

FORM A GENERAL LEONARD WOOD CLUB IN MEDFORD

Walter Tooze, Sr., of Salem, organizer of Leonard Wood for President Republican clubs throughout the state, who arrived here Tuesday, declares he has found much Wood sentiment among local republicans and that a large club will soon be organized by him in Medford, which will be amalgamated with the Women's Leonard Wood club of Jackson county, which was organized here some time ago with a large membership.

Mr. Tooze is undeniably a Wood enthusiast and an indefatigable worker in the cause. He is at it every moment and no voter is too hard for him to tackle, as witness the fact that he was seen in earnest confab with Bill Gates, the local hard-boiled mug-wump this morning, and each concedes that they were not discussing the weather or spring crops.

Mr. Tooze has just come from Ashland where a Leonard Wood club was organized Monday night with over a hundred members and with the following officers: President, Fred C. Holmes; vice president, William M. Briggs; secretary, D. A. Applegate, and treasurer, Mrs. Minnie Jackson. Mr. Tooze, who makes his headquarters at the Hotel Holland, was greatly rejoiced over General Wood's victory in South Dakota election primaries.

BAKER, Ore., Mar. 24.—Notice has just been issued by the officers of the Cattle and Horse Raisers' association of Oregon, that the date of the annual meeting at Burns has been definitely fixed for May 24 and 25.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH
How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffing, hacking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. "Relief is sure."

"Auction of Souls" at Rialto

Local theatre patrons will be given the first opportunity they ever had to see an authentic reproduction of the modern slave markets and harems of Turkey during the presentation, at the Rialto theatre, of "Auction of Souls," the sensational historicization of the amazing experiences of Aurora Maritzanin, sole survivor of 500,000 young Christian girls taken captive by the Turks when they ravished Armenia in 1915.

Up to the present time all film and stage versions of Eastern harem and slave market scenes—even those produced by the greatest directors—sought their inspiration from the stories of the Arabian Nights and from paintings which reproduced the harems and slave markets of a thousand years ago, and which are not true to life in the twentieth century.

In "Auction of Souls," the producers have broken with tradition and in stage setting, costume and action, have reproduced not a conventional Arabian Night slave market and harem scene, but have taken their models these places as they existed before the British entered Constantinople.

exit from the sorely pressed town safely open to the troops.

COBLENZ, Mar. 23.—Otto Maindorf, who was released from prison to take charge of the communist movement in the Ruhr basin, has ordered all workmen who have seen military service to report for duty, threatening, if they fail to obey, to cut off their food rations. Since gaining control, the Reds have re-established the German food ration and have requisitioned druggists and doctors to care for the wounded.

The communist military equipment is a complete modern warfare uniform, but some of the men in the ranks are wearing civilian clothes. Reports reaching here state many women are fighting with the communists.

There are many anti-semitic demonstrations, although many of the communist leaders and officers are Jews.

DUSSELDORF, Mar. 23.—(By Associated Press.) Leaders of the elements which have taken over control of this city insist the movement should not be termed communistic, as Soviets throughout Germany are considered impossible and dangerous. It is desired above all to do away with militarism, they add, and show the allies that Germany is determined to take such a stand.

There are a few armed guards, but no real army is to be seen. It is planned to have an old army commander, Captain Broadam, in charge of "the security guards" which is to be composed of workmen, who can be called to arms in case of emergency. Friedrich Stahl, one of the eight members of the Dusseldorf executive committee, installed in the provincial government house told the Associated Press the movement precipitated by the Kapp revolt was particularly a workmen's protest against that military movement and militarism in general.

"This is no soviet revolution," he declared. "At the moment at least we are standing on the same grounds as the regular government chosen by the people of Germany. What we want the government to do is to uphold the peoples' will expressed in the last elections * * * and to crush militarism in every form."

"Everything will go on smoothly. The workmen, including the head and hand workers will work now with a will, while under military rule as it had developed last month under Noske, they worked against their will."

our requisition is in now for a few dozen at least, and some with seven palms. The luster of battle surely stirs up red blooded Americans, even if it is only the battle for "Permanent Prosperity" that is now being waged in Medford.

Major Ben Sheldon throw down the gauntlet yesterday by outstripping Major Domergue's division in the race for the objective which is 400 members. Major Ben is certainly entitled to the chromo on the first day out. When approached by the war correspondent he would not comment on how he had done it or what his plans were. "We are sitting pretty" is all he would offer. Domergue, the foxy major who is collaborating in the great offensive, when told of Major Sheldon's comment had much to say. "I saw him 'sitting pretty' at the lunch yesterday, but wait until we really try and he will stop sitting and he won't look nearly so pretty when the smile of disappointment replaces that of over-confidence. We did not pick out our cream and soft stuff for a showing the first day." Well, you can see for yourself that Domergue's dander is up and no telling what will happen before we get through.

The teams all met this morning at the headquarters at ten o'clock and started out promptly. Things are oiled up and woe to the would-be immovable object that tries to stop their irresistible force. The first day saw them off to a late start and much of the time was spent in routing their districts and learning the game. Tuesday's results represented little more than one hour's efforts.

The teams met at lunch again today at the Holland and after the business was reported, were treated to a real "needle" talk by Mr. J. C. Herbsman of Portland. Mr. Herbsman has been on the chautauqua platform for years. His subject is "Dry Bones" and he surely makes one hear the crackling of the "dry bones" in his lecture.

Tomorrow morning the teams will again go out in a desperate attempt to clean-up and get the work over. All teams will report promptly at the headquarters at ten o'clock and report at the luncheon at 12:15 at the Medford hotel.

A complete roster to date of the newly signed Chamber of Commerce members will be published in tomorrow's paper.
