RIVERSIDE RIPPLES

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Boyd were Medford visitors Sunday calling on friends and relatives. Geo. W. Jacobs was in Medford one day the past week and returned with a Ford car.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McDonald were dinner guests Sunday at the Pickett home. Fred Champlin returned to his home on Foothills Sunday having been in Medford and serving on the jury at Jacksonville the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gray were Ashland visitors Friday. Miss Lyndall Jacobs, Messrs. Geo. W. Jacobs, Bert Carley and George Davis drove to Medford Saturday evening and attended the dance at the Nat.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Striker were down from Ashland and spent Thursday and Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Brashers. The new directors of the Irrigation district, Messrs. W. W. Hittler and I. H. Porter, were out Sunday looking over the ditch in the Gold Hill section.

Mrs. M. Jacobs, the Misses Nellie and Lyndall Jacobs and Geo. Jacobs were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wahl. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wahl were down from Medford Sunday afternoon calling at the Chas. Wahl home. They were accompanied by Mrs. Barnum and Mr. Eldridge.

Mrs. G. B. Alden came down from Medford Thursday to attend the Recreation club meeting and for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Engel, returning to Medford Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Champlin were guests Sunday of Mrs. Champlin's mother, Mrs. Wahl. F. C. Elliott and family returned to Medford Sunday after a short visit with relatives on Riverdale.

C. W. McDonald and Geo. B. Alden drove down from Medford Tuesday evening and attended the business meeting of the Irrigation district. The Recreation club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Esther Brashers at her home Thursday afternoon. Readings were given by Mrs. Striker and Mrs. Gay and instrumental music by Miss Martin of Rogue River, was greatly enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

C. D. Woolverton was a business visitor in Grants Pass Thursday. Mr. Herrlan left for Medford Saturday on a business trip. Mrs. Celia Cross has been visiting home folks the last week, and looking after her interests. She is stopping in Marshfield at the present time. She left here Saturday for that place. Gertrude and Edith Fredenburg were shopping in town the first of the week.

Frank Katherland returned from the valley Thursday. We have been experiencing some real blustery weather thru March and will be glad when this month has passed on; only a few more days anyway. Several cruisers came thru town Sunday on their way into the tall timber above here.

Mrs. John Cadzow entertained with 500 one evening last week. Mrs. Peachy, Miss Alene Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. Jewett, Mr. and Mrs. George Barker, Mr. Cox and three cruisers, I didn't learn their names. The high school boys went down to Central Point Friday afternoon to play basket ball with the team there, and our boys came out winner, 41 to 12. This makes the second game the boys have won from the valley boys.

They will play Applegate in the near future. Lester Smith returned from college Saturday looking fine after his winter's sojourn in Eugene. Mrs. Buel Hildreth's uncle and family are here visiting for a short time waiting for the roads to dry up some, so they can continue their journey on north. They have been spending the winter in California, and returned as far as Medford in their car. We are informed that more timber buyers are coming up this week, to look over our vast forests. They are always welcome, so are the old men that said they would come back soon. This is too valuable a country to lay idle, as it is, when there is a scarcity of the material that is going to waste every day up here, enough to keep several mills in operation and employment for hundreds of men, so we are in hopes that the right one will come along soon and start the wheels revolving.

TABLE ROCK TABLETS

A letter from G. P. Hall at Oakland, Cal., states that he will be unable to return to this district this spring. Mr. Hall for several years has been employed to do the gardening at the Modoc orchard and consequently will be missed at the big ranch this spring. Will Lydford has returned from a two weeks business trip to Klamath Falls. The Persons family are now residents of the Agate district having moved there last week.

Work on the roads in this district which was held up on account of the rainstorm has been resumed. It is reported that boring for oil will soon commence in the Sams Valley district. With three drills going in the valley let us hope that the price of gasoline may some day be lowered. Roy Kyle of Eagle Point, was a business visitor here Sunday. Among the roll of honor cows in the Jackson County Cow Testing association for the month of January is one belonging to Stanley Lydford of this place which was third on the list for quantity of milk produced and fourth in pounds of butterfat. Many from here attended the program at St. Mary's academy last Friday night. Mr. Vandorff of Medford, was buying hay in this district last Tuesday. J. C. Penelton is helping with the work of assessing property in the county. Frank Deford recently killed an upper Table Rock one of the largest wild cats ever seen in this vicinity. C. W. Sage and family of Medford, were recent visitors at the Nealon ranch. Dr. J. S. Higgins and wife and little daughter of Live Oak, Cal., returned to their home Monday after a few days visit at the Lydford home. Mr. Higgins is a nephew of J. H. Lydford. It appears at the present time that the fruit trees in this vicinity were not injured by the severe cold weather of last December and are putting forth their buds the same as usual. However many ornamental trees and shrubs were destroyed. Mrs. Agnes D. Reese has sold her 54 acre ranch to Loren Gregory of Agate, for a consideration of $7000. The packing house which has just been completed at the Modoc orchard is said to be the most up-to-date house of its kind in the valley. A real estate deal of much importance was closed a few days ago when the Wyocoff ranch became the property of Mr. Wells of Nebraska, for a consideration in the neighborhood of $25,000. Mr. Wells and family will take possession next fall and will begin at once the work of making a model stock and alfalfa ranch out of their property. With copious showers purifying the earth the flu wave has passed over and indications point to better times.

The frogs sing, the grass shoots up, the office seekers "shake", the hens lay eggs, land buyers buy, the cows give more milk, the birds sing, the trees push out their buds and the women folk and chickens scratch in the garden, it being the season just between the cough and sneeze fever of winter and the spring fever period of spring.

Restful Results for Men Only a person who has experienced that awful "all night" cough that sometimes follows influenza can appreciate what a good night's sleep can be. Mrs. Annie Davidson, 2089 Myrtle St., Long Beach, Cal., writes: "The result of using Foley's Honey and Tar was a restful one for me." Foley's Honey and Tar checks harsh, racking coughs; eases whooping, coughing; stops tickling in throat; soothes raw, irritated surfaces with a soothing, healing feeling. For sale by Medford Pharmacy.
