Culturists—agri and horri—may not approve of the sunshine, but it takes away Ed Brown's excuse for wearing mittens. The general public will not behold him thus arrayed until the hunting season opens, which is fair warning.

"The administration has a clear record," ejaculated the charming and otherwise useless private secretary of Mr. Wilson Thursday at Newark, N. J. It does not seem possible for the regime to wander along eight years without accidentally doing something right.

In declaring for light wines and beer and the presidency simultaneously, Senator Hitchcock looks any number of votes that have no love for a democrat, but blind abhorrence for intolerance. There was a well-defined tendency recently to regulate men thoroughly and the regulators were those who needed regulating themselves, but their exuberance has abated. There is also a well-defined lunch that unless the reform monkey-cockery is cut off at the hip-joints at once, it will be unlawful to stand in the shade, except on days in August.

Restful Results for Men: Only a person who has experienced that awful "all night" cough that sometimes follows influenza can appreciate what a good night's sleep can be. Foley's Honey and Tar checks harsh, racking cough; eases whooping breathing; stops tickling in throat; covers raw, irritated surfaces with a soothing, healing feeling. For sale by Medford Pharmacy."

OBITUARY

DIED for the fourth and probably last time, 6:02 p. m., March 19, 1920 in the senate chamber of congress, Washington, D. C., the Peace Treaty and League covenant, of acute and pernicious political politics. The P. T. and L. C. had been ill for some time and death was not unexpected, although it will be a considerable shock to many friends both in this country and abroad.

Deceased did not suffer during the last hours, in fact, had been unconscious for several weeks, and even during the most violent application of emergency orations, failed to revive sufficiently to recognize its friends at the bedside. The P. T. and L. C. leaves to mourn its loss in addition to the world, half sisters in France, England and Italy and a score of other countries both in the west and eastern hemispheres.
