

MAYOR GATES NOT TO BE CANDIDATE FOR THIRD TERM

Although the fall general election, when all the city officials will be elected, including the councilmen, due to the change made in the election laws, is far away, Mayor C. E. Gates made the positive announcement today that he would not be a candidate for re-election, saying that he had had enough mayoralty honor for life during the past four years and that he hailed with much gladness the approaching time when he could doff the chief executive office of the city and retire to private life, where he would have time enough to eat a few meals now and then. His second term as mayor is now nearing its end.

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Medford. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof.

Edwin J. White, prop. dairy business, 222 E. Main St., Medford, says: "I was nearly laid up with an attack of lumbago. It came on without any warning and I thought my back was broken. I couldn't straighten up and went about all bent over. A friend advised me to take Doan's Kidney Pills which I did, and soon I was able to get about. It required only one box to fix me up in fine shape and since then I have never had any trouble with my back and kidneys."
