

WAR BREAKS OUT HONAN PROVINCE AGAINST MILITARY

SHANGHAI, Mar. 7.—(By Associated Press.) Warfare has broken out in Honan province because of the effort of the Peking government to appoint Wu Kwang-Hsin president of the province of Chao Yui, whose forces are opposing those of Wu Kwang-Hsin. This and the outbreak of hostilities in Kwantung province where fighting is proceeding between factions has brought to light a league of eight provinces—Fukien, Kiangsu, Chihli, Honan, Szechwan, Hupeh, Shantung and Kiangsi—aiming to effect peace by uniting against the militarists both of Peking and the south and forcing dissolution of the parliaments at Canton and Peking.
