislation against the packers," J. S. Blackwell of Muscatine, told the house agricultural committee today that those he represented were "against you gentlemen throwing a monkey wrench into the packer machinery in any way."

"We'll admit the big packers have been pretty good the last three years since this agitation began," interjected Representative Anderson, republican, Minnesota, author of the control bill before the committee.

"It strikes me that they've been pretty good all along, considering our prosperous condition," Blackwell replied, citing many state packing Iowa which he said had prospered in competition with the "big five."
