SICK WOMEN HEAR ME

You Can Be Free from Pain as I Am, if You Do as I Did.

Harrington, Me.—"I suffered with backache, pains through my hips and would ache a beginning down. Feeling that I could not stand on my feet. I also had other distressing symptoms. At times I had to give up work. I tried a number of remedies but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me more good than anything else. I am regular, do not suffer the pains I used to, keep house and do all the work. I recommend your medicine to all who suffer as I did and you may use my letter as you like."—Mrs. Minnie Merrill, Harrington, Me.

There are many women who suffer as Mrs. Merrill did and who are being benefited by this great medicine every day. It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is made from extracts of roots and herbs and is a safe medicine for women. If you need special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

The meeting of a better and greater Medford through a thoroughly democratic and general organization to be created by those residents of the city who are interested in its development and upbuilding will be the keynote sounded at the civic dinner and reorganization campaign meeting at the Hotel Medford at 8 o'clock this evening.

Scores of men and women of Medford have already allotted themselves as active workers in the campaign inaugurated by the Chamber of Commerce. These, together with many of their friends who are interested in building a greater and better Medford will assemble around the festal board to hear instructive talks on community development and to break bread together as one large civic family, bonded together by common inter-

He is now engaged in delivering a series of lectures throughout the country for the American City Bureau, in connection with the Chamber of Commerce campaigns. He has a pleasing personality, an eloquent, masterful style of expression and a faculty of presenting his subjects in a way that awaks and entertains his audiences.

Another celebrity who will feature the program will be Agnes Nielsen Shattuck, star contralto of the Temple Chorus of Seattle, Wash. Miss Shattuck has delighted those who have heard her during the past week at the revival services at the First Methodist church. The revival is to continue through the present week, but the meeting this evening will be dismissed between 8:30 and 9 o'clock for Rev. J. Randolph Sasnett in order to enable those who may be in attendance to proceed to the Hotel Medford and hear the address of Mr. Hawn. Mr. Sasnett, himself, is very much interested in the success of the campaign and has signed himself as a worker on one of the campaign teams that is to enroll the new members.

Slogan to Be Selected

The slogan committee has been called to meet at campaign headquarters at 5 o'clock this afternoon to make the award of the cash prize of $25 for the best slogan for the Chamber of Commerce. This prize is to be given by the chamber and the American City Bureau. Dozens of suggestions have been received. The slogan committee is composed of John Tiedin, Dr. E. O. Reddell, H. S. Dewel, Leonard Carpenter and Dr. L. Myron Bonser. The winner of the slogan prize will be announced at the Civic Dinner this evening.

3 MEDFORD MEN DISABLED IN WAR ARE GIVEN HELP

The soldier from Oregon, who was disabled while fighting for his country will never become a charge upon the community of the Federal Board for Vocational Education can prevent it.

The attached list of Medford men and the institutions in which they have been trained by the board, should banish all doubt on the subject.

Nearly 200 disabled men have been trained at institutions from this state. Mr. C. E. Anderson, district vocational officer, 510 Central Building, Seattle, Washington, is "making a record for his district, which includes the states of Idaho, Oregon and Washington, of which he is justly proud.

Civic Sunday Success

So favorable was the general impression created among local churchgoers yesterday that Civic Sunday, which had its first observance should be made a permanent annual feature. That the resolution was freely made that in future the different churches of the city will collaborate in devoting one service on a given date to presenting along lines of civic righteousness and the relationship between the church and the community.

The First Methodist Episcopal church, the First Presbyterian church, and the First Baptist church were among the local churches to observe Civic Sunday with special programs of services yesterday. At the church the Civic Sunday program featured the evening service. Short

LOCAL MINISTER JOINS ARMY TO STUDY MANKIND

"The Rev. Joseph Tronsdo came to the mounted recruiting to join the army and learn how to ride to Fort Russell, Wyo., there to become a member of the Fifteenth cavalry," says the Pendleton Journal.

"'I joined the army because I wanted to study men at close range,' Toronto Presbyterian circuit rider in northern Oregon, explained. 'I think three years will give me just what I want.'

"Quiet, smiling, the Italian evangelist with determination every time he was asked about his new adventure.

"'You see I am writing a book,' he said, 'and I realized I would have to have more experience to complete it properly.'

"Toronto graduated last year from the University of Pittsburg with the degree of bachelor of arts. At the same time he was attending university, he was a student at a theological seminary.

"Volunteers to man Presbyterian charges were sought. Toronto accepted, and was sent to Oregon. Since June, 1919, he has been a circuit rider near Medford, being in charge of the churches at Butte Falls and Eagle Point among other places. He has ridden a horse for years, and is a crack pistol shot.

"'I've learned a lot among those men in Southern Oregon. Why, some of them don't even consider their lives,' he said in admiration. Then he told of a feud between the sheriff there and some cowboys. To him, his eyes betrayed, the Southern Oregon country lacked adventure. He is 27 years of age, and has been in this country since he was 18 months old.

"'But the book?' he was reminded; 'with what does it deal?'

"'It will have to be a secret now,' he said, smiling."
