Ye Smudge Pot By Arthur Perry

The favorite knock this spring for men prominent and gaining more of it than good for somebody else's presidential ambitions, is to proclaim him crazy.

Shriners of Portland in preparing a list of "Don'ts" published in the Oregonian Sunday, started off with the following unnecessary and irrelevant remark, "Don't raise the price of anything."

About the only thing this town needs outside of another garage, is a street named Broadway, and a boulevard of some kind.

Matrimonial victims for June have commenced to blossom in this vicinity.

Complaint has been filed that Jack Dempsey receives more money in a year than a cabinet officer. Mr. Dempsey can knock a man down without making a mess of it.

The German workers are a reasonable lot. Saturday they issued a manifesto proposing that everybody turn in their guns and quit fighting.

Congressman Hawley has announced his candidacy for re-election. Mr. Hawley is like George Chamberlain. Anybody can beat him in the spring, and nobody in the fall.

The world could find rest from its turmoil and war and misery by following the teachings of the Bible, or bying too, but it would net none of the present surplus crop of would-be leaders any political benefit.

The wife of Charlie Chaplin alleges that he acts in real life about as he does on the screen.

THE WEATHER.

THE WEATHER is always a fruitful topic. If you meet Bill Jones on the street and don't know what else to say, it is always safe to remark that it's a fine day.

The reason goes deep into the elemental basis of human life. For scientists assure us that the weather has far more influence over civilization than politics.

Talking about the weather is particularly appropriate this morning because there isn't much else to talk about. The political campaign is over. General Wood has been nominated and elected.

Moreover, the subject is timely because there is so much weather just now in the south and middlewest. All the telegraph wires not down are full of it.

So at such a time, sympathy for the sufferers to the east, can but be tempered by gratitude to the weather man for what he is doing for the west.

Here it is. Therefore, one of the more important jobs of the renewed Chamber of Commerce should be the stimulation of conversation about the weather.

A climatic survey of the Rogue River Valley properly and promptly distributed, would be a genuine benefit to all concerned.

The casualty lists from Germany recently have for some reason failed to arouse much local apprehension.

To hear some of the knockers talk, any man who strikes oil should be arrested for assault and battery.

BACK TO NORMAL.

WE WON'T get back to normal ways until we've had some rainy days. So long as roubles grow on trees, and greenbacks wave in every breeze, we'll hit high places and repeat, and scorch the length of Easy street.

Tribune's Daily Health Hint

By Harriet Boewig. A famous singer says this bit of advice to beginners: A bright smile and a relaxed hand. This is not a sermon on singing; but the same rules will carry any of us thru the day better than the attitude we are apt to assume.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets. If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a larynx, no good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

TONOPAH, NEVADA, MINE OWNER WAS FORCED TO QUIT

"I was forced to give up my mining business and move to Los Angeles seeking health, but thanks to Tanlac I am going back a well man," said William H. Hart, who owns the Vindicator-Divido mine in Tonopah, Nevada.

"For nine years," he continued, "I suffered terribly from indigestion, my appetite was poor and everything I ate would cause so much gas in my stomach that I would be drawn all most double with pain. I got so nervous I couldn't write a letter and even the wind blowing around the house at night would upset me so I couldn't sleep. I lost forty pounds in weight and finally had such bad attacks that I couldn't stay on the job another day. I just gave up and came out here, but the change, like all the treatments I had taken, seemed to do me no good at all.

"One day a friend recommended Tanlac to me and I will never be able to thank him enough, for now after taking four bottles I feel like a new man. I eat three hearty meals a day, my nerves are as steady as a rock, I sleep like a child at night and I am going back to my mines feeling fit and fine in every way. I am glad to have a chance to tell other people what a great medicine Tanlac is."

Tanlac is sold in Medford by West Side Pharmacy, and by leading druggists in every town. Adv.
